CONVOCATION, 1916.

Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori.

Lieut. C. A. Hope.

Corpl. T. Eustace.

Corpl. L. Robertson, B. C. M.

Pte. J. A. Eobhan.

Intrepid sons of Albion ! not by you
Is life despised ; ah no, the spacious earth
Ne'er saw a race who held, by right of birth,
So many objects to which love is due :
Ye slight not life—to God and Nature true ;
But death, becoming death, is dearer far,
When duty bids you bleed in open war.

—Wordsworth.

THE MITRE. CONVOCAATION.

In spite of existing conditions, Convocation this year was as successful as ever. Beautiful weather prevailed and the universal feeling was one of pride in the splendid and heroic part the past and present members have taken in the war, and of congratulation that during such strenuous times the institution has successfully completed another year's work.

Among the visitors were the Most Rev. C. L. Worrell, D.D., Lord Archbishop of Nova Scotia ; the Very Rev. E. C. Paget, M.A., Dean of Calgary ; the Lord Bishop of Quebec, Dr. Abbott Smith, D.D., Mr. James Mackinnon, D.C.L., Mr. Wm. Morris, K.C., D.C.L., Mr. Wm. Farrell, D.C.L., Rev. G. H. A. Murray, Rev. E. A. Dunn, Rev. Capt. Moorhead and Rev. R. W. Wright.

The Chancellor having declared Convocation open, delivered an inspiring address. He referred most touchingly to the way in which the all-devouring war has claimed the sons of the University in ever-growing numbers, and of the cheerful manner in which they have offered themselves to fight for freedom and the right. Temporarily one-half of the student body had been lost. The University had renounced her natural claims upon them, but with no light heart, facing the seriousness of the situation. Some even had made the supreme sacrifice ; let those who remain honour their memory by the best possible service for their king, country, and fellowmen. The Chancellor also emphasized the absolute necessity of "carrying on" until normal conditions are restored and not grow slack or careless in the meantime.

The Principal and the Dean of the Divinity Faculty then presented their reports. Dr. Parrock, in his report, said that this year four new students had entered the Divinity Faculty and twenty-three the Arts Faculty, while twenty-seven of the old students remained on the register, making a total of fifty-four. Of this number eighteen have enlisted during the sessions and three have left recently with a view to enlistment, while two have not been able to continue their course, reducing our numbers to thirty-one, five in the Divinity Faculty and twenty-six in the Arts. The number of candidates for Holy Orders in both Faculties was thirteen, and of these six have enlisted in the Field Ambulance.

"Our Honour Roll of Service," continued Dr. Parrock, "now includes eighty names, and there are probably several more who have not yet been located. No less than twelve of our graduates are serving as Military Chaplains, including the Rev. Canon Scott and the Rev. Canon Almond, who recently received the well-deserved honour of C.M.G. from the hands of His Majesty the King. Two of our graduates have fallen in action, namely, C. A. Pope, B.A. '99 and T. Eustace, B.A. '15. Also within the last few days we have received the sad news of the death of Corpl. Lennox Robertson, who recently was awarded the D.C.M."

The Principal also mentioned the improvements which have been made in the Arts building, and the course of public lectures in Accountancy, Commercial Law and Banking which had been given by Mr. Sidney Francis throughout the winter.

The degrees, honorary and in course, were then conferred, and prizes were distributed by the Lord Archbishop of Nova Scotia.

DEGREES CONFERRED.

D.C.L. (Honoris Causa)—The Most Rev. C. L. Worrell, D.D., Lord Archbishop of Nova Scotia ; Lt. Col. Rev. Canon J. M. Almond, M.A., C.M.G.

D.D. (Jure Dignitatis)—Very Rev. E. C. Paget, M.A., Dean of Calgary.

B.D. (In Absentia)—Rev. C. G. Hepburn, M.A. ; Rev. W. A. Ferguson, M.A. (Oxon.)

M.A. (In Course)—Rev. N. R. Ward, B.A. ; Rev. A. W. Reeves, B.A.

B.A. (In Course)—H. D. Caswell, Mathematical Honours, Grade II, First Class ; Miss C. M. Wilson, History Option, First Class ; Rev. J. S. Rowe, History Option, Second Class ; Miss B. A. Hunten, History Option, Second Class ; Elton Scott, Heavy Siege Artillery ; K. W. Hunten, 117th Batt., C.E.F.

L.S.T. (In Absentia)—E. H. Baker, 9th Field Ambulance ; G. Roe, 9th Field Ambulance.

Matriculants—G. W. Holden, A. W. Freeman, H. R. Cleveland, E. W. Gillander, Miss D. A. Goodwin, Miss L. A. Hawes, Miss G. L. Parrock, J. A. McCoy.

PRIZE LIST.

Mr. Richardson's Prize for Mathematics—H. D. Caswell.

Registrar's Prize for Preparatory Mathematics—Miss G. L. Parrock.

First Class Aggregate Prizes, Third Year—H. D. Caswell, Miss C. M. Wilson.

Elton Scott, of the Heavy Siege Artillery, and K. W. Hunten, of the 117th Battalion, received tremendous cheering, as, clad in khaki and wearing the hood, they came forward to receive their B. A. degrees.

Three members of the 117th Battalion, Corpl. Burton, Bandsman J. Robinson and Pte. Ward also received an ovation when they were given their second year's standing.

The Lord Archbishop of Nova Scotia then spoke a few words, expressing his pleasure at being present, and the Dean of Calgary followed, alluding to Kipling's lines, "East is East and West is West, and ne'er the two shall meet," and saying that nevertheless in his life the men of both had met.

Next, the Bishop of Quebec, Vice-President of the University, responded briefly to an invitation to speak, while Dr. Abbott-Smith conveyed the regrets of the Bishop of Montreal for his inability to be present.

The Chancellor then declared Convocation closed.

LETTERS FROM THE FRONT.

The following has been received by Dr. and Mrs. Parrock from three men at the front. It is a splendid tribute to "Tom" Bustace, and speaks for itself :

France, March 14th, 1916.

Dear Friends,—

Your gift of tobacco addressed to Corpl. Bustace was handed to the corporals in his platoon, as we were his immediate friends up to the time of his death. You have no doubt by this time had all details of this sad occurrence, and we wish to add that he was a good soldier and a true friend at all times, which is the highest praise one soldier can give another.

CORPL. A. B. WALTON.

CORPL. C. BOUTHILLIER.

LANCE-CORPL. B. E. LEWMARK.

Lieut. S. L. Craft writes from Rouville Camp, Canadian Base Dept., Havre, France : "I arrived in France at the end of October and have been busy ever since—the lines of communication are as the wheels and they take heaps of oil ! Reinforcements and supplies of all sorts, and work from sunrise (and before) till bedtime again The news that filters through is pretty good The spirit of the troops is first rate and that spells H O P E, and the best of hope for victory.”

George Roe, in Belgium with the 9th Canadian Field Ambulance, says : “The town we are in has been under shell fire, and is still exposed to the same danger. It is surprising how little one realizes what danger is over here. Already we are getting accustomed to the noise of the guns away in the distance, and since we have been here we have witnessed a few air fights. The first one we saw rather startled us, as there were several aeroplanes near each other—it seemed awful for them to be firing on one another so many feet up in the air. We could plainly see the flash of each successive gun shot We discovered the other day that the Bishop’s men are quite close to us—at least their camp is I met Canon Scott in the street the other evening. He is as happy and cheerful as ever. He says that he sees the Bishop’s men quite often.”

Private E. H. Baker writes, describing the voyage across to France, “You will doubtless be surprised to hear that I am now within a few miles of the firing line. We were in England only some three weeks. Our journey over to France was uneventful, save for the many warships that we saw. We landed at the port where Mr. Craft I believe is stationed Our rations were issued to us every morning—an amount calculated to last the whole day, which consisted chiefly of a tin of “bully-beef” and canned stew, biscuits (hard tack), and half a spoonful of jam. Tea was made at every meal, which helped the dryness and the hardness of the biscuits considerably After we had worked hard loading ambulance wagons, etc., we were put into freight cars and packed like sardines, with the result that we had to stay in a sitting posture the whole of the fourteen hours’ journey. The train took us to within an hour or so of the place for which we were destined to spend the night.”

The Mitre is able to publish the above notes owing to the kindness of Dr. and Mrs. Parrock. Any interesting bits of news or quotations from letters of Bishop’s men at the front will always be welcomed.

CONVOCATION, 1916.

Editorial Comments.

Another year of College life has come to an end, and already the question "What of next year?" comes to our minds. Our numbers have decreased considerably, and many may feel inclined to be very pessimistic in regard to the general outlook for the coming term. But, in the words of the Chancellor, all those remaining must "carry on," and not "grow slack or careless." Every one must bear a double load, and as each man leaves another must step in his place and continue this work as well as his own duties. The old College traditions must be kept up, so that when finally the "boys" come back they may find everything ready to receive them, and this can only be accomplished by the united and individual efforts of every student.

The news of the fall in battle of Pte. Jas. A. Lobban, of the 5th Mounted Rifles, will be received with widespread sorrow. "Jimmy" graduated in Arts in 1915, and during his final year acted as Senior Man of the Arts Faculty. He took an important part in all the College activities, and to his zeal and industry we owe a great deal. He successfully captained the Football Team in the fall of 1914, and during his term as Business Manager of the Mitre, thanks to his energy, a heavy debt was paid off, and the magazine put on a firmer financial standing. The Mitre and his old fellow-students unite in sending most sincere and heartfelt sympathy to his parents and friends.

Another Bishop's man who has also suffered for his country is Pte. N. D. MacLeod, of the 5th Mounted Rifles, who has recently been wounded. We hope this is not very serious, and send him best wishes for a speedy recovery.

In regard to our men at the front, a duty has devolved upon all those who are left, in regularly writing to them and keeping them in touch with their Alma Mater. All enjoy letters at all times, and soldiers are by no means excepted from the general rule—far otherwise. A list of addresses can be found on another page for the use of any who may wish to write to Bishop's men at the front.

Another pleasant duty has arisen, and that is of offering our congratulations to Mr. J. Templeton, who, as Editor-in-Chief, so ably managed the Mitre during the past year, on his recent marriage. The Mitre wishes to extend to Mr. and Mrs. Templeton most sincere wishes for a bright and happy future.

A GRADUATE'S SUCCESS.

Kingston, Ont.—At the annual vestry meeting of the Cathedral the Dean said that he had promoted Rev. A. F. Cecil Whalley, M.A., to be Priest-Vicar of the Cathedral in recognition of his faithful services, and the vestry endorsed the united elevation by an increase of $100 in stipend.—Church Life, May 18, 1916.

Rev. Whalley is a graduate of Bishop's and while here he won the Prince of Wales Gold Medal, and held the Scholarship for three consecutive years. The Mitre wishes to congratulate him on his recent success and extend to him heartiest wishes for the future.

I find earth not gray but rosy,
 Heaven not grim but fair of hue.
 Do I stoop? I pluck a posy.
 Do I stand and stare? All's blue.

—Robert Browning.

Around the Halls.

Condensation of thought pays—so Marjorie says (e.g. Christian Evidences.)

It didn't take John long to find his way "back to the farm," after he struck Lennoxville.

Max ——— (reading in chapel)—Here beginneth the fifth verse of the tenth chapter of the Epistle to Hosea.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the annual tennis dance this June !

George says there are some nice nurses at the Sherbrooke Hospital. Someone else was heard to mention this, too !

Prof. Burt—"How are the exams going, Roddy?"

Roddy—"Oh, pretty fair, sir. If I pass in Arithmetic, Geometry, Latin and Algebra I guess I'm safe enough, because I am sure I got through in French."

THE MITRE.

Some of the students often wondered why "Pat" had such a liking for Hamilton. Now, it's quite clear. Congrats, Pat.

Time driveth onward fast—except during exams !

Adam—Come on out, Hodder, and help mark the courts.

Hodder—Heavens, Adam ! I haven't got any time. Just think ; I'm leaving in three days, and I've just started packing my trunk.

When Gardner journeyed forth he left his room smelling like a Moth Ball Manufacturing Plant.

Stuart's favorite ditty now is, "The Kellies are at it again."

"What's the matter?"

"Cold or something in my head."

"Must be a cold, old man."

Co-ed (at pink-tea)—Won't you have a piece of cake? I made it myself. Everybody's tried it and I haven't heard a single complaint. Now, what does that prove?

Voice (from the background)—That "Dead men tell no tales."
