1. ABOUT THIS SENATE HANDBOOK

Bishop’s University has a bicameral governance structure composed of the Board of Governors and the Senate. The academic work and life of the University are governed by the Senate, which prepares and recommends plans and policies for academic development and advises the Board of Governors concerning the academic needs of the University. The Board of Governors is responsible for general oversight of the overall management of the affairs of the University.

At the 605th Meeting of Senate on October 18, 2019, an Ad-hoc Committee on Senate By-Laws and Policies was established and staffed.¹ This Committee decided at its meeting on December 19, 2019 to develop a Senate handbook to serve as a guide and reference source for Senators to assist them in their important role.

On May 11, 2021 the Committee reviewed a draft Senate Handbook prepared by Secretary General Trygve Ugland. This draft was presented to Senate at its 633rd meeting on May 21, 2021.

Faculty Council and the Students’ Representative Council (SRC) were also consulted on the draft Senate Handbook.

The Senate Handbook is intended to be a “living” document that will be revised annually by the Secretary General prior to the first meeting of Senate in the Fall.

4.4. Rules of the Senate

Committees
In any academic committee created by the Senate there shall be student representation if the recommendations of such group would affect students, unless student representatives on the Senate specifically choose not to be represented.

Chair
The Principal and Vice-Chancellor shall be Chair of the Senate, shall preside at the meetings thereof and shall bring the recommendations of the Senate to the Board of Governors. In the absence of the Principal and Vice-Chancellor, the Vice-Principal Academic shall act as Chair. In the absence of both the Principal and Vice-Chancellor and the Vice-Principal Academic, or during the vacancy of these offices, the member of the Senate senior by length of appointment to the faculty shall preside.

Meetings
The Senate shall meet at least six (6) times a year at the call of the Principal and Vice-Chancellor or the Vice-Principal Academic or more often as may be required.

Meetings at the Call of Senate Members
Any seven (7) members of the Senate who desire the calling of a special meeting may make a request in writing to the Principal and Vice-Chancellor (or the Vice-Principal Academic, as the case may be) setting out the objects of the proposed meeting, and, upon a default of the Principal and Vice-Chancellor or Vice-Principal Academic to call a special meeting within forty-eight (48) hours of receipt of the said request, they may themselves convene a meeting of the Senate.

Quorum
The quorum at any meeting of Senate shall be twelve (12) members of Senate, including the Chair, at least seven (7) of whom must be members of the faculty and, when the meeting is held while classes are in session at the University, at least two (2) of whom must be students in good standing.

The courses of study shall consist of such academic requirements and subjects as are prescribed by the Senate. The period allotted to study in each year shall be divided into terms, the opening and closing dates of which are in each case determined by the Senate.

Examinations and Graduation
All matters dealing with examinations and graduation shall be determined from time to time by the Senate, which shall cause the appropriate announcements to be published in the University Calendar.
5. GUIDING PRINCIPLES AND PROCEDURES OF SENATE

Senate Meetings
Senate operates in a default mode of openness and transparency, and the meetings are open to the public, except for designated in-camera (confidential) sessions. Senate meetings are normally held in Tomlinson Hall, McGreer 100.

By the decision of the Chair, Senate meetings may be held through audio/video conferencing.

In lieu of a meeting, Senate votes may exceptionally be taken by e-mail, if deemed required by the Chair of the Senate.

Senate Meeting Times
The Statutes do not provide guidance concerning the specific time and day of Senate meetings. However, at the 597th meeting of Senate on October 22, 2018, it was decided that the meetings would be held on Fridays at 2:30 p.m.

Senate normally holds meetings from September through May. The Senate meeting times for the upcoming academic year are brought to Senate for information in the Winter semester, and are included in the Senate Handbook.

Conduct of Meetings
Robert’s Rules of Order shall govern Senate procedures in all cases where they are applicable and where they are consistent with the rules outlined in this document: https://robertsrules.com/

Order of Business
The order of business at Senate meetings shall normally be as follows:
   1. Approval of Agenda
   2. Approval of Minutes
   3. Communications from the Chair
   4. Business Arising
   5. Committee Items (reports and discussion related to committees)
   6. Other Business / Recommendations
   7. Information Items

4 These guiding principles and procedures are advisory in nature, and they are based on prior decisions, recommendations and practice of Senate.
Call for Agenda Items
A call for agenda items will be issued at least twenty (20) days prior to a regularly scheduled meeting of Senate. The procedure for calling a special meeting of Senate is found in Section 4 of this Handbook. Complete details are available in the Statutes, Division I, section 5.8.

Submitting Items to the Agenda
Ideally, all discussion items, motions and other matters that a Senator wishes to have placed on the Senate agenda should be submitted to the Secretary General at least ten (10) days prior to the Senate meeting.

Proposed agenda items submitted after this date may be deferred by the Secretary of Senate to a subsequent meeting of Senate.

Issues for Discussions
Before bringing an issue to Senate for discussion, it is recommended that the Senator consult with the Chair of the relevant Senate sub-committee, if there is one. The Senate sub-committee may already be working on the issue in question.

Discussion items should be forwarded to the Secretary General in response to the Call for Items within the specified period. This ensures that time has been allocated for the discussion. It is a good idea to produce and circulate a written document that provides background information on the issue. The discussion at Senate will include if any action should be taken and suggestions for logical next steps.

Motions and Voting
Motions are how Senate makes decisions. Proposed motions and supporting materials should be in writing and, ideally, be provided to the Secretary General no later than ten (10) days prior to the Senate meeting at which the motion will be presented to ensure that Senators have sufficient time to read the documentation and to consult with the relevant constituency groups.

For Senate to consider a motion, a Senator must “move” or “propose” the motion, and another Senator must “second” the motion. When a motion has been moved and seconded the Chair opens the floor for debate. The Chair, or a Senator, may call for a vote on the motion. When a call for a vote has been made, the Chair asks Senators to indicate their support for the motion by voting: in favour, opposing or abstaining. The Secretary General tabulates the votes and informs the Chair of the results.
If there is a large majority in favour, the Secretary General may so inform the Chair, without a formal count. Members who wish their abstentions or oppositions to be recorded in the Minutes can so inform the Chair.

Sometimes a Senator may not agree with a motion that is introduced, but the Senator would be in favour of a modified form of the motion. In that case, the Senator may propose an “amendment” to the motion on the floor. The Senators who proposed and seconded the motion can accept or reject the amendment before the motion is put to a vote.

Distribution of Senate Documents

As specified at the 540th meeting of Senate on November 21, 2011, the objective is to distribute the agenda and all related documents at least five (5) days in advance of the meeting.

All Senate documents can be accessed by Senators on the Senate Portal under MyBU.

Senators are encouraged to review the documents and contact the author if they have comments or questions before the Senate meeting.

Senators may also contact the Secretary General prior to the meeting if they have comments or corrections to the Senate Minutes.

Senate Minutes

Approved Minutes of Senate may be accessed at: https://www.ubishops.ca/about-bu/bishops-university-leadership-and-vision/governance-and-administration/senate/senate-minutes/

The Minutes will be uploaded to the website as soon as possible after they have been approved by Senate and signed by the Secretary General and the Chair of the meeting.
