

The Ever-Significant Importance of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

 WATT IF ENERGY SOLUTIONS POWERED BY PEOPLE A documentary to fight climate change	Documentary Screening: WATT IF: The Growing Need for Green Energies Energy is everywhere. Released in September 2018, the documentary WATT IF tells the story of 6 entrepreneurs, 6 citizens (almost) like the others. They are pioneers who reinvent the way energy is produced or consumed through innovative projects around the world.	Mon. Oct. 22 5:30pm Bishop Williams Hall (BWH)
	What are the SDGs and why do they matter? Learn about the UN's Global Goals for Sustainable Development, how they can be implemented in this interactive workshop event.	Tues. Oct. 23 5:00pm Cleghorn Room (McGreer 200)
	BU thinks and acts globally Find out the exciting work your fellow Bishop's students have done around the world in their international internships and experiential learning projects around the globe. Presentations followed by an introduction of some internship opportunities for the future.	Wed. Oct. 24 5:30pm McGreer 100
	Debate: Debating the SDGs Come and watch the Bishop's Debating Society and others debate side by side the merits of the Sustainable Development Goals! You can even participate in some lightning round of debating from 4:30pm. Hosted by the BU Debate Society	Thurs. Oct.25 4:00 pm Cleghorn Room (McGreer 200)