2009-10 BISHOP'S GAITERS SEASON OUTLOOK / PERSPECTIVE DE LA SAISON

Alex Perno's second season in charge of the Bishop's Gaiters Women's Basketball team will see him lead a smaller and quicker lineup. With the departure of veteran forwards Amanda Piribauer, Laure Pitfield and Christelle Côté, the Gaiters will be driven by their guard play in 2009-10. The Gaiters return eight players (including three starters), from last year's team that finished 13-12 overall, second in the Quebec University Basketball League.

2008-09 saw the Gaiters return to the top half of the QUBL standings with a 10-6 league record. Early last season, the Gaiters won the Loeb Glebe Invitational in Ottawa, their first tournament win in five years, and had a 4-2 league record at the Christmas break. After a successful trip to Cuba in the holiday season, the team struggled to find consistency through January. However, in February, the team regained their earlier form, finishing the regular season strong with wins in four of their last five games. The Gaiters played their first home playoff game in two years, but were upset by UQAM in the league semifinal.

Guards

The Gaiters return three starters at guard, led by third-year point guard Jessy Roy. Roy, last year's Bishop's Female Athlete of the Year, also picked up her second straight QUBL All-Star nod, as she averaged 6.9 points and 3.4 assists per game overall. She finished second in the league with 4.3 assists in 16 regular-season games and led the league with a 1.4 assist-to-turnover ratio.

The Gaiters' second returning all-star is fourth-year swingman Katy Germain. The Val d'Or native and ex-Sherbrooke Volontaire, averaged 11.5 points overall last season on her way to being named to the QUBL First All-Star team. She set a career high last season with a 27-point game against McGill, and had four 20-point games last year. Germain was lethal from beyond the arc, as she led the QUBL with a 0.398 three-point shooting percentage.

Rounding out the veteran starters is fourth-year shooting guard Mélanie Ouellet-Godcharles. Last season, she averaged 7.8 points per game, while logging a team-leading 28.4 minutes per game. She led the league with a 0.904 free throw percentage, and her tenacious defensive play saw her take responsibility for shutting down the opposition's top scorers.

Leading the guards off the bench will be Marie-Ève Lemoine. The fourth-year guard from Sorel, Que. finished last season with 4.8 points and 2.5 rebounds while averaging 16.4 minutes per game. She scored a career-high 14 points in last year's regular-season finale against Concordia.

The Gaiters will also look to second-year guards Annick Stephanny Charles and Gabrielle Côté-Caouette to play key roles off the bench. Charles, a 5'6" Laval native, was the team's Rookie of the Year last year, as she averaged 2.1 points and 1.5 rebounds in 24 games. She will be expected to provide depth at point guard. Côté-Caouette, the team's Most Improved Player last year showed promise after she worked her way into the lineup by the end of January. She broke through with an 11-point performance on January 31 against Laval, and averaged 13.7 minutes in her last six games.

Forwards

The Gaiters will field a young group of forwards this season. The key veteran presence up front will come from fifth-year power forward Robyn Wilson. The Vancouver native was the Gaiters' sixth man last season but will return to the starting five in 2009-10. She led the QUBL with a 0.649 field goal percentage, and averaged 5.4 points and 5.0 rebounds in 22 minutes per game last year. The winner of last year's Nancy Knowlton Award for dedication and leadership, she will be expected to lead the Gaiters from the front.

At centre, Felicia Craig-Thompson returns for her third season. Playing behind veteran centres Pitfield and Piribauer in her first two years, the 6'2" London, Ont. native has seen limited playing time thus far, averaging 1.8 points in just over 5 minutes per game. She is continue her upward progression in 2009-10 and make a key contribution to the Gaiter in the low post.

The Gaiters will also welcome five rookies from far and wide to the frontcourt. At centre, 6' Halifax native Elizabeth Coolen joins the Gaiters from Citadel High School, where she won two Provincial championships. A powerful player, she is expected to provide toughness under the glass. Also joining the Gaiters from the Maritimes is Janelle Haddad, a 6'3" post from Saint John, New Brunswick. She was a member of the 2006 New Brunswick U-16 team, and will provide depth at the centre spot.

5'11" forward Bethan Chalke also comes to the Gaiters with championship credentials. The North Vancouver, B.C. native won a Provincial AAA High School championship with the Handsworth Royals, and was named a First Team All-Star at the tournament. She is joined at forward by 6'1" Tamara Grice from Saint-Hubert, Quebec. Grice was a member of Team Quebec at the 2005 Canada Summer Games, and finished 10th in the Cégep AAA league last year with 15 blocks in 19 games for the Champlain-St. Lambert Cavaliers. The final recruit for the Gaiters is Juliana López Montoya, a 5'7" forward from Medellin, Colombia. An exchange student in Economics, López will provide valuable minutes off the bench in her year in Lennoxville.

The Gaiters' 25-game schedule starts with a difficult test: the Alberta Pandas Hoopfest, where the Gaiters will face three of last year's CIS semi-finalists (Alberta, Regina, and Windsor). Tournament play continues two weeks later at the Don Grant Invitational in Moncton, N.B. with a trio of games against AUS foes. The 16-game QUBL schedule begins on Friday November 13 at Concordia, with the home opener on November 21 against Laval. The Gaiters will head to France for a tour in mid-December, and play three OUA teams at the UQAM tournament after Christmas. The Gaiters resume league play on January 6, 2010 at McGill, with the regular season ending on February 27 at Laval. The QUBL semifinals are set for Wednesday, March 3, which the championship following on Saturday, March 6. The QUBL winner advances to the CIS Championship, set for March 11-13 in Hamilton.
