Gerard Gardner fonds. - 2 photographs. - 1 textual record.

Biographical sketch:

G rard Gardner, Ph.D. (1897 – 1988) from Acton Vale, Quebec was a Professor at the Universit  de Montreal. He retired in 1981. At Bishop's University he established the B langer-Gardner Fund to support research pertaining to the Eastern Townships. Dr. Gardner also donated a large number of books, photos, etc. to Bishop's University. The books in question, the B langer-Gardner Collection, were placed in what was then the Laurie Allison Room in the John Bassett Memorial Library and continue to figure in Bishop's Special Collections. The B langer-Gardner Foundation has funds available to individuals, groups or associations for research on topics related to the Eastern Townships.
