

Japanese Studies

Students who wish to complete a Japanese Language Studies Concentration (Exchange) within the Modern Languages Major, or an Adjunct Concentration, or a Japanese Studies Minor, must go on exchange in Japan. Courses to be taken on exchange are chosen in consultation with the departmental Chair.

Japanese Studies Minor (Exchange) (21 credits) MINJSE

Micro-Certificate in Japanese Studies (15 credits) CONJSE

List of Japanese Courses

Japanese Language Courses

JSE 101 Introduction to Japanese Language I 3-3-1

The purpose of the course is to equip students with grammatical patterns and basic vocabulary of present day, standard Japanese. Hiragana, one of the three writing systems of the language, will be gradually introduced, followed by Katakana and Kanji. Grammar sessions will be conducted in English while in drill sessions maximum use of Japanese will be expected. Concurrent registration of JSE 150 strongly recommended for exchange programs.

JSE 102 Introduction to Japanese Language II 3-3-1

Continuation of Introduction to the Japanese Language I.
Prerequisite: JSE 101 or equivalent

JSE 201 Intermediate Japanese Language I 3-3-1

This course introduces students to more grammatical (as well as lexical) items that can be put to immediate use. The purpose of the course is to equip the students with comprehensive grammatical patterns and vocabulary of present-day, standard Japanese at the basic level.

Prerequisite: JSE 102 or equivalent

JSE 202 Intermediate Japanese Language II 3-3-1

Continuation of Intermediate Japanese Language I.

Prerequisite: JSE 201 or equivalent

Courses on Japan

JSE 150 Japanese Society and Culture 3-3-0

This course is designed to give a basic level of knowledge on the main aspects of modern Japanese society and culture. The aim is twofold: first, to present modern Japan as it might be seen by the Japanese themselves, in hope that the student might learn to perceive Japanese society and culture from a Japanese point of view, and; second, to introduce some of the minute details – the intricacies – of everyday life in Japan which the student might not be aware of, yet which will help him or her to better understand and experience the ways of Japan. Concurrent registration of JSE 101 strongly recommended for exchange programs.

Chair of the Department

Program Overview

The Department of Music offers a wide range of courses that provide a general introduction to the subject or that lead to a B.A. degree with either an Honours, Major or Minor in Music. Students also have the option to choose between Music Performance (MPE) or Music and Culture (MCU) programs. Popular interdisciplinary programs include the B.A. in Arts Administration (Music Concentration) and the Musical Theatre Concentration that draws the worlds of Drama and Music together in an exciting collaborative enterprise. The Department welcomes students from across campus to select from a wide range of courses geared to those with little or no background in music.

Courses leading to the B.A. in Music, in either the Performance or Music and Culture stream, are drawn from four areas of study: history and literature; theory and composition; lessons on both instruments or voice; and choral or instrumental ensembles. Courses in the history and literature of music include historical surveys, genre studies, and special interest courses on many topics. Theory courses are combined with musicianship classes (ear-training, sight-singing and keyboard harmony). Advanced courses in composition, harmony, form and analysis, and orchestration are also available. Performance study is available on all orchestral, band and keyboard instruments, as well as voice, with instruction provided by professional musicians. Ensembles include the Choral Ensemble, Chamber Music Ensembles, Jazz/Improvisation Combos and Rock/Pop Bands. Numerous performing opportunities both on and off campus are available as early as the first semester of study for students keen on building their confidence on stage.

The Department proudly boasts the acoustically superb, 165-seat Bandeen Recital Hall. Other facilities include studios for teaching and ensemble rehearsal, classrooms, a recording studio and a number of practice rooms all equipped with Yamaha upright pianos. The Department also owns a Karl Wilhelm continuo organ, a 2-manual French Baroque harpsichord made by Montreal craftsman Yves Beaupré, two 7-foot Hamburg Steinway pianos and a 7-foot American Steinway piano. Students also have access to a 2-manual Wilhelm tracker organ in St. Mark's Chapel. As a general rule, students should possess their own instruments (with the exception of piano, double bass, harpsichord and organ).

In addition to its academic role, the Department of Music is the center of cultural activities for the University community and beyond. The Department offers a full series of concerts by Canadian and international musicians in Bandeen Hall. Artists-in-Residence visit the Department each year to present concerts and master classes for Bishop's music students. A fully-staged musical is mounted each year, in collaboration with the Drama Department.

Admission

Students seeking admission must satisfy the general requirements for admission to the university. In addition, the Music Department requests that each applicant submit a letter detailing their previous musical studies and experience. An audition of two contrasting pieces, in video format, is also required. Please contact the Admissions Office admissions@UBishops.ca or the Department Chair for details.

Other Practical Study Courses

MUS 111	Keyboard Proficiency	1-3-0
Being able to use the piano keyboard is an essential tool for musicians. Most music software uses it as their tool to input notes. For vocalists and instrumentalists (other than piano), this course provides the minimum skills for being able to express yourself and create/rehearse music using the keyboard. This course is a requirement for both the Major and Minor programs. MUS 170 may replace this course for the skilled pianist.
MUS 160	The Professional Musician	2-1-5
Today's music professional must know how to act as a freelance artist, understand the music royalty system and how to receive music-specific grants. They also need to be able to produce professional charts/scores using music notation software. This course is a requirement for both the Major and Minor programs.
MUS 174	Collaborative Practical Study I	1-1-0
Students studying the same instrument and wanting to further enhance their skill set as a group can request one project per term in consultation with their tutor and the department Chair. Three students minimum are required. Lessons include one 60-minute meeting per week for ten weeks as a complement to their principal instrument studies. Suggested topics include specific instrumental/vocal techniques, scales, arpeggios, warmups, performance practices, etc. Note: Fee surcharges apply.
MUS 175	Collaborative Practical Study II	1-1-0
See description for MUS 174. Note: Fee surcharges apply.
MUS 274	Collaborative Practical Study III	1-1-0

MUS 374	Individual Practical Study: Special Project	3-2-5
A special project involving a performance aspect, on a topic approved by the Department. Note: Fee surcharges apply.
MUS 375	Instrument Techniques	2-1-5
Introduction to performing, teaching, and maintenance techniques of orchestral instruments: strings, woodwinds, brass, percussion. Recommended for B.Ed. students with a Music concentration, and open to others with permission of the Department. Note: Fee surcharges apply.
MUS 378	Introduction in Recording Technology	3-2-6
This course is designed to introduce the student to basic sound recording, using modern digital equipment. The course is project-based and will be individually tailored to the student's knowledge and background. Musical skills are required. Note: Fee surcharges apply.
MUS 379	Recording Technology II	3-2-6
A continuation of MUS 378, this course will introduce students to more advanced techniques, including equalization, compression, mixing, and specific sound capture methods. All of this will be accomplished through student-led music production projects. Note: Fee surcharges apply. Prerequisite: MUS 378.
