LIB 213  The Use and Abuse of Beauty  3-3-0
French writer Stendhal said in the 19th century that “beauty is the promise of happiness” and, upon seeing the beauty of Florence, he wondrously proclaimed, “I was in a sort of ecstasy... absorbed in the contemplation of sublime beauty...Everything spoke so vividly to my soul.” Yet only decades later his compatriot, poet Arthur Rimbaud, claimed that he wanted to “abuse” beauty, for he found her “bitter.” Dadaist and surrealist artist Tristan Tzara went even further, “I have a mad and starry desire to assassinate beauty...” Does Tzara signal not only a dramatic change in Western art, but the claim that all forms of harmony and beauty, including the personal and the political, are conservative. Or is the beautiful in some important sense still of what we might call “transcendent” importance to human life? This course will explore the fate of the beautiful, from the Greeks to 21st century life.

PHI 346  Topics in The Philosophy of Art  3-3-0

Arts Administration

Faculty
Jean L. Manore,
B.A. (Western), M.A., Ph.D. (Ottawa);
Professor
Chair of the Program

Program Overview:
Students are admitted to a Humanities Divisional Major in Arts Administration (MAJDHA). This 75-credit interdisciplinary program combines the study of business, creative arts, and public history and arts administration. The goal is to provide students with the skills and knowledge needed to participate in the business and organizational areas of the cultural sector. Students normally begin the program with core courses in Arts Administration, Business and one of the Arts concentrations (Drama, Fine Arts, Film Studies, Music, Public History). As they proceed through the program, they will enrol in two practicum courses: AAD 253 (External Practicum), where they will be placed with an on campus organization (Centennial Theatre, Foreman Art Gallery, Musique Chez Nous, Drama department, etc.) for their first work experience; and nearer to graduation AAD 353 (External Practicum), in an off-campus cultural venue consistent with their disciplinary focus.

Students should identify which of the concentrations they wish to follow at the time of application to the program. Please consult the Chair of the Arts Administration Program for advice concerning program requirements. The two practicum courses will be arranged by the professor of the Arts Administration courses, along with representatives of the different concentrations. Students are permitted to register in a program that combines Arts Administration and a Major in their Arts concentration (i.e. 42 or 48 credits instead of 30). Those in 120-credit degrees are strongly encouraged to do so, or to pursue a minor (24 credits) in a second Arts or Business discipline. Concentration courses may be double-counted towards the Major. A Minor in Arts Administration is open to students Majoring in Business or one the Arts Concentrations of the program. Students following an Arts Administration program who wish to add a Business program should contact the Williams School of Business.
