- International Studies
- International Political Economy

CREDIT REQUIREMENTS FOR PROGRAMS IN THE DEPARTMENT OF POLITICS AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

PROGRAM	Honours ^{^*}	Major [^]	Minor
Political Studies	60	48	24
International Studies	60	48	24
International Political Economy ^{}	60	48	X
[^] Students in any major or Honours program must also complete a one-credit lab course - ILT 104. [*] Grade requirements – To enter or continue in an Honours program, students must normally obtain and sustain a cumulative average of 75%. This minimum cumulative average must be met in order to graduate with the Honours degree. ^{} Offered jointly by the Department of Politics and International Studies and the Department of Economics.

As a student at Bishop's, it is your responsibility to manage your own program to its successful completion. At a minimum, this involves:

1. Ensuring that you are enrolled in the correct components of the program, i.e. Honours, Majors or Minors. Check your transcript.
2. Ensuring that you have taken and passed the required courses for that program (check the on-line Academic Calendar and be aware that some courses have prerequisites).
3. Ensuring that you have taken and passed a sufficient number of the elective courses required by that program. These electives are normally chosen from a prescribed list of courses for each program (check the on-line Academic Calendar).
4. Ensuring that any other requirements of the program (such as going on an exchange abroad) are satisfied.
5. Ensuring that your average grade is high enough to maintain your enrolment in that program. This is important for Honours (check your transcript carefully).
6. Ensuring with the Records Office that any credits earned at other universities are appropriately transferred to your Bishop's program.

Cross Counting and Program Limits

- A maximum of 15 Political Studies credits can be counted towards the multiple Honours/Majors and Minors in the Department of Politics and International Studies.
- In addition, the maximum number of Honours/Majors/Minors (POL, INT, IPE) offered through the Department a student can simultaneously register in is limited to two (2).

General Considerations

- Not all courses can be offered every year and some courses become full. Give priority to taking your required courses when they become available on the Timetable. This is particularly important if you have a more complex program (such as a double-major) or if you need to spend a semester abroad.
- Respect administrative deadlines. These can have important consequences, especially "add/drop" deadlines and "withdraw with permission" deadlines for courses. You will get a grade for all that course unless you drop or withdraw before the relevant deadline (see the Academic Calendar). There have been cases where students did not formally drop a course but never attended any of the classes. They received a zero in the course, which appeared on their transcript and was factored into their average (Check your transcript to make sure you are enrolled in the correct courses!)
- To add a course after Registration you need the permission of the instructor for that course.
- If you want to transfer from one program to another (e.g. Major to Honours) or to add another program (such as a Minor) you will need to get a Program Change form from the Records Office. Be aware that you may need a minimum average to transfer into some programs and that a few courses give priority admission to Honours students.

Divisional Rule -- Natural Sciences course

- If you combination of programs (i.e. the total number of credits required for all the Majors/Honours/minors you are enrolled in) is 72 credits or less, you will be required to take one course offered by the Division of Natural Sciences and Mathematics in order to graduate. This can be any course offered by departments in this division. For example:
 - o Major in Political Studies (48 credits), Minor in History (24 credits) = 72
You would need to take a science course to graduate.
 - o Double major in Political Studies and History (48 credits each) = 94
You are exempt from the science course requirement.

100-level Courses

- In general, you should try to take the POL 100-level courses required in your program early in the degree as these are introductory courses and are often prerequisites for more senior courses. You should not be taking required 100-level courses in your third or fourth year. All students should take POL101 (Introduction to Comparative Politics) and POL 140 (Introduction to International Relations) at their earliest possible opportunity.

400-level courses, Independent Study courses and Honours thesis.

- Honours thesis and independent study courses are open only to students in the final two years of study and at the discretion of the Department. Please note that there are strict rules governing enrolment in these courses.
- Limited resources mean that we normally only offer one 400-level course per term. Priority is given to Honours students for these courses.

Notes:

1. To enter and to remain in the Honours program, students must normally attain a cumulative average of 75%. Honours students who do not meet this average requirement at graduation will automatically revert to the Major program.
2. Language Courses:
 - a. 12 credits of language courses other than the student's mother tongue. The language courses can be taken at Bishop's or from a program at another university, approved by the Department of Politics and International Studies and the Department of Modern Languages.
 - b. Depending on a student's entry-level competence, extra courses at the beginners or intermediate level might be required.
 - c. Upon entering the program students should (a) consult with the appropriate Modern Languages faculty, regarding the language requirements for the program and (b) familiarize themselves with the language competency required for any intended exchange destinations.
 - d. Students with no previous familiarity with a foreign language should anticipate two years of study (normally a minimum of 6 courses) in order to attain a level adequate for exchange studies in that language. This may vary according to the country of exchange.
3. Any additional required course can count as one of the electives in either of the two concentrations. In addition, students who have passed both POL241 and POL242 need take only two further courses from the third required list.
4. POL 441, POL 442 and POL 443 cannot be simultaneously counted as electives in the Global Governance concentration and as fulfilling the 400-level course requirement.
5. The addition of a Minor language concentration (8 courses) to the Major in International Studies is strongly recommended.
