2008 BISHOP'S UNIVERSITY GAITERS SEASON OUTLOOK / PRÉVU DE LA SAISON

There is something different in the air around Lennoxville as the 2008 season begins. After last season saw the Bishop's Gaiters return to the national radar, the aura of expectations has settled in. "We are much more capable now than we've ever been", says Head Coach Leroy Blugh. "We have a great balance between our offence and defence, and I expect really big things from our big players." Blugh, the reigning QUFL Coach of the Year, will look to continue the Gaiters' rise to the position of national prominence they held during his own playing days at Bishop's in the 1980s.

In 2007, the Gaiters burst onto the national stage with a breakout season. Bishop's posted a 5-3 record, their first winning season since 1995, and rose to as high as #6 in the CIS Top Ten. The Gaiters made their first playoff appearance since 2001 and broke through a number of long-standing barriers, including the team's first national ranking in ten years, and their first top-three finish since 1995.

The 2008 Gaiters will be a veteran squad, with more than 50 players returning from the 2007 team, including 19 of their 2007 starters. Stability has also taken hold in the Gaiters' coaching staff, with the sole change being the addition of former Gaiters' quarterback Kyle Williams as the team's new quarterbacks coach.

The Gaiters face one of the toughest schedules in the country, as two conference champions (Laval and Saint Mary's), and one league finalist (Concordia) pay visits to Lennoxville, while the annual Homecoming game sees the Gaiters face their cross-town rivals from Sherbrooke. On the road this year, the Gaiters make a return trip to Sherbrooke, and will visit to Concordia, McGill and Montreal.

OFFENCE

Offensively, the Gaiters will be led by fourth-year running back Jamall Lee, who is off a record-breaking season during which he went over 150 yards on five occasions and had seven runs of 50 yards or longer, including one for 100 yards. The Gaiters also return veteran quarterback Jesse Andrews, who averaged 152 yards passing, and fifth-year receiver Keith Godding, who returns from the Montreal Alouettes' practice roster. The Gaiters also return their entire starting offensive line, led by QUFL All-Star Steven Mabee, a unit that allowed Bishop's to average 192 yards per game on the ground, while allowing only 12 sacks.

Quarterbacks

For the first time in a number of years, the Gaiters boast a true veteran starting quarterback, as Jesse Andrews returns for his third season under centre. Andrews, who took over as the Gaiters' starter on September 30, 2006 and has started all 14 games since, leads a Gaiters offence that averaged 357.6 yards per game last season. Andrews finished the regular season with a completion percentage of 57.3% and his 1218 passing yards was third in the QUFL.

Jeff Hildreth, a second-year quarterback from Hamilton, will challenge Andrews for the top job. Although Hildreth saw limited action last season, he did make the most of his opportunity. His first CIS pass attempt was good for an 86-yard touchdown strike against Mount Allison last fall.

Jake Ruddy and Brad Elliot, both redshirt freshmen, have worked hard to improve their game through winter practice and will push Andrews and Hildreth for playing time. Highly-regarded newcomer Jordan Heather (Oromocto, N.B.) will also be looking use his strong arm and good delivery to move up the depth chart.

Running Backs

Jamall Lee returns for his fourth season with the Gaiters, fresh off his record-breaking, All-Canadian season. Lee set new provincial records for rushing yards (1464), attempts (181), touchdowns (12) and all-purpose yards (1533) on his way to winning the Jeff Russel Trophy as the QUFL's Most Outstanding Player. He has returned looking to build on last season's accomplishments.

2008 BISHOP'S UNIVERSITY GAITERS
SEASON OUTLOOK / PRÉVU DE LA SAISON

Steven Turner returns for his third season, and will be splitting time between running back and slotback. His breakaway speed and the ability to make people miss meant that the Gaiters did not miss a beat offensively when he entered the game last season. Rookie John Jean-Baptiste, a January 2008 entry, excelled during the Gaiters' winter training, and will challenge for playing time.

At the fullback position, veteran Tim Cronk returns, and will compete for playing time with Braydon McLean, who is moving from the offensive line. Both have shown excellent blocking skills and have the ability to make catches out of the backfield.

Receivers

The Gaiters return fifth-year wide receiver Keith Godding, who made highlight reels in June with his 60-yard touchdown catch in a preseason game with the Montreal Alouettes. Godding led the Gaiters last year with 359 yards on 26 catches, and after his brief experience in the professional ranks will be looking to close out his career at Bishop's with a bang. The Gaiters also return second-year slotback Shawn Gore, who showed great promise last year making 15 catches for 224 yards (a 14.9 average).

The loss of 2007 starters Olivier Mongeau (medical redshirt) and Robin Medeiros will be felt, but the Gaiters will look to veteran Steven Turner and newcomer Chris Bromfield to fill the void. Turner, who will see time as both a slotback and a running back, will provide a deep threat for the Gaiters' pivots. Last year, in limited action, he caught seven passes for sixty yards. Chris Bromfield, a transfer from the University of Ottawa, is expected to move into the other wide receiver position, but rookies Jehu Telfer and Kheon Clarke will hope to challenge him.

Offensive Line

A strong part of last season's offensive performance, the Gaiters' offensive line returns all five of last season's starters. However, there has been some shifting in the middle of the line, as Philip Sauer moves from right to left guard, with Steven Mabee (a 2007 QUFL All-Star) moving to centre and Mike Berta moving out to right guard. The team played well as a unit last year, allowing the Gaiters to rack up a league leading 192 yards rushing per game, and allowing only 12 sacks on the season.

The Gaiters also boast a pair of veteran reserves in Alex Lau and Adam Noll, both of whom saw playing time last season and will be expected to step up in 2008. Redshirt freshman Robert Frac and newcomer Noubar Mareshlian will also challenge for playing time.

DEFENCE

Defensively, the Gaiters return all three of last season's starting linebackers, including Dustin Burke, Kyle Jones and James Yurichuk. Yurichuk and Jones were both selected to the 2008 East-West Bowl. Burke, who will be moving to Defensive End, led the Gaiters with 49 tackles and 5 sacks, while Jones finished with 44.5 and Yurichuk picked up 42.5 tackles and 4 sacks. Nick Poloniato, whose seven interceptions were the highest in the CIS last season, will anchor the secondary. On the defensive line, the Gaiters have lost Dan McCullough to the CFL's B.C. Lions, while Charles Burke, Simon Jones and Matt Chown have all graduated.

Defensive Line

The Gaiters' defensive line has seen all four of last season's starters depart. McCullough, a three-time QUFL All-Star is now with the B.C. Lions, becoming the latest Gaiter to crack the CFL ranks.

In their place will step veteran Dustin Burke, who is moving up from the middle linebacker position. Burke has become stronger in the off-season and has great speed in the pass rush. Defensive tackle Nick Rigg is entering his fifth season with the Gaiters, and will be expected to excel now that he has earned his opportunity to be a full-time starter. In limited time last year, Rigg made 14.5 tackles and has one sack. The presence of Burke and Rigg will provide leadership to a relatively young front four. Second-year men Junior Turner and Kyle Burns are also expected to move up into starting roles. Turner recorded his first career CIS sack last season against Montreal.

SEASON OUTLOOK / PRÉVU DE LA SAISON

The line is deep, with veterans Mathieu Boulay, Frank Aiello (who moved over from fullback) and redshirt freshman Kenrick Ritchie, challenging for places on the first line of the depth chart. Highly-regarded rookie Kevin Kwasny, who was the Winnipeg High School Football League's Defensive Player of the Year for 2007, will also be looking to make an immediate impact on the Gaiters' lineup.

Linebackers

The Gaiters return a veteran corps of linebackers, including fourth-year men Kyle Jones and James Yurichuk. Jones is the prototypical strong-side linebacker, with the ability to cover like a defensive back or to play inside the box. At the weak side, Yurichuk returns for his fourth season. He made 42.5 tackles last season (3rd on the team, 8th in the QUFL), set a team record with 13.5 tackles in a game, led the Gaiters with five passes knocked down and scored his first career CIS touchdown on a 50-yard fumble return. His versatility and speed will make him a force to be reckoned with this season.

Hyacinthe Boulé-Regnier will move up into the starting middle linebacker spot. Boulé-Regnier, a 4th-year Quebec City native, made two tackles last season in limited action. The Gaiters also return veterans Zachary Buis and Justin Conn, along with redshirt freshman Stephen O'Donnell. Rookie D'Arcy Nash will also contend to move up the depth chart.

Defensive Backs

The Gaiters return an experienced defensive secondary, led by cornerback Nick Poloniato. Poloniato led the CIS with seven interceptions last season, including a 41-yard touchdown return. Safety Shane Francis made three interceptions last year, and will hold down the middle of the field again this year. At defensive halfback, the Gaiters return fourth-year man Wesley Rundle, who made 20 tackles last season, including one sack and had one interception, and Corey Cook, who is going into his second year. Cook made 14.5 tackles last season, including 4.5 in the Gaiters' win at Acadia. Veteran Matt Gordon, who made 11.5 tackles last season, rounds out the starting secondary at the weak-side cornerback position.

Jermaine Lewis-Parris, who started six games last season at safety and halfback, will push the starters for playing time, as will veterans Shawn Naylor, Kiron Clarke and Andrew Collymore, all of whom saw significant playing time last season. Among the newcomers, Harrison Maloney, a graduate of Champlain College and a member of Team Canada in 2006, and Delien Charles, who spent last season with the St. Leonard Cougars, will contend to move up the depth chart.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Punter/Kicker

Josh Maveety returns to handle the place-kicking duties for his second year. In his rookie season, Maveety was a perfect 26-for-26 on convert attempts and went 6-for-11 on field goals, including hitting on both his attempts from outside 40 yards. He was also 3-for-4 in the Gaiters' semifinal loss at Concordia. Maveety averaged 54.1 yards on kickoffs last season, and will handle those duties again.

Maveety split the punting chores early last season with Kyle Jones, and will do so again through training camp. Jones had a consistent performance last season, with a career-best average of 33.4 yards per punt, on 78 attempts. Jones also extended Gaiters drives by recovering and advancing two of his own punts last season, an extremely rare feat in modern football.

Returns

Steven Turner, a 2007 QUFL All-Star kick returner, returns for his third season. Turner set a CIS record with three kickoff return touchdowns last season, including majors in each of the first two games. His breakaway speed caused teams to kick the ball away from him, limiting him to only five returns on the year, but an average of 66.8 yards. On punt returns, Turner averaged 10.0 yards on 22 returns.

The loss of Olivier Mongeau has opened up a place with Turner in the return position. To fill the void, veteran receiver Keith Godding and second-year defensive back Shantino Wilson are expected to see time on the return team. Wilson broke into the lineup late last season and showed promise as he averaged 25.8 yards on four kickoff returns and over 20 yards per punt return.
