What is Religion?

What is Religion?—Words of many creeds
Blared forth in streets by solemn Pharisee,
And piped in doleful tones on scrannel reeds
Untouched by love or tender sympathy
That moves the soldier where the Master bleeds?

What is Religion?—Lofty minster-spires
And rich mosaics on the chancel walls?
Deep organ tones, and silver-throated choirs
Whose golden Glorias night and morning fall,
With sanctus-bell and flares of altar-fires?

What is Religion? Note of bird on bough;
The sunlight falling o'er the waving grass;
A child's clear gaze and unashamed brow;
The little deeds that, living, come and pass
And are forgot: Religion is, I trow.

What is Religion? Why, who anywhere
Stoops down to touch the dusty wayside-flower,
And then as tenderly the face of care;
Who thus in love lives on from hour to hour
Has caught the secret, and has mastered prayer.

Robert W. Norwood.
What is the matter with our graduates? That question has been troubling some of us for a long time past. The University is at present passing through what we may well call a crisis in its history. The circumstances occasioned by the war have not only made a considerable reduction in the number of students, but have also wrought important and far-reaching changes in the course of life within the College. In such a contingency, those who remain as members of the student body, and on whom there falls, to a large extent, the responsibility of maintaining the old current of student life during these days of changing conditions, have looked to the graduates and past students for support and advice. But whence, and through what channels, is this aid to come? The Alumni Association is apparently, for some unfathomable reason, either dead or in a somnolent condition; and therefore nothing can be done in that direction. Efforts have been made to arouse more interest in the University magazine, as the best medium for intercourse between past and present; appeals have been made, both publicly and privately, for assistance, either in the form of contributions of articles or other matter for publication, or of new subscriptions to aid the upkeep and development of the magazine: but, alas, the response has been woefully small. From the bottom of our hearts we thank those who have responded. But we repeat, the response has been woefully small.

"They all began with one consent to make excuse." With all reverence we quote these words as being very applicable to the matter in question. Whenever it has been possible to get into touch with a graduate, and to try to solve the difficulty of this seeming indifference, there is offered in reply some excuse. We are told, for example, regarding the Mitre, that "there is not enough of news regarding past students." This may be partially true. But first, let us ask the question, Does loyalty to our Alma Mater mean simply interest in the persons and doings of a few students of a particular period? Or does it rather mean an interest in all that concerns that Alma Mater at any time and in any way? Surely, the latter is the truer view. However, suppose we admit that interest must be maintained by the dissemination of news of the past. The way is opened up by the privilege possessed by the Alumni Association of electing their own representative to the Mitre Staff, a representative whose special task it shall be to maintain a section of the magazine in the interests of the Alumni. But for several years past no Alumni Editor has been elected. In spite of this omission, the resident staff has maintained the "De Alumnis" section, in collaboration with the Alumnae Editor, the elected representative of the lady graduates. During this year from twenty-five per cent. to thirty-five per cent. of the editorial space of the magazine has been devoted entirely to the record of the doings of past students. In addition to this, surely the general college news and the contents of the magazine section should be of some interest, at least, to past members.

A suggestion was recently made by a graduate that a roster of past students should be published in the Mitre. The suggestion was received in the same spirit of mutual brotherliness in which it was made, and prompt measures were taken to put the proposal into effect. But the initial difficulty was

A Proposal---and to discover the present location of many graduates. Some, the Response! even of those whose student days are of comparatively recent date, have so effectively cut themselves off from their Alma Mater that no efforts of ours can restore communication. When, therefore, the announcement was made that one number of the Mitre would be almost entirely devoted to the purpose suggested, all graduates and past students were requested to send in a few notes of interest concerning themselves or their fellow-students. The response has been---NIL! Will you please allow us to emphasize that statement, the response has been NIL! Not a letter, not a card, not a word of any kind, has come to hand to show the existence of any interest in the project. We can imagine many of our graduates saying, as they read this, "How unfortunate! Really, someone should have done something." Yes, someone should have—and that someone was YOU. All that was required was a few minutes at your writing-table, a few notes on a card, a two cent stamp; and your part would have been done. But you neglected to do it. That neglect leaves the Mitre staff with the problem of producing a "Graduate's Number" with only such limited help as they can obtain from the members of the University Faculty and their own personal information. Under those conditions the "Graduate's Number" appears as was announced. Whatever it may possess of merit is humbly offered to the honour of our Alma Mater; whatever it lacks of perfection is due to the absence of response from those most concerned.

Let us go back to our theme—excuses! Quite recently we were offered another favourite excuse : "Well, really, you know, when a fellow leaves the college, and has other things to occupy his attention, he is too busy to do anything for the Mitre." We wonder what would be thought of a man who leaves the home of his childhood, where the loving care of his father and mother have safeguarded and trained him, and promptly finds himself so engrossed in the concerns of his new life that he forgets, entirely or in part, the old home, and has no time or interest to bestow upon it. That is somewhat the position of affairs with many of our graduates. You talk of your Alma Mater, you tell tales of the old happy days spent there, you realize what you owe to the training you received; but it is very rarely that you make any practical proof of your devotion. The years pass by, and as far as your college is concerned, your voice is silent. Is it much to ask that each graduate should spend a few minutes once a year to indite a few words to the members, past and present, of his Alma Mater? Those few moments, given by each one, would make possible an annual "Graduate's Number." Or is it much to ask that the small sum of one dollar be given once a year for the support of one of the principle mediums of communication between memers of the University? That small offering, given by each one, would enable the Mitre to attain to a far more creditable and useful position than it occupies at present.

The reply may be made, "Ah! it is all very well to talk like that. But wait until you also have left Bishop's and you will do just as others have done.''
Perhaps so—though may we be saved from any such appearance of ingratitude.

But the fact remains that such a position of affairs is not what it should be. We know that many who have gone forth from the University have made for themselves an honourable name in the annals of the nation; we believe that the subtle influence of the training received here has borne fruit, and is still bearing fruit, in the uplift and onward progress of the world; we hope that we also, in our turn, may go out to show the beneficent effects of the grand old traditions. But meanwhile we say, in all humility and in all earnestness, to you and to all our fellow-members of Bishop's:
let us all rally more firmly around the grand old colours—the purple and white;
let us all join, as truly brothers and sisters of one great family, in honouring our Alma Mater; let us be ready to give of our best, to her and for her, that in this time of turmoil we also may share the burden, and do all in our power to maintain and carry on our glorious traditions. If things at Bishop's are not what you think they should be, if the Mitre is not exactly what you yourself would wish it to be, still remember that there is something higher than mere personal opinions. Show your gratitude and love for the past by your active support in the present. Gather round, and help to keep things going.

Subscribers, Attention.

Our subscription list shows a large number of subscriptions still unpaid, some of them being several years in arrears. We have this year spared neither trouble nor expense in the endeavour to bring out a magazine that will be both creditable and interesting. We are sure that all our subscribers will appreciate this fact, and that those whose dues are unpaid will recognize it in a practical manner by settling before the end of the year. We hope to produce within a month or two a "Convocation Number" which will be unique in the history of the Mitre. But for this funds are necessary. So please be prompt in paying up.

We believe that this issue, though smaller than previous issues, will prove to be of especial interest to our graduates. If so, will you kindly reward us by showing your copy to other graduates who are not subscribers and see that they become subscribers.

Trusting you will do your part in the cause of Bishop's,

We remain,

Yours fraternally,

THE MITRE.

Our Fighting Men.

In Memoriam.

The great spring drive has added another of our number to those who have sacrificed their all in the defence of their country, and those principles of liberty and right for which our Empire stands. Corpl. G. Kenneth Murray, son of the Rev. G. H. A. Murray, Rector of Three Rivers, died of wounds received in action about the middle of April. Corpl. Murray was a graduate of 1914. For two years he was Principal of St. John's Academy, St. Johns, Que., from which he enlisted in June of 1916 as a private in the Duchess of Connaught's Own Irish Rangers, with whom he went overseas. Before leaving England he had risen to the rank of sergeant, but reverted to the rank of private at that time in order to get across to France. He saw hard service throughout the past year and was promoted to the rank of corporal in December. We feel the loss of Corpl. Murray very deeply, as he was a man we could ill spare.
The following particulars concerning Capt. C. F. Rothera, a graduate of ’98, have just come to hand and will doubtless be of interest to his old friends. He enlisted as a lieutenant in December, 1915, in the 119th Battalion. He went overseas July 27th, 1916. He transferred to the Forestry Battalion in 1917. Later, he was promoted to the rank of captain and went to France as O. C. the 73rd Company of C.F.C. September 6, 1917. He is still "somewhere in France."

Second Lieut. H. Roland Cleveland is at present at Lilburne, Eng., taking a special short course in instructional flying. After this course he expects to get a post as instructor for some time, but says he is getting impatient to get to France. In the meantime he finds English life most agreeable.

Pte. Norman McLeod, who was wounded last autumn in France, is now taking a course in signalling in England with the 23rd Reserve Battalion at Bramshott Camp. He has quite recovered from his wounds and expects soon to return to France.

Sig. T. E. Burton, whom we reported in hospital some time ago, is now so far recovered as to be in training again at Bramshott. Last December, whilst with the 14th Battalion in France, he fractured his knee cap; he has spent five and a half months in hospital as a result. He expects that it will be some time before he returns to France. He reports seeing both Pte. Clifford Ward and Pte. Norman McLeod, who are also at Bramshott.

Col. (Rev.) J. McP. Almond, C.M.G., is at present taking a much needed rest in Canada. He is spending the time in Montreal, where he has addressed many public meetings on war problems.

Capt. Alain Joly de Lotbiniere, who has been on active service for three years, has just arrived in Quebec on furlough. He expects to spend his furlough at his seignorial manor, Platon, Lotbiniere County.

Pte. George Roe, who was transferred from the 9th Field Ambulance some time ago, is now at No. 1 Canadian General Hospital, Etaples, France. He likes his work there very much and is enjoying much improved health.

Pte. E. H. Baker, upon the second anniversary of his arrival in France, says, "I have the usual amount of excitement from time to time dodging shells, etc., and that is about all I am permitted to say. It is really surprising how often and how near one can come to a 'blighty' or worse and still escape all harm.' He is not in very good health at present.

In a recent letter from the front the following comment is found concerning the Holy Week services held by Canon Scott: "After the service I told the Canon that I thought it the most impressive meeting that I had ever attended, and he said that he felt that about it too. He estimated that about a thousand men were present, and I should say about two hundred received the sacrament afterwards. Attendance was, of course, quite voluntary. His hold over the men is quite remarkable. I don't think that anyone in the Canadian army is more generally respected. In fact, I should say that his position was quite unique."

The following appreciative letter has been received by Mrs. Parrock from Lieut. Rod. Lemieux, son of the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, who is now in France:

"Chère Madame,—I wish to thank you heartily for the photograph of my Alma Mater you were so kind to send me. I was more than glad to hear from you, as I have not forgotten the pleasurable moments spent at Bishop's during the course of my studies. I have kept the best souvenir of Lennoxville, and its remembrance always thrills me. The treatment I received from everybody will never be forgotten by me, and allow me say, chère madame, that you in particular made life for me at the University on the same footing as that which I enjoyed in my own home. If I pull through I hope to resume my interrupted work, and it is a certainty with me that I will not be satisfied with any other institution but the U.B.C. I look forward to the day when my return will be effected, and that once more I will know the joys of college life, as I thoroughly enjoyed them in the past. I am taking the liberty to enclose a snap taken out here some few days ago. "Battle order" is the dress. As for the photograph itself, indeed it is far from being excellent; but I must confess none better can be had.

The Mitre reached me the day before yesterday, and I assure you that it was duly read from cover to cover. I often picture myself comfortably seated in my cosy room on the top flat, and I can't help but compare it with my present abode. Life out here is great, and if it was not for the thoughts of better places we've known, well, to put it as an Irishman would, it would be "greater still." I have been out for several weeks now, and am still enjoying the best of health, coupled with a college appetite. My address is Lieut. R. Lemieux, 22nd Canadians, B.E.F., France. Enclosing one's address in the body of one's letter is not according to literary principles, but however Mr. Censor deems it advisable, therefore one must sacrifice his schooling to present exigencies.
Again I thank you for the kind thought. Please remember me to all the members of your family, and also to my highly esteemed and distinguished professors. Je demeure, chère madame, votre tout devoue, Roddie Lemieux.

Two of our present students, Messrs. Erwin Gillander and George Holden, who complete their Arts course this year, have enlisted in the R. F. C. They commence training in August.

Mr. Frederick Fluhman, B.A. '17, after having completed his first year in Medicine at McGill, has joined the R.F.C., and expects to start training the first of June. He paid his friends at Bishop's a visit on his way home from Montreal.

Lieut. H. F. Cocks suffered shell shock in the early days of April and was sent to a hospital in England. He also visited his parents in Plymouth.

De Alumnis.

Alumnae.

On April 17th, at Sherbrooke, Miss Hazel K. Brown was married to Mr. Harold Silliker, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Ayers Cliff. For the present they are making their home at Ayers Cliff, but it is understood that Mr. Silliker expects to go overseas at no very distant date. We extend to the bride our best wishes, with the hope that her husband may be spared to return, having done his duty in the service of his country.

With regard to those of our number engaged in the teaching profession we have not learned of many changes of location. Miss Alice McFadden, M.A., who has been spending the past winter with her parents in Lennoxville, has accepted the position of Principal at La Tuque for the coming year. Miss M. O. Vaudry, who has been at Longueuil, is also making a change, having taken the Principalship of the new consolidated school at Spring Road, Lennoxville.

Once again may I make the earnest request that the members of our Alumnae Society who know of our efforts to maintain a page of Alumnae Notes, will send us information which would be of interest to readers of the Mitre? All thought it an excellent scheme to have an Alumnae Editor, and the present Editor acknowledges the honour bestowed in choosing her to fill this position; but she calls your attention to the fact that she cannot possibly prepare an interesting collection of notes for each number of the Mitre without your co-operation. Will you not help to make the next contribution fuller and better?

Alumni.

Rev. A. V. Grant, M.A., who has been acting rector of the Church of St. John the Baptist, Belize, British Honduras, for the past six months, is about to proceed one hundred miles further south, to assume a new charge in Honduras. We trust that his usual success will attend him.

Rev. Philip Callis, M.A., has now returned to Sherbrooke after his long confinement in hospital. His eye-sight is considerably improved, but he will not be able to assume active duty before September, therefore he has been compelled to resign charge of the parish of East Sherbrooke.

Mr. C. E. Hinerth, B.A. '11, spent a few weeks this winter taking a course of conversational French in Sherbrooke.

Mr. H. H. King, B.A. '15, who was reported in the last issue to have entered the Canadian Navy as a Marconigraph operator, has just been granted his degree of B.C.L. by McGill University. Mr. George Philbrick, B.A. '17, has also successfully passed his first year in Law at the same University.

Mr. A. E. Norcross, B.A. '12, is spending a few weeks with his parents in Lennoxville whilst recovering from an operation for appendicitus.

We are glad to note that one of our past students, Mr. Geo. Dickson, has been appointed to the post of Hybridist of Hardy Fruits at the Horticultural Experimental Station, Vineland Station, Ont. Since leaving us George has become a B.S.A. of MacDonald College. We feel that he will make a successful Hybridist.

The acting Alumni Editor would like to take this opportunity of emphasizing the statements of the Editor-in-Chief, in regard to the absence of support received from the Alumni of the University in furnishing material for this number, or indeed, for that matter, for any number this year. We cannot make this column generally interesting if the Alumni outside the College precincts will not do their part by helping supply news of themselves and others. Try and make the work of the next incumbent of this office more pleasant and easier than you have that of the past tenants.
(P.S.—We hope that all graduates will take especial notice of the paragraphs above, one emanating from the Alumnae Editor and the other from the acting Alumni Editor, both with reference to the supplying of news items for this column. Any notes addressed to Miss B. M. Cowan, B.A., at Ayers Cliff, or to the Editor of the Mitre at Bishop's College, will receive a most hearty welcome.—Ed.)

Co-Ed’s Corner.

(For the last two issues no notes have come to hand for this column, in spite of the apparent activity of our lady students. Will the Co-eds not let us hear from them occasionally?—Ed.)

Divinity Notes.

Hush! what means this awful silence which pervades this seat of learning; why this deadly stillness in the Shed? The reason is not far to seek; EXAMINATIONS! with a vengeance. No longer do you find the Shedites whiling away their time in learned and deep discussions. Each is in his cell begging to be left alone. Such is the atmosphere here.

Mr. Dunn, after spending considerable time on Mitre work, and assisting the various missions around here, including visits to Stanstead at the request of Canon Hepburn to take the services there, is now having a friendly "scrap" with our honoured friend, the Registrar under the M.S.A., trying to get information which he is unable to procure here.

Mr. Bown has also been busy doing mission work during the year, having conducted the services at Sand Hill, Johnville and Milby, the charge of which has now been taken over by the Rev. N. R. Ward, B.A., one of our graduates. He has also been helping the Rev. C. T. Lewis, of Bury, his home town. The above two shedites complete their L.S.T. course this year, and we wish them every blessing in their future work.
Mr. Acres, otherwise known as "Dad," has been on the sick list, but having experienced a few meals for the sick à la Bishop's at the hands of "Jim," decided it was better policy to die in the dining-room rather than in bed.

We regret to hear that Mr. A. R. Merrix, who recently left us under doctor's orders to recuperate his health in Victoria, B.C., has again been in hospital and in the hands of a throat specialist. We hope soon to hear of better news.

We have been anxiously enquiring as to the truth of the rumours floating around regarding the marriage of our lamented Aubrey Albert, who deserted these halls of theology in the early part of this year.

We extend a hearty greeting to the Rev. A. T. Phillips, Rural Dean of Clar­endon, Que., who is taking the June exams in the Arts course. We trust his stay will be pleasant, and that he will not fail to make the University known in his district when he returns to his parish.

Mr. Hodder has been continuing his work at St. Paul's, Sherbrooke, under the guidance of Rev. H. R. Bigg, A.K.C.

We have received a number of letters from our brethren at the Front. All, up to date, are well, and we trust it will not be long before they will return to finish their studies.

The members of the L.S.T. class are deeply grateful to Dr. Allnatt for his kindness in giving special lectures on "Daniel" and "Revelation" outside of our regular course. These lectures have been much enjoyed.

The appearance of the Oratory has been much improved by the care of Miss Gill for the altar hangings, and also by the gifts of flowers for the altar vases from Professor Call and Dr. Parrock.

The following visitors have paid us calls recently: Rev. Norman Ward, Rev. O. G. Lewis, Rev. C. G. Stevens, and Frank Belford.
"THE HOODOO," (B. U. A. D. C., 1918.)

C. F. S. Brown, Miss M. Ashe, Miss R. McAllister, Miss D. Dutton, Miss B. Ehenberg,
H. O. Hodder, Mrs. H. Clark, Miss B. Roe, Miss H. Moore, N. Fish, Miss H. Bennett, G. W. Holden, W. C. Dunn, Miss M. Hume, Miss E. Hall, Miss E. Standish, S. Liebling.
It had been a mystery ever since the Freshman's concert where the remainder of the smokes collected for that entertainment had gone. The occasion presented itself at last, when they were to reappear on the scene. It was decided to hold an informal debate on Tuesday, May 7th, and on this occasion to smoke the cigars and cigarettes, now rather dry with age. There was a very good representation of the male student body, as most of the day students attended. The evening began with a debate, at which "Father" Burt presided. The subject of debate was, "Resolved, that the city of Sherbrooke should be proud of its street railway system." Very good arguments were presented on both sides, but towards the end the speakers got rather excited, and if "Father" had not declared the debate a tie there might have been some absentees from college next day. The rest of the evening was spent in playing cards and singing songs, the "Red-headed musician" tickling the ivories. The evening closed with the singing of "O Canada" and the "National Anthem."

Several of the students took advantage of the two holidays, which came on the 27th and 29th April, to go home for the week end.

We are glad to see that the Golf Club has invested in four new sets of clubs. This has awakened a considerable interest in golf among the students. Many that have never played before have taken up the game, and the golf links of late have been almost overcrowded.

Now however the interest of golf is dying out and tennis is taking its place. The courts have been rolled several times and now are in a fairly good condition. The courts are considerably improved this year by two new nets.

Two Arts students have come into residence during the last week, in the persons of Mr. Phillips and Mr. Bartlett. The former is a graduate of the Diocesan College, Montreal, and the latter has been a day student up to now. Both these new residents are taking their first year.

We were pleased to have "Piker" Philbrick with us for a few days, and especially that he honoured us with his imposing presence at our "smoker."
Societies.

Debating Club.

On reviewing the work of the Debating Club for the past year, we cannot but feel that, in spite of the comparatively few meetings that have been held, a very successful and interesting programme has been carried out. That this has been so is due mainly to the untiring efforts of our President. He has been the mainspring that has kept everything in connection with the club in motion, and the students owe him a debt of gratitude for maintaining this important branch of the College activities.

During the Lent term several debates of an informal nature were held, and all were well supported by the students. Amongst the new speakers, there are many who will make good debaters with a little more practice. The club would have held more meetings if the rehearsals for "The Hoodoo," and the sudden break up of the Lent term had not interfered with its arrangements.

The last meeting of the year was held on April 23rd, when the men met the Co-ed's Debating Club in a challenged debate on the subject "Resolved, that war does more harm than good." Messrs. Scott, Williams and Acres represented the men and upheld the affirmative of the resolution, while Misses Hall, Moore and Findlay spoke for the Co-eds on the negative. The council chamber was used for the occasion, and it was filled to the doors with the students and friends of the University. As may be imagined, a very lively discussion followed. This was rendered more interesting by the musical efforts of the ladies, which were apparently aimed to intimidate the male speakers. When the debating was over, the judges, Rev. H. R. Bigg and Professors Vial and Burt, gave their decision in favor of the affirmative; but they congratulated the negative speakers on the broader view they took of the subject.

If there are a sufficient number of men here next year to keep up the work of the Club, we hope to have some more opportunities of meeting the Co-eds on the platform.

F. R. Scott, Secretary.

B. C. M. U.

On Thursday, April 18th, the last public meeting of the year was held, when the Rev. O. G. Lewis, M.A., of Magog, gave an illustrated lecture on "Labrador." The speaker had an excellent lot of slides, made from his own photographs.
and his graphic account of conditions of life in the district dealt with was most interesting.

On April 12th the last session of the Mission Study Class was held, when Mr. W. W. Smith very ably opened up the subject, "Christianity the Universal Religion." The result of our studies has shown that all men feel dependent on some higher power, and that all forms of religion are God's truth, even though much distorted. Yet the ideal is not to be found in an eclectic faith; true religion must be to some extent exclusive, while false religion can never display truly the worship of God. But the ideal of Christianity is universal in extent and scope and success. Christian morality is based on the highest motive—the test of love—and sets an ever higher standard. Christianity means restoration to original righteousness, the gift of the Spirit of power, and a progressive ideal. Christ is greater than all other religious teachers; they made mistakes, but He is immaculate. In the Christian faith we have a comprehensive revelation of the mind of God.

Mr. Bown, as President, closed the meeting with a review of the year's work. The usual activities of the Union have been well maintained. But this year has seen two innovations—the public illustrated lectures and the Mission Study Class. Both had been most successful. It is to be hoped that all these features will be continued and developed in the future.

W. C. DUNN, Secretary.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Though few in number, we are still continuing the round of our Brotherhood activities. The hospital and Moulton Hill still receive our attention. A devotional address has been given by each member in turn and has been productive of much good. The addresses since last issue have been delivered by Mr. Hodder on St. Luke 11-1 and Mr. Acres on St. James 1-8.

It is with great pleasure that we are sending out a second circular letter to the men at the front as, judging from the numerous and appreciative replies received, the letters are looked forward to with considerable interest. These letters contain all the news of the college societies, athletic and otherwise, besides giving a report of the state of health of each member of the Faculty.

H. O. HODDER, Secretary.
Exchange Notes.

During this term the graduation numbers of various Exchanges adorn our shelf. Conspicuous among them is the "Gateway," presenting a very tidy appearance. Its photos of the different clubs, etc., illustrate the activity of which the University of Alberta is capable, even in these strenuous times.

In the "College Times" one gets a good idea of the athletic spirit which pervades Upper Canada College. It is of such a standard, that if boys possessing a sportsmanlike character make good soldiers, then we do not wonder at the large Honour Roll and the excellent accomplishments of the old boys, as indicated in the Easter issue.

The appreciation of the work of "King's," Windsor, is shown in the rapid strides made in the subscription list to the Advance Fund, which appears in the March issue. Well done, "King's."

To the student of literature, there is an article of interest in that same issue, viz., "A Comparison of the Drama and the Modern Novel." Their aims are the same—the amusement and education of mankind. The drama reached its apex in Elizabeth's reign. It has since deteriorated. Its true successor is not the modern play, but the modern novel, which presents all the material of the drama, in an accessible form, to the public.

Moreover, the drama has limitations in that

1. It requires adequate setting and presentation to fulfil its purpose.
2. It cannot present scenes of vigorous action, e.g. shipwrecks, battles, etc.

As against which

1. The novel which is well written will appeal to some part of humanity, and requires no exterior aid.
2. The novel depicts scenes and makes them live in imagination.

In plot, character study, or psychological analysis, the drama and novel are on equal footing.

In scenic effect—the advantage is with the novel; it need only appeal to the imagination, while the setting of the drama cannot be left to that faculty.

The drama can only be seen by few, at the best. The novel can be read by multitudes.

The graduation number of the "McMaster Monthly" is suitably dedicated to two of their fallen. Illustrations of the excellent maintenance given to the College standard, by those who remain within its walls, are numerous.

Lovers of Browning will find food for thought in "Browning's Art Poems."

The "Trinity Review," under "Three Men in a Boat," recounts the adventures and pleasures of a trip by canoe from Lakefield (Ont.) to New York. The attractions of that trip will appeal to canoeists in our midst.

In the same issue appears a champion of Sir Oliver Lodge under "Spiritualism." The element of the mysterious is a great sustaining factor in religion. Spiritualism is particularly powerful in its appeal to men's sense of the mysterious, because it proposes to unveil to him the nature of the immediate future, a centre of human hope, due to the fact that it is unknown. Man, through his interest in the immediate future, has become the object of many attempts to satisfy his credulity—true of a certain class of spiritualist. It is not opposed to Christianity, but seeks more direct evidence. Much of the so-called spiritualism comes within the theory of telepathy and clairvoyance, but these are not adequate hypothesis to account for the findings of the Psychical Research Society.

The Society's findings are based on the theory of a subliminal self. Spiritualism, as studied by Sir Oliver Lodge and others than those who take up the work for necessary ends, cannot be met with such phrases as, "It is too dangerous a thing to meddle with." We must learn, as in the past, from the scientific world what it has to contribute.

All would-be "flyers" will find their object expressed in "The First Flight" (Gryphon) and it will be read with zest by those who wish shortly to have the same experiences, and who, after the same hair-splitting escapes from death, will explain with the same amount of coolness how little there is about which to be nervous, and how perfect is the game of "flying."

Those of our worthy Profs., who intend to be tillers of the soil, etc., this summer, may take a point or two from "The Growing of Rye," etc., and "Wartime Poultry Raising," in Macdonald's Magazine. Fall in, "Farmer Profs."

"The Athenaeum" "Education Pot-pourri" should be printed and placed in conspicuous places in every college. The committing to memory of the same would be a profitable memory exercise for Freshmen:

"Procrastination is a grafter.
No student can loaf alone—the loafer is a menace to all others.
Better make first-class in six subjects than be plucked in seven," etc.

These are types of those who leave exam. work until the night preceding the examinations.
Dr. Perrin's Lecture

On Thursday, April 11th, we had the pleasure of listening to Dr. Perrin’s lecture on “Canterbury,” which had been originally planned as the last of the Lenten illustrated lectures, but had been unavoidably postponed. Dr. Perrin was well qualified to deal with his subject, having spent ten years as organist at Canterbury Cathedral before coming to this country to take up his present position at McGill University. He interspersed his account of the history of the city with quotations from the great poets, and the whole was illustrated by a splendid set of views. The audience was very evidently interested and appreciative.

Which one of the Profs. is shewing the greatest improvement since Harry has been giving his after-lecture talks?

May we offer a suggestion—that these NECESSARY hints be given to the Profs. during lectures, so that ALL may profit by them?

Did you ever notice Haddy's dignified tone of voice? Hm-m-m!

CO-ED. (trying to get jokes for the Mitre)—’’Can’t we put one in about H-d-a and H-r-y?’’
H-D-A—’’Oh, there’s no joke about that!’’

*It is easily seen that the divines never attended the court of Louis XIV.

Can anyone tell us:
Why Hazel H—— is so fond of Taylored Beaux?
Why Bown is so fond of the Church (St.)?
What Haddy's dream was?
Whom Dad went home with on the night of the debate?
Why Marjory A—— prefers Kelly’s key to Edmond’s?
Who is the gay butterfly among the males of second year?
What has happened to THE canoe?
Why Max is coming back for the 24th?
Why Miss C-x prefers the country to the city (L’ville.)?
What Co-ed admired Sammy’s curly locks?
Why H. O. H. was so interested in his hands in "The Sorcerer?"
Why Julia loves the methods of Barter?
Why Gertrude likes a (Chester)field?
What is it that is neither fresh Fish nor good red Heron?

We cull the following from the Sherbrooke Record:
"ASCENSION DAY SERVICES.—At Bishop's College, Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 and 9:30 this morning in the chapel, and special services were held in commemoration of the day."
Oh! that it had been so, instead of that affliction of "services as usual."

Under the spreading Hazel-nut tree
The Danville Smithy stands.

QUESTION AT POL. ECON.—"Did Adam Smith hold the LAISSEZ FAIRE?"
FATHER—Well, none of the LAZY FAIR here at this lecture.
(Query—Which Co-ed thought the cap fitted?)
Roster of Graduates.

In publishing this roster, we hope that it may prove to be both interesting and helpful to our graduates, and serve the purpose of drawing nearer together all members of the University of Bishop's College. The list is one of which we may well be proud, for it bears many names which are highly honoured in many different parts of the globe. At one time we had hoped that this venture might be made on a much more extensive scale, viz., to include brief sketches of our graduates, and also to record the doings of all past students, even if not graduates. This has been found impossible, owing partly to the lack of information, and partly to the necessity for economy. But we trust that, the start having been made, our graduates will give the necessary support, and that on some future occasion it may be possible to repeat the experiment on a more ambitious scale. There is no reason why a roster should not become an annual publication. But that must depend on the graduates themselves.

The aim of the present attempt has been to record the present address and position of all living graduates; but a departure from this line of action has been made in the case of graduates who have given their lives in the present war. The names of these have been given the place of special honour at the head of their year.

Every effort has been made to avoid errors and omissions. At the same time we cannot guarantee any of the information as precisely up-to-date. Nevertheless, we hope it may be of some use to our fellow-members of the University.

Awaiting Call to R.F.C.

For the information of those who think it is not worth while to subscribe for the Mitre we reproduce these opinions conveyed to us:

An Army Chaplain says, "I was delighted to receive the Mitre."

A Graduate at the Front writes, "I would like to say how refreshing it was to receive such an excellent copy of the college magazine, produced at such a time as the present. I regard this Mitre as one of the best (if not the best), that I have seen published. Without doubt we owe a debt of gratitude to the little band who are keeping up such a high standard of University life in all its various departments."

A former editor describes this same number as "an issue of a type which I did not think it would ever be possible to publish at Bishop's."

Two of our Medical Graduates say, "This volume of the Mitre is the best of its kind I have ever seen;" "I have never before enjoyed a copy of the Mitre so much."

Another Graduate writes, "We enjoyed it very much, and we think it a literary effort of much worth, and shall keep our copy. We are looking forward to the next copy."

Two Lady Graduates say, "Let me congratulate you on the issue you have brought out." "I think the first issue of the Mitre for this year is a great success."

The following comes from an American University, "I have read the Mitre with much interest. Hoping to see more in the future."

If you are not a subscriber, there are three reasons why you should become one:

1. Because you are a member of Bishop's.
2. Because you will find it worth reading.
3. Because we supply the magazine to our men at the Front, and you can help to bear the expense.

Send along your subscription for next year.
