The exhibition LORE, guest curated by Ryan Rice, is the occasion for the launch of the Community Art Lab. This project is a research-based workshop of community individuals whose chief activity will be to stimulate an increased understanding and a sustained quality enhancement of the visual arts in the City of Sherbrooke. For its first edition, a series of activities and workshops related to the importance of storytelling within First Nation culture will be offered to the public.

On May 16, Louise Mauger, a well-known bookbinder artist, will be conducting a bookbinding workshop offered to professional artists, writers and cultural workers. Three different kinds of bookbinding techniques will be introduced to the participants.

Video projection from the Wapikoni Mobile, a mobile video production studio intended for young First Nation of Northern Quebec will be shown on Saturday, June 6 at 2:00 pm. The project, initiated by Quebec filmmaker Manon Barbeau, has been active since 2004. Jolyanne Mathieu, from the National Film Board, will be here to introduce the project.

Film Festival Présence Autochtone: a selection of short films and video from the festival will be presented at the gallery on Wednesday, June 17 at 7:00 pm.

Gallery Hours:

Tuesday to Saturday, from 12 noon to 5:00 pm (and all evenings of presentation at Centennial Theatre).
