

English Language Studies

The English as a Second Language Program offers courses in grammar, composition, oral expression, and academic skills. All courses have in common the aim of assisting students in all disciplines to improve their understanding of English language and communication. Within the Department of Modern Languages, Literatures and Cultures, a Major in English Language Studies is offered.

English as a Second Language

English as a second language courses at the 100 and 200 level may be taken as free electives in any program, or they may be taken towards a Major in Modern Languages (English Language Studies Component) or a Certificate of Proficiency in English as a Second Language.

Modern Languages Major: English Language Studies Concentration

MAJMLA/CONELA

This program is only open to non-native English speakers. In order to be accepted into this program, students must have attained at least an intermediate level of competence in English. This level will be established according to the following criteria:

- 1) A result of over 40% on the Bishop's University E.S.L. placement test.
and
- 2) Successful completion of two CEGEP English Courses at the 604-100 level (normally 604-101 & 604-102).
or
- 3) A result of 480/157-525/206 on the TOEFL test.
or
- 4) A result of 575-690 on the TOEIC test.
or
- 5) A result of 4.5-5.5 on the IELTS test.

Students may also enter the program at the advanced level, which will be defined according to the following criteria:

- 1) A result of over 65% on the Bishop's University ESL placement test.
and
- 2) Successful completion of two Cegep English courses at the 604-100 level, including Anglais 604-102 and 604-103, with an average of over 75% in each.
or
- 3) A result of over 525/206 on the TOEFL test.
or
- 4) A result of over 690 on the TOEIC test.
- 5) A result of over 5.5 on the IELTS test.

In all cases, the University's standards will prevail. The University reserves the right to deny admission into these courses and programs to students who are already proficient in English. The University also reserves the right to reassign students to different levels/courses/ programs should in-class performance be inappropriate for the level of instruction. Students who have completed a university program with English as the language of instruction will not normally be eligible for English Language Studies programs or ESL courses.

English as a Second Language

Course Descriptions

Full-Credit ESL Courses

The following courses are offered by the Department of Modern Languages, Literatures, and Cultures (English Language Section) in the regular day programs.

ESL 102 Beginners English as a Second Language II 3-3-0

This course is intended for students who have already been exposed to the language, have a rudimentary understanding of its sounds and structures, and are able to communicate basic messages. The emphasis is on understanding and speaking, while students begin to participate actively in communication exercises and activities. Students are also introduced to simple reading and writing activities. Upon completion of this course, students should be able to function in a variety of real-life situations, and they should have a good knowledge of the basic structures of the language.

Prerequisites: 29% to 40% on the Bishop's ESL placement test or 65% or over in ESL 070.

ESL 103 Intermediate English as a Second Language I 3-3-0

This course is for students who are able to communicate yet need additional exposure to the basic structures and functions of the language. Students participate in speaking, listening, reading, and writing activities which demand increasing independence and concentration. Upon completion of this level, students should be able to produce simple, clear written texts and convey a desired oral message in a variety of social, occupational, and educational contexts. They should also have developed an awareness of some of the more complicated structures of the language.

Prerequisites: 41%-52% on the placement test or 65% or over in ESL 102
Antirequisite: ESL 110

ESL 110 Introduction to English for Academic Purposes I 3-3-0

This is a broadly focused course designed to familiarize students with the varieties of English that they will encounter in an academic milieu, and give practice in the skills that are essential to this milieu: comprehending lectures, reading texts of varying length and complexity, note-taking, summarizing, paraphrasing, presenting brief seminars. In addition, students will write and revise short texts with the aim of improving their command of grammar and vocabulary.

Entry level: 41%-52% on the placement test.

Antirequisite: ESL 103

ESL 111 Introduction to English for Academic Purposes II 3-3-0

This course is a continuation of Introduction to English for Academic Purposes I. Students will continue to be exposed to a wide variety of materials and will continue to improve in the four main skill areas: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. However, the emphasis at this level will be placed on activities of increasing complexity which require a greater degree of autonomy.

Pre- or corequisites: 53%-65% on the placement test, 65% in ESL 110, may be taken concurrently with ESL 110.

Antirequisite: ESL 104

The passing grade for these courses is 50%; however, students will not be permitted to take advanced core courses until they have demonstrated adequate ability through achieving 65% or over in at least two 100-level ESL courses.

ESL 113 ESL for Special Purposes – Beginner Level 3-3-0

This beginner level ESL course will address specific needs of students – for example ESL for Tourism and ESL for Arts and Culture – both within and outside of the BU community. As such, the content will vary from semester to semester.

Prerequisites: ESL 070 or ESL 102 or tested level

ESL 114 ESL for Special Purposes – Low- Intermediate Level 3-3-0

This low-intermediate level ESL course will address specific needs of students – for example ESL for Tourism and ESL for Arts and Culture – both within and outside of the BU community. As such, the content will vary from semester to semester.

Prerequisites: ESL 103 or ESL 104 or tested level

ESL 121 English Grammar: Tense and Idiom 3-3-0

This course provides a comprehensive review of the basic tense systems in English, while focusing on grammar at the phrase and sentence level. Presentation of grammatical material will be contextualized and reinforced by oral and written exercises. Students will also learn phrasal verbs and various idiomatic features of the language (prepositions, gerund and infinitive collocations, article use).

Prerequisite: Over 40% on placement test

ESL 125 English Phonetics and Pronunciation 3-3-0

This course is designed to provide students with an in-depth knowledge of the stress, rhythm and intonation patterns of English. In doing so, it will assist students in their understanding of variations in formal and informal spoken English, and in improving the accuracy of their spoken language. Students will learn the International Phonetic Alphabet.

Prerequisite: Over 40% on placement test

ESL 126 Oral Discourse I 3-3-0

In this course students will encounter different types of oral discourse and learn the organizational and presentation strategies necessary for effective oral communication. Although some emphasis will be placed on oral comprehension, most of the activities will provide students with practice in direct address before a group with special emphasis on effective organization of ideas and clear delivery.

Prerequisite: Over 40% on placement test

ESL 131 Business English 3-3-0

This course will focus on improving business communication skills. Objectives will include the effective writing of e-mail correspondence, memos, business letters, and reports; effective oral communication in various settings on the telephone, in meetings, in debates and discussions. Students will also encounter videos, readings and discussions dealing with topics such as customer services, leadership, stress management, sexual harassment.

Prerequisite: Over 40% on placement test

ESL 210 Advanced Writing and Text Analysis 3-3-0

This course is intended for students who have reached an advanced level of competence. Students will read a variety of texts from popular and academic sources and analyse them for grammar, structure, and rhetorical strategies. Students will also learn the conventions of the academic essay and the characteristics of English style and discourse.

Prerequisites: 66% or over on placement test; 65% or over in ESL 111a; or permission of instructor

ESL 211 Advanced Communicative Skills I 3-3-0

This course is intended for students who have reached an advanced level of competence. Emphasis will be placed on familiarizing students with more complex aspects of grammar and communication, increasing vocabulary and knowledge of different text types, and improving listening and reading comprehension. At the end of this level students should be able to function comfortably in any anglophone environment, whether social, professional, or academic. There will continue to be a substantial writing component at this level. This may take the form of essays, reports or other assignments, at the discretion of the instructor.

Prerequisites: 66% or over on placement test; 65% or over in ESL 111; or permission of instructor.

ESL 213 ESL for Special Purposes – High- Intermediate Level 3-3-0

This high-intermediate level ESL course will address specific needs of students – for example ESL for Tourism and ESL for Arts and Culture – both within and outside of the BU community. As such, the content will vary from semester to semester.

Prerequisites: ESL 110 or ESL 111 or tested level

ESL 214 ESL for Special Purposes – Advanced Level 3-3-0

This advanced level ESL course will address specific needs of students – for example ESL for Tourism and ESL for Arts and Culture – both within and outside of the BU community. As such, the content will vary from semester to semester.

Prerequisites: ESL 210 or ESL 211 or tested level
