Calvary.

The women stood and watched while thick black night
Enclosed the awful tragedy. Afar
Three crosses stood, against a single bar
Of crimson-glowing, black-encircled light.
No hint of Easter dawn. In all the height
Of that dark heaven, not a single star
To whisper—Love and life the victors are.
It seemed to them that wrong had conquered right.

O ye who watch and wait, the night is long.
A curtain of spun fire and woven gloom
Across the mighty tragedy is drawn.
But soon your ears shall hear a triumph song,
And golden light shall touch each sacred tomb,
And voices shout at last—The Dawn ! The Dawn !

Pro Patria.

Private Lennox Robertson '16 recently distinguished himself during a term in the trenches with his regiment, the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles.

During the course of a heavy bombardment he was stationed as signaller in a dugout, with one runner. The German shells fell thickly on all sides, and one dropped just outside the dug-out, sending shrapnel through it, and tearing the clothes of Robertson's companion and his own boots. Finding that his telephone wires had been cut by the German shell-fire, "Doc." went out at once into the open to repair the line. This he finally succeeded in doing by carrying his 'phone out to a shell hole under heavy shell and rifle fire, and thus regained communication with the artillery in the rear.

For this action Private Robertson was paraded before the Colonel, who publicly complimented him for his plucky conduct. An account of the action was published in the orders of the day, and a recommendation forwarded for the Distinguished Conduct Medal.

We congratulate "Doc." most heartily, and sincerely hope that the recommendation will go through. This is "Doc's" second time at distinguishing himself, having saved a soldier from drowning at Valcartier last summer.

Upon going to press we have received news of our Bursar's splendid achievement in the trenches. Lieut. J. C. Stewart who, we understand, is acting as a Scout-Master, went to the front with the 42nd Highlanders, where recently he broke up a German patrol, captured a German, and was mentioned in despatches.

Good old Jock !

Letters from the Front.

Private G. E. D. Wilkinson, 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles, writing from France to Max Norcross says :—"This life is certainly different from the times when we used to go out camping, but we get enough to eat, although we get rather tired of it after a time. Since I last wrote we have been in the trenches twice again. The first time in was the most pleasant, as the weather kept pretty fine, but the second time it rained steadily, making the mud, which is always bad, worse than ever ! Christmas day being a holiday, we took it easy until evening, when we had a sumptuous dinner, provided by Cocks. Afterwards we had songs and recitations and on the whole a very good time "

Professor Call has received letters from Lieut. J. C. Stewart, Private J. A. Lobban, B. A., and Sergeant N. A. Qua, M.A. The following are extracts from their letters: Mr. Qua writes, "I must confess that I have not seen a real live German except throughout a periscope. By the time I grabbed my rifle to take a shot he had disappeared. I am still looking for that German!

Our carefully sharpened bayonets, I fear, will rust away in their scabbards, though I have occasionally taken out mine to act as tent-peg, candle-holder, can-opener, etc: so you see it is not entirely useless. This war, as far as I can see, is being fought entirely with pick and shovel and the artillery. One day, during a bombardment, about three "whiz-bangs" skimmed over the cook-shack where I was eating dinner, by about six inches, and the next burst six feet past it, entirely spoiling a fine sandwich, and burying one of the fellows! He moved a loose leg and was soon dug out, none the worse though somewhat shaken up!

I suppose you have heard by this time of Lance Corporal T. Eustace's death. He was hit in the head, probably by a "spent bullet." He was buried in a little cemetery just below a ridge, not far away."

NORMAN C. QU A.

Private Lobban writes: "I am very much pleased to learn that those who are physically fit have attached themselves to the 22nd battery in Sherbrooke. At last, I think, we have enough men recruited, and we may be proud that Canada has done her share in sending men and in giving money.

A week ago last Sunday Canon Scott celebrated the Holy Communion where we were then billeted. It was a most impressive service and, as we knelt in a bed of straw, before the little altar in the barn, the sound of the big guns could be heard plainly. Many officers and men communicated. Canon Scott is just as jovial as ever, but has aged considerably. Canon Almond is to visit us on Sunday. He is chaplain of our corps. Last Wednesday afternoon our major and a lance-corporal were confirmed by the Bishop of Khartoum. Quite an event at the front—and by an Egyptian bishop! We have been in the trenches three times since coming over, but there is very little doing.

All the boys are well and happy. It is wonderful how every one is in good spirits, despite the inclement weather, etc.

We have had two or three games of Rugby and Association since coming over."

JAMES A. LOBBAN.

Our Bursar, Lieut. J. C. Stewart writing from Belgium says: "At present I am in support, in a farm house five hundred yards behind the front line and living in a little lean-to built against a part of the wall still left standing. They shelled us all day yesterday but, as we are hidden from their view, they cannot observe their shots, and we had only two wounded. They are busy again, now, but so far they have had no luck. I am "keeping score." So far we have had twenty high-explosives and eighteen "whiz-bangs" but the nearest they got was about fifteen yards. Swish- sh- sh- sh- Bang! One just came in, but nearly thirty yards away. We have a grave yard in front of us with about fifty wooden crosses, and they have put quite a few shells in to-day, but, thank goodness, have not torn any poor chap up from his little "six feet."

I have seen Qua, Waterman and Lobban and they all seemed quite well.

J. C. STEWART.

The Rev. R. J. Shires, M. A., writing from France to Professor Call, sends the following account of the party recently given to the Bishop's men by Canon Scott. He says: "The party was held on March 7th, in a billet not too far behind the lines. It was a notable occasion, and expressions of surprise and gladness were heard on all sides. The party itself was done in good 'Old Lodge' style, details of which you can imagine. Mirabile dictu—we had lobster! Such a treat—Father Scott certainly did us proud! Now for those present. Canon Almond looked in for a few minutes, though he couldn't stop. He gave us the very gratifying information that of the twenty Church of England chaplains at the front, seven are from Bishop's. Not bad, eh? Bill Sherring was there, facetious as ever, and Channel Hepburn, who looked remarkably well, and was in great form, and Don Cameron, Cocks, Lobban, "Doc." Robertson, Wilkinson and Corpl. Miller of Drummondville were all there. The latter, even though he isn't a Bishop's man, is at any rate related to Frankie."

We exchanged all the news, and talked of Bishop's. We heard that 'Jock' had distinguished himself by capturing a Bosch. Meekren and Ireland were somewhere in the neighbourhood, but we could not get in touch with them for the occasion. Jack Brown also failed to turn up. I saw him the other day, though, and he is O. K.

We sang Auld Lang Syne, and gave a very hearty "Duo Potamo," and made nice little speeches about Canon Scott before breaking up and departing, through the snow, to our respective "dugouts," barns, etc.

Things are not too bad.

R. J. SHIRES.

Sweet are the thoughts that savour of content ;
 The quiet mind is richer than a crown ;
 Sweet are the nights in careless slumber spent ;
 The poor estate scorns fortune's angry frown :
 Such sweet content, such minds, such sleep, such bliss,
 Beggars enjoy, when princes oft do miss.—Robert Greene (1592).

Editorial Comments.

The history of the University of Bishop's College in years to come will contain no page more brilliant than that which records the names and deeds of those of her sons who are serving in the struggle now going on in Europe. That page will record the names of men who made sacrifices; of men who counted their welfare and careers as but small things when compared with the opportunity of responding to the call to serve King and Empire.

Bishop's possesses an honour roll of which she is justly proud. The names of distinguished graduates and humble "freshies" alike adorn that roll—they are brothers in arms. When the war is over no doubt a permanent "Roll of Honour" will take the place of that already hanging in the Bursar's office.

We have recently had splendid news from the front. Elsewhere will be found accounts of the prowess of our doughty Bursar and of the cool daring and bravery of "Doc." Robertson. Bishop's is well represented in the great war.

May God grant that these her sons may indeed "return in safety to enjoy the blessings of a righteous and enduring peace!"

In submitting this number of the "Mitre" the Editor wishes to point out that no invidious distinctions have been made in the selection of photographs. In many cases where photographs of certain men were greatly desired, it was found to be impossible to obtain them.

The Mitre would gladly publish any other photographs in subsequent issues, provided that the "cuts" are sent in in good time.

The number of copies of this issue is limited, but further copies may be obtained upon application to the business manager no later than one week after the date of publication. Price twenty-five cents.

Owing to the recent epidemic, the non-resident students who are in charge of the Arts department of the Mitre, were unable to send in their copy in time for publication, hence the non-appearance of the "Arts Notes" and "De Alumnis."

Divinity Notes.

Brief messages have been received from those of the shed who recently went overseas with the Field Ambulance Corps. Messrs. Roe and Baker are at Bramshott, and Messrs. Vokey, L'Estrange and Griffiths are stationed at Shorncliff. According to the latest advices they are all well.

Acting on medical advice, Mr. Carson recently went home for a short time to recuperate his strength. We hope he will soon feel better and return to "the abode of love!"

Mr. Lett is, at the time of writing, on the sick list, owing to a serious fracture and dislocation of his left arm, which he sustained while exercising in the Gym. It is not the easiest thing in the world to dress two hundred and ten pounds of solid humanity!

The halls of the Grave and Learned are indeed quiet these days. Gone are the sounds of merry laughter! Gone the joyous "rough-houses"!! Gone the rush of busy feet and gentle voices!!! The "Shedites" are reduced to five.

What grateful sighs the Warden must heave now ! The June spectre raises its ghastly head—and winks knowingly !

During Lent, the Warden gave a series of devotional readings after Compline on Friday nights. The Dean of Divinity also gave a series of excellent addresses during the week following the fourth Sunday in Lent, thus carrying into effect the wishes of the Lord Bishop of the Diocese that special mission services might be held throughout the diocese during the season of penitence.

The Co-Ed's Corner.

Owing to the prevalence of sickness the lady students, like the rest of non-resident students, are having a vacation but, unfortunately, there is a prospect of having to make up for lost lectures!

How fortunate it is that this break in our work comes during the "sugaring-off" season.

Is the principle of Leap Year being carried out as regards chairs?

Many of the Co-Eds are occupying their spare moments knitting for patriotic purposes.

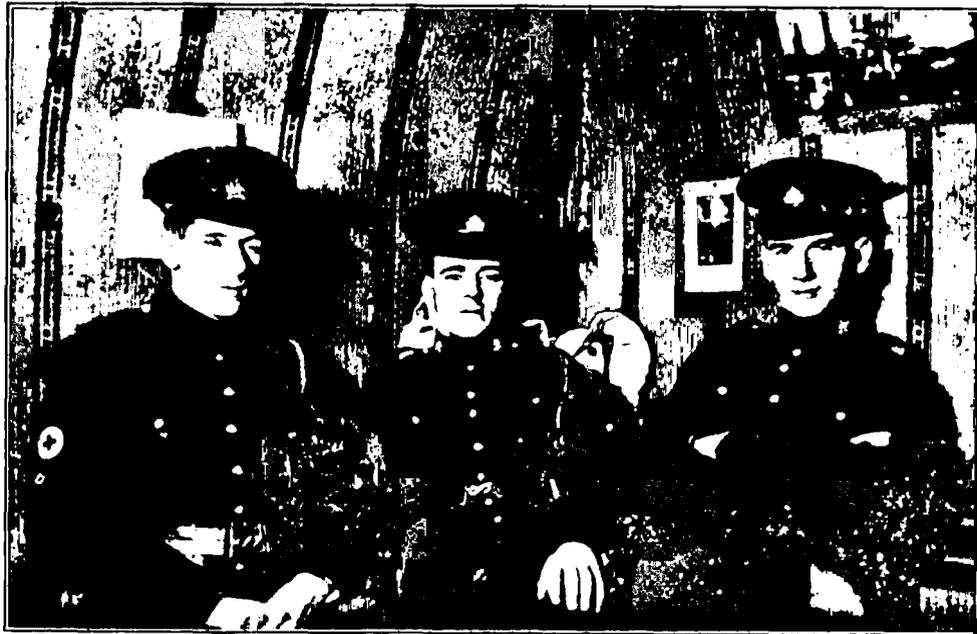

The ladies' hockey team lately received a challenge from the girls of the Lennoxville Academy but, unfortunately, before a game could be arranged, the ice disappeared.

We notice that Miss Catherine Seiveright, B.A., has accepted a position for next year in the Sherbrooke High School.

We also learn that Miss H. C. Brown, B.A., will succeed Miss Mitchell as Principal at Ayers Cliff.

It was recently observed that one of our ladies was at work on a pair of particularly soft and comfortable looking socks. Can it be possible that——!

The Club is not meeting as often as heretofore. Meetings are held, one in three weeks, and once in three weeks we manage to have a decent smoke, and enjoy Mrs. Clement's excellent coffee.

At the last meeting, in March, the Rev. J. S. Rowe, B. D., delivered a paper on the "Via Media of History." The paper was long and well prepared, and produced a good deal of discussion. Fortunately 'Boots' was able to attend and give us the benefit of his opinions upon the subject.

A ghastly catastrophe happened at this meeting. The "Binominal Theorem" broke his pipe! Immediately the Scribe produced the famous Greek oration which the culprit was called upon to read. This he proceeded to do with great relish, until the suffering assembly begged him to desist! Whose turn next?

Around the Halls.

The Wednesday evening lectures are still continuing. On March 15th Canon Fitzgerald, M.A., of Kingston, Ont., gave his inimitable lecture, "Ireland and the Irish." The Canon brims over with bright good nature and rich fun. He effectually dispelled a few preconceived notions of Ireland and "Patrick," and pointed out that the Irish are, after all, really human beings!

A week later Dr. Symonds, D.D., LL.D., rector of the Cathedral, Montreal, gave his lecture on Charles Dickens. The Doctor's thorough acquaintance with his subject enabled him to give a lecture which was highly interesting and greatly appreciated.

Both Canon Fitzgerald and Dr. Symonds preached in the University Chapel.

On March 23rd the Principal, Dr. Parrock, delivered his lecture on Ancient Rome in the Church Hall, Cookshire. There was a large and appreciative audience.

Poor old "Adam" has had the misfortune to dislocate his elbow and break one of the bones in his elbow joint. Couldn't expect much else when two hundred and ten pounds throws itself around. Still "Adam's" improving wonderfully, though he's disappointed at not being laid up in the Sherbrooke Hospital. Better luck next time, old man!

What made Marjorie smile when the College photograph was being "snapped?"

Sonorous voice—"Sweets to the sweet farewell."
Sounds like Fluhmann, eh?

D-y-l-e.—"Hello! Is that Marion?"
"No—Central. Number please."

We notice that one of our Prep. men took in "The Birth of a Nation" last month. He was properly chaperoned!

For a "Freshie" Holden is making rapid progress in North Ward, Sherbrooke.

Marjorie says there are nicer things in the world than mumps.

"Say, Abbott, are you taking Miss D—to the next dance?"
"I guess so, but——"
A Voice—"Just fifteen minutes too late, eh, old man?"

Is "Humouresque" suitable for a voluntary?

"Say, old chappie, strike that tenor note again. It's awfully hard to get, don't you know."

Who is the first year student seen frequently on Cloughave Avenue? Wonder if he is after a team?

Who gets the raw deal in Athletics---"Ye gods, and must I endure all this?"

We notice that a certain "Freshie" has been very much grieved since the fire at Brompton.

Travers hopes to spend the Easter vacation at Stanbridge instead of visiting the Sherbrooke Hospital.

"Hello, Freeman! Any Co-Eds at the rink?"
"Yes—Gillander and Pender were both there."

Two of our lady students have found a "warm spot" in their hearts for the Khaki. All honor to them.

On looking "around the halls" it is easily seen that Lent is here by the conspicuous absence of cigarettes, though this trial seems to be too much for some of the weaker brethren.

Was it the goal-keeper who took the team, or the team who took the goal-keeper to the Gaiety before the McGill game? Does this account in any way for the remarkable score?

Spring has come and "Robbie" will again be able to take his 12-45 stroll through the long bridge—"back to the farm."

Kathleen—"Hurrah! Spring is here." In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts——! Compare preceding paragraph!

Resignations are popular just now.

Poor old "Adam" sustained a bad injury to his elbow last month whilst exercising in the Gym. The elbow joint, we understand, was badly smashed, and it was feared that it would be found necessary to operate and bind the bone with wire. Fortunately, however, this has been found to be unnecessary. "Adam" has all our sympathy. We hope that this injury will in no way interfere with his usefulness in athletics.

Professor (during the course of a lecture)—"I have been watching these people for the past hundred years!" Phew?

Professor (lecturing on Old Testament) "In the days of Abraham polygamy was commonly practised." Div. Prep. Man [sotto voce] "Those were the good old days!"

Owing to a strong smell of coal gas the other evening in the Chapel, Even-song was considerably shortened. Some other kinds of "gas" are even more overpowering!

Did A. F. G. seek an introduction to Miss J.? No, he introduced himself—with what results we leave to the reader's imagination.

Does late rising and non-attendance at lectures tend to be conducive to a good complexion or to sound learning?

"I wonder if my stately tread and dramatic entrance into the class room impress the Co-Eds as much as They do myself?—Who is it?"

HOCKEY.

Dartmouth College 3, Bishop's University 2.

On Thursday, February 9th, the U. B. C. hockey team journeyed to Hanover, N.H., where, on the following day, they played the Dartmouth six.

A crowd of about 1200 of Dartmouth's Winter Carnival guests watched the green hockey team nose out a 3 to 2 victory, in one of the speediest exhibitions of hockey that had been seen at Hanover in recent years. With two goals apiece at end of full time, both teams, playing sudden death, in the overtime period, went after the puck with a snap and dash that made the earlier part of the game appear slow by comparison. But the Dartmouth men were in better condition, not having travelled as Bishop's did, practically all the night before, and stood the pace better, and, after three minutes, thirty second's play, Captain Murchie took the rubber from a pass behind the goals and scored. Bishop's two scores were tallied in the first period by Robinson and Norcross, while Murchie and Tyler netted Dartmouth's three in the latter part.

The work of George Baker, Lennoxville, as referee, left nothing to be desired, his eyes seeing everything, with the result that the game was clean throughout. The following were the teams :

Bishop's.		Goal	Dartmouth.
Lett			Holden
Pender	Defence		Currier.
Robinson (capt.)	Defence		Murchie (capt.)
Gillander	Centre		Tyler
McKindsey	R. Wing.		Smith
Holden	L. Wing		Bickford
Lemieux and Abbott	Subs.		Gale

U. B. C. 4, S. W. C. 4.

Bishop's played the return game with Stanstead College on Saturday, February 5th, which resulted in a tie. Although Stanstead were beaten quite easily when they played in the Minto rink, they put up an entirely different game on their own ice, as the score denotes.

The game was played in three twenty-minute periods. In the first part Stanstead netted two, while Bishop's were unable to tally a single one. The University six, worked harder in the second period, and scored two to Stanstead's one. Deeprose, in goal, probably saved S. W. C. from another trimming at the hands of Bishop's, for in the last twenty minutes, he was showered with shots from the start until the finish, and succeeded in stopping all but two. Davidson, after an end to end rush, put in another for his team, thereby tying the score. After much discussion, it was decided not to play off the tie.

McGILL II 8, U.B.C. 2.

The University team again travelled to Montreal on Friday, March 10th, where they played the McGill second team, in the Victoria rink. The game, which was played in two twenty-minute periods, was much more closely contested than the score denotes. Both teams started in hard, each doing some very good team work, and, after a few minutes' play, McGill scored on a two-man combination rush, skating through the forwards and defense, and having a clear shot on Lett. Had the Bishop's defence stayed back closer to the nets, in this half, there would probably have been fewer goals scored, but being used to a much smaller rink, they were for a while at a slight disadvantage on the larger ice. McGill's second tally was scored on a pass from behind the nets which hit Pender's skate and slid in. Bishop's tired somewhat near the end of this half, and four more were scored by their opponents, bringing the total up to six.

The second half was an entirely different story. The Purple and White forwards had become more used to the large ice and rushed things throughout, while the defence played closer on the nets. Soon after the start of the period, the first goal was scored by Lemieux, who had replaced Holden. The Red and White then tallied one. Five minutes later, Holden, who had replaced Robinson, slipped in another, after a nice bit of combination play with Lemieux. Just a few seconds before the game ended, the McGill men added another to their number, and when the whistle blew the score stood 8-2 for the Montreal six.

Eddie Baker, of Lennoxville, handled the game satisfactorily.

Sawyerville came down and played the College on February 17th, the game resulting in a tie of 3 all. On account of the visitors having to catch a train home, the tie was not played off. Bishop's had the best of the game throughout, but found the guardian of the Sawyerville nets practically invincible. Geo. Baker and Pearson were the officials.

The University sextette also visited Danville, and were beaten 4-0, in one of the slowest and roughest games of hockey played this season. During the first twenty minutes the game was played in a blinding snowstorm, and the snow on the ice became so thick that the puck was lost several times, and play had to be suspended. The weather and ice conditions probably accounted for the rough play which was prevalent throughout the greater part of the game. Happily, at half time, conditions improved, and the last half was somewhat better.

Exchanges.

The MacDonal College Magazine is very interesting and possesses literary merit. Many students will welcome it as a paper which is replete with many practical suggestions.

Among recent exchanges to hand is "The Student World," a magazine published in New York under the able editorship of Mr. John R. Mott. Mr. Mott needs no introduction to the students of even the smallest colleges, either in the United States or in Canada. His work is not limited to the North American Continent, but is extended to the larger Universities of Europe, Asia, Australia, Africa and South America. Mr. Mott looks forward to a union among world students. Such an aim is actuated by a splendid motive.
