Happy is the man that findeth wisdom,
And the man that giveth understanding.
For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver,
And the gain therof than fine gold.

Proverbs iii, 13-17

This is the day I have been waiting for. All my life has been spent in preparation for it. Yesterday and tomorrow are both faraway nothings, the one a vague memory, the other a distant promise of things to come. But today is my day, it has everything that God has to give, and I'm a laggard or a coward if I fail to make the most of it.

our purpose, the Editor
The Staff of Quad '71 take great pleasure in dedicating this yearbook to Porter Victor Pierce, who has served the University faithfully for many years, and who will live in our hearts and memories for many years to come...

Thank you.
IN MEMORIUM

Pierre Laporte

"He only, in a general honest thought
And common good to all, made one of them.
His life was gentle, and the elements
So mix'd in him that nature might stand up
And say to all the world, 'This was a man!'"

To the Graduating Class

Bishop's is a university that has always attracted strong loyalties. As young alumni I hope that you will do as your elders have done and take a lively, continuing interest in its affairs.

In Canada, we are in the throes of evolution and change. What the country needs most is masses of educated men and women. You can help Bishop's by identifying first-rate candidates for admission, telling us who they are and how to get in touch with them.

I wish you success in all your endeavours and I hope that, as graduates of Bishop's, you will lead full, active lives, being constructive, making your views known and your presence felt, wherever you happen to be.

Fellow Students:

The long-awaited Quad is at last here! As Editor-in-Chief of Quad '71, I wish to thank both the students and faculty of Bishop's for their patience and their kind assistance in the making of this yearbook. I believe that you will find the wait justified.

I wish especially to thank all those on the Quad staff, who have given so unspARINGLY of their time and effort in making this yearbook possible.

Best wishes for a long and happy life.

Yours,

James T. CHRISTIE

1970 BISHOP’S GAITERS

The 1970 Gaiters Football Team only had three regular scheduled chances to proved that they were still a great team. The only real competition was from Sir George and Loyola. In the regular season game against Loyola, the inexperience and injuries showed through. However the strength of the Gaiters was proven in the league opener and the seeded playoff. Both were convincing victories.

It is expected and hoped that competition will be much greater next year. Barring an epidemic of Jockus Flunkitis, Gaiter football should hit a peak in 1971.

The first few weeks of the 1970-71 hockey season were not encouraging ones for Coach Al Grazys. There was little experience to rely on and most of the top talent was still involved in the scramble for football honors. The defense looked notoriously young with only Chris Barton, one of the aforesaid footballers, being a returner. It would not be overly conservative to estimate that very few Gaiters supporters were suscribing for tickets to the national championships.

Even when the ball players joined the bladed ranks, the picture was far from bright. However, it didn't take the squad very long to demonstrate that they were capable of turning in rather impressive performances. The first term tie with Loyola was climatic.

However, the Purples were up and down all year — pulling upsets, blowing sure bets. First All-Star goalie Alain Hebert kept the team in many games. Veterans Ron Perowne (also a First All-Star) and Erik Iverson also did their part to provide a sturdying influence. However, the Gaiters generally started to move as the going got rough. When Larry Smith was barging, when Gary Chown was destroying, when Steve Connor and Tim Manning were hitting, the Gaiters were winning.

Throughout the year, the Gaiters were plagued by injuries to key personnel such as Don Campbell, Charlie MacLean and Jay Hansen. However there was always a Jim Moysey or Eric Bagnall to jump from J.V. to fill a position commendably.

The season brought several pleasant surprises such as a new improved Ross Barrett, hard shooting Max MacLernon, scrappy Scotty Waugh and rushing Mike Bookalam. The biggest surprise was the improvement shown by Sandy Baptist who played steadily on defense.

It was a team effort and fine coaching that set the Gaiters into the playoffs. Even Terry "The Terror" Bradley left the "rooting ranks" to make a more concrete contribution.

Our prediction for next year — watch out Mr. Draper!

There was a day when the "Pit" was the hardest place in the Eastern Townships to get into on a Saturday afternoon. But then, there was a day when the Gaiter B-Ball squad came third in the Nationals. In the years following that peak, the attendance dropped proportionally with the quality of the team. It sorta looked like this year was going to be the most dismal ever. Then, the news of Peter Munzar's (perhaps the greatest Bish player ever) intended return and the desire of Barry Hall to join him got out. The commotion was enough to preserve and proliferate that almost extinct species — the Bish Basketball fan.

Despite the disappointing loss to MacDonald in the Semi-Finals, Garth Smith's squad had its best year since 1967-68. As was expected, the two individual standouts were Peter Munzar and David "Suitcase" Simpson. Bruce Stephenson, Jon Fjeld, Ron Harris, Steve Bourke and Ken Baker all saw regular action and turned in solid seasons. Bob Young, Lynn McKelvie, Keith Rorison and Brian Hutchins gained experience with the squad this year and should be ready to start in as regulars in the following season.

Next year, we will be minus Munzar and Harris, but rumours are starting to fly about incoming prospects. Who knows? We might even be able to pick up a few Americans from Loyola or a Bulgarian from McGill.

The Canadian Drama League Festival (CUDL) for 1970-71 was held here at Bishop's University from January 25-30. The contributing Universities were Bishop's, McGill, Victoria, McMaster, Carleton, and St. Paul's College, from the University of Manitoba.

Each University contributed one production to the Festival, with the exception of Bishop's, which produced two. The actual productions were supplemented by a showing of the film, Ned Kelly, and by seminars and workshops on costumes, stagecraft, acting, and dramaturgy, directed by Holly Armstrong, Bruce Retallack, Joseph Cstelyni, Gilles Couture, Allan Sheppard, Amelia Hall, John Wren, John Ripley and John Duglas. Some of the other events in the Festival included a poetry reading by Ralph Gustafson, and an evening with the Jest Society, and the presentation of a paper on Drama in the University by Arthur Motyer.

One of the most exciting parts of the Festival from the point of view of both the audience and participants was the experimental production directed by Guy Millisor. A casting circle was held the second day of the Festival, and the production was held the last day. Mr. Millisor chose to do, "The Lion in Winter" and the production was of the highest calibre ever seen at Bishop's.

The Universities and their plays were: McGill, Swansong; Victoria, Escurial; Bishop's, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead, and Convention; St. Paul's College, Die Lebenden und Die Toten; McMaster, I Didn't Promise You Anything; Carleton University, Gods.

Activities
In the spring of 1970, the Business Club dissolved and the students of the Business Administration Department formed an association, The Association of Administration Students of Bishop's University. With the drawing of a new constitution, aims and objectives were formulated.

These broad objectives include the following: to promote and protect the general interest of its members, and to broaden student interest in the field of Administration; to promote close student-faculty co-operation to encourage a strong working relationship between students of the Association and students from other disciplines as well as from other universities; to familiarize Canadian business with the interests, training, experience, and outlook of the student of Administration; to give any assistance possible to the placement of its members; to encourage a spirit of mutual co-operation among members on both the academic and social levels; to arrange special lectures and presentations for the Association and University; and to represent the Association at meetings of business organizations.

The Business Association is now playing an active role in CESAC, the Corporation of Business Administration and Commerce Students Limited. Eight Quebec universities, both English and French, make up its membership. Its primary function is to bridge the gap between commerce and administration students and the business world.
The Biology Club of Bishop’s University was formed to foster an interest in biological matters at the University. It is also a club where people with a common interest can have fun together. It is a club to improve faculty-student and student-student relationships. It is an activist club, involved with current issues and it is a social club sponsoring parties and field trips.

Ron SKELTON, President
The Bridge Club had an average year this year. With student interest in duplicate tournaments somewhat diminished from previous years, intramural competitions could not be held on a regular basis. Those held were enjoyed by all.

The bridge team that consisted of Peter Holland, Steve Bourke, Grant Murrison, and Paul Sigmundson, participated in the Canadian Intercollegiate Bridge Championships that were held at Brock University in St. Catherines, Ontario on the weekend of the fifth, sixth, and seventh of February. They played well.

The Bridge Club is looking forward to a better year next year.

Rod TILLEY,
President
The Campus again this year carried on strongly the torch of revolution, following in the footsteps of such illustrious past editors as prefer that their names not, today, be published. With pens dipped in vitriol and slime, causes were championed with such force that not a lawsuit stood.

Government orders could not stop this machine; even the War Measures Act had no effect.

Names of note were minister of information · Editor: Geoffrey Jones; faithful henchman Paul Trollope and Tony Sharp, Managing Editors; Photo Editor Russell Oughtred; Jim Sweeney, that Bernie Cornfield of Student Finance; Fiona Campbell covering the Arts scene; Carol Wiens on Dactylo; Science Slanderer, Bert Meyer; and a cast of thousands.

At the time of this writing no definite plans have been made as to the Deep Purples concert tours in the upcoming year. Tentatively scheduled is a tour to Montreal during which we will probably be singing at six or seven high schools as part of Bishop’s recruiting. We also hope to be doing concerts at the regional schools in the Eastern Townships. We will culminate our year with what I hope will be a tremendously successful home concert.

Car lovers who wish to test their machine and team work on demanding rally courses find satisfaction in the Autosport Club.

President Toby Fletcher and Treasurer Ron Harris organize rallies to test the navigating and driving skill of automobile enthusiasts. The club operates through charging a membership and low rally entrance fees. In return we offer discounts on automobile parts and accessories at Fowler’s Machine Shop and prizes for the top finishers in the rallies.

We have participated very successfully in interclub rallies. For example, this is the second consecutive year teams from Bishop’s have placed first and second in the Provincial CESAC Rally.

Most of the rallies are novice and almost anyone may enter and fare well. The Autosport Club is another facet of Bishop’s well-rounded extra-curricular activities.

The “New Mitre”, commonly referred to as the ‘lit. mag.’, is a student publication which tries to represent the creative efforts of both students and faculty, and also tries to widen the awareness of Canadian cultural activities. The magazine, which has been in existence since 1893, is erratically published twice a year. It includes poetry, short stories, plays, articles, interviews, art and photography.

The Staff includes an Editorial Board of Noni Howard, Lesley Hogan, John Scott, Karen Seay, Sue Stapells; and Advertising Board of Bob Barclay and Joyce-Anne Ormerod; a busy Business Manager, Norm Bayne; a solitary Sign-maker, Heather Goring; and Sales Manager, Bea Bennett and this game was ably led by Sheila Ascroft.

Last year Bishop’s Curling Team won the Mixed Inter-collegiate Bonspiel at MacDonald College, the male team won the second trophy in the Sherbrooke Bonspiel, and also the consolation event in another Bonspiel held in Sherbrooke. A poor showing was made, however, in the OSLAA last year in Three Rivers.

The executive for 1970-71 is:

President ................. Chris MOONEY
Vice-President ............ Ron BELDEN
Secretary .................. Pat LESLIE
Treasurer .................. Al BELL

We will be entering a male and a female team in playdowns competition to represent Quebec in the Canada Winter Games in Saskatoon, in February. Also one male team will play in the playdowns for the Provincial Junior Championship — second term. We will also enter some local bonspiels and the same inter-collegiate bonspiels as last year.

We have started intramural games on a multi-round round-robin basis. Each of the six teams have played two games, the teams being formed to be as even as is possible from the thirty members in the club this year.

General meetings of the members are held throughout the year and have been successful in keeping the group informed and cohesive.
The Geography Club combines in its activities both the social and academic functions. The purpose of the club is to provide various activities of interest to geographers and those interested in geography. Field trips, speakers and industrial tours represent the educational activities of the club. The club usually tries to organize one major field trip per year, with speakers and tours at the discretion of the members. The club is also a go-between for the faculty and students. Annually, it elects two students as representatives to attend department meetings and represent the geography students.

On the social side, the Geography Club has sponsored such activities as orienteering, hay rides, sleigh rides, broomball games, parties and dances. There is also an annual banquet which is the major club event of the year.

Although the membership is restricted to those who have taken at least one geography course, the club does stress enjoyment and fun in all of the activities, both social and geographical.

Membership to the Bishop’s University History Association which is open to all students of the university community, provides organization wherein all those interested in history may come together in a common interest. The aim of the association is to promote an interest in topics concerned with history and current affairs through presentation of speakers and forums. To encourage and maintain an exchange of constructive ideas with the faculty, four student representatives have been appointed to the Programme of History. Last but not least, the aim of the History Association is also to serve as the instrument whereby services are rendered to all history students.

This year, as in the past, the Overseas Student Association has tried to emphasize the inter-relationship between foreign students on campus. This was accomplished by means of social gatherings and whenever possible, by personal help given to new students arriving from abroad.

Several films were shown about life and culture in foreign countries such as Africa and Taiwan.
This year the Liberal Club has sponsored a series of seminars given by Bishop’s professors. These run under the general title of “Canada Today and Tomorrow”.

Further, the Liberals have taken the lead in organizing a political symposium in which all political organizations on this campus have been invited to participate. The topic of this symposium will be the same as that of the seminars.

Radio Bishop's came into existence around 1962. The Club at that time was known as the Radio Club and consisted of a few members and a room in the Student Union basement. Programmes at that time were recorded on tape and sent to CKTS to be aired. At that time "air-time" was approximately one hour per week.

With the passing of time, the Club grew and the quality of the shows improved with the increasing wealth of experience acquired. A telephone line (radio loop) hookup was made between CKTS and the Radio Club room in the Student's Union. This allowed the Radio Club to do shows live and thus heightened the feel of professional broadcasting.

In 1967 a second room was obtained in the Union basement. The room was subdivided into an announcer's studio and a technician's room. Into the announcer's studio went the microphones, a table and some chairs. Into the technician's room went a homemade console and all the Radio Club's equipment. The former room was promoted to office use.

Since the moving of equipment from one room to the other in 1967, many things have happened. For a start, the technical quality of our shows was greatly improved in 1969 by the installation of a solid state console. Up until that time the equipment being used was antiquated tube amplifiers which were forever giving one problem or another. With the installation of the broadcaster quality solid state console and broadcast quality turntables, we have been able to provide CKTS with a broadcast quality signal.

The club is no longer called the Radio Club but is called Radio Bishop's. The membership has increased steadily. For the year 1969-70 there were forty registered members. The number increased to sixty members for the year 1970-71.

But the most spectacular increase has been in the air-time given us by CKTS. For the year 1968-69 we had one and one-half hours airtime. This increased to three and three-quarter hours for the year 1969-70.
We thought that we were doing exceptionally well by having this amount of time but the big surprise was yet to come. For the year 1970-71 we were given twelve hours of airtime (twelve times as much airtime as when the club first started). To fill this airtime was quite a feat and required considerable work and coordination. But thanks to the many active members of Radio Bishop's all has gone smoothly.

But the function of Radio Bishop's is not solely broadcasting. Other activities include providing public address systems to banquets and music for events on campus.

Over the eight years the club has been in existence, Radio Bishop's has come a long way in almost every respect. This is especially true of airtime, membership, and quality productions. Future plans for Radio Bishop's include the installation of an "on campus" sound distribution system for providing music and campus news to all buildings and residences on campus. If finances permit, we may even be able to set up our own radio station. Who knows what the future holds?

Rifle Club

The season began with an introductory wine and cheese party to welcome back our members. The rest of the first term was devoted to instructing our thirty active members in the various aspects of safe and accurate target shooting. Plans for second term involve forming teams for intramural competition. We are also hosting the O.S.L.A.A. competition this year and plan to initiate a plan for a mixed match and sporting rifle competition in which the teams would be more evenly matched.

The year has started off well and we plan to end it off with a final party at the Sherbrooke Armoury.

Bob PERKINS, Competitions Chairman
Ski Club

The Ski Club is an elitist group at Bishop's, limiting membership to those who think snow. The executive holds secret, closed meetings each week in the Winter Term to decide which ski development of the Ski-East Area will be blessed by a boisterous and enthusiastic bus load of flake-maniacs.

This year by an unprecedented unanimous vote at a huge democratic rally, the executive was elected as follows:

- President and Decisive Leader .............. Toby FLETCHER
- Vice-President and Women's Lib. Rep. ..... Jennifer GIDDINGS
- Treasurer and Ex-convict ................. Steve KELEN
- Secretary and Conservative Element ...... Sue MURPHY
- Prime Member and Enthusiast .......... Barry SMITH

A tremendous versatile and talented group, the executive has sold Ski-Ami books to give keen skiers the chance for half price skiing. For the third year in a row forty incredible fun seeking fanatics will head to Sugar-Loaf to frolic, drink, bother and ski Maine to its knees!

Your Ski Club is great and provides weekend fun for all winter sports lovers.
The Social Service Club aims at reaching out beyond the campus of Bishop’s to the community at large in the interest of greater communication and wider experience.

The activities of the club are, due to its nature, potentially unlimited. Basic programmes, however, include about twenty volunteer nurses’ aides at the Sherbrooke Hospital, about forty students involved in elementary level special education classes, four students working at Dixville, a home for the retarded, and fifteen students taking part in a Big Brother - Big Sister tutoring programme at the Regional High School during noon hours.

Students spend one afternoon or morning per week working with emotionally disturbed children in the schools in an informal, friendly relationship; they may just talk to them, read a story, relate a new idea, but the possibilities are limitless. All the children have one common, overwhelming need: the need for love.

Basically we are people concerned about helping other people. This endeavour is its own reward.
The activities of the Sociology Association for 1970-71 have been centered around concern for the expansion of the discipline of Sociology at Bishop's. To demonstrate this concern, the Association had a political function, and interested members voiced our position somewhat successfully through various committees and to persons of authority.

Aside from this important role, the Association is hosting speakers, having 'get-togethers' and plans to take an active stand on issues of concern to the student body.

The Spectrum also goes under the title of Campus Koffee Shop and besides coffee also sells assorted peculiar teas, and soft drinks.

At the time of writing, the Spectrum consists of Room 4 in the Union basement, or to sound more glamorous, it is located beneath Bishop Mountain House. Its walls are black, with pictures painted on some of them—most famed being the one of Iris, goddess of the Spectrum. Reverend Rose’s work of art and Penny’s Poutyn are also attention-attracters.

From time to time people come to entertain anyone who wishes to be entertained. So far this year we have seen classical guitarist, Hugh Jackson; folk-singers Jim Corcoran, Rufus and Gary Power; famous rock group Freedom; folk group, Moments Time; and singer/guitarists Penny Smith and Bob Woolgar. Moments Time had the best turnout of all the musicians. Also popular was Noni Howard’s poetry reading.

The Spectrum has a fantastic executive of two and one-half. Manager, Elizabeth Pogue; Technical Director, Tim Cocks; and in times of need, Jim Sweeney puts in an appearance as Business Director.

What the Spectrum will look like at the end of the year is still anybody’s guess. Hopefully we will have a license to sell beer by spring. A committee is working on this. Please drop in and see for yourselves.

Is the Student's Executive Council of Bishop's a valid institution or not? This question has been asked time and time again by many students. During the past year the S.E.C. performed two real functions. It appointed people to serve on various committees and it allocated funds for various functions and clubs on campus. This, however, is not enough. The S.E.C. must do much more than this if it is to remain, or rather to become of value to the university community. Granted, the council functioned well mechanically, even excellently in the area of finances, thanks to the work of Mr. Hathiramani and Mr. O'Boyle, nevertheless the council failed to fulfil its most important task. It failed to adequately communicate with, and fully represent the students — to the administration, faculty, and to the outside world. This failure was due largely to internal difficulties on the council, and to the necessity for the clearing of a tremendous backlog of problems from past years. It is up to the new council then to move forward and to take up its proper position as the intermediary between the Students and the other elements concerning the university. To the new S.E.C. from the old — good luck. May you show that the S.E.C. does have a valid function, and that it is capable of fulfilling it.

I do not profess to know very much about football – nor am I an avid fan; nevertheless I bring you a report on the

TOILET BOWL GAME

On Saturday, January 30th, the Dewhurst Dingalings defeated the Norton Nuncios 60 – 57½ in Bishop’s First Annual Toilet Bowl Game. The main object of the game was to drink as much beer as possible – both to earn points and to keep warm. Half a point was given for each can or bottle consumed (the contents, not the cans).

The snow proved to be as thirsty as the players, however, even though a point was supposed to be taken off if any of the precious liquid was spilled. The second object of the game was to get a touchdown and the Dingalings surprised everyone by managing to accomplish this spectacular feat. The only penalty was to be a five yard penalty for "vomiting on an opposing player".

Gord Meyer, perched atop the Labatt 50 truck, was the announcer. He had to keep reminding players and spectators (about 30 of us) that there was a game on the field.

The game consisted of two short halves with a 10 minute break in between to enable the teams to add to the score. The Nuncios were very disappointing at losing the game, however Gord pacified them by telling them that without Dewhurst’s touchdown they would have won 57½ – 54, i.e. They are the champion drinkers.

One freshman blamed the loss on the fact that the Nuncios drink Molson.

Ab Echenberg was injured by a flying snowball and Norton’s designated import Tim Belford played for a few minutes. Dewhurst’s designated import was (of course) Sugar Bear. After the game everyone staggered up to the Pit to “cheer Loyola”!?

I came to university to broaden my knowledge. Anyone can "institutionally" educate oneself through books, but the fundamental stimulus of learning at Bishop's is people. Perhaps my textual knowledge is sadly lacking (for which I have only myself to blame), but, here, I found intellectual and social "friendships" through which I have learned more about myself. I'll always remember Bishop's as the most stimulating and meaningful "friend" I've ever had.

I have been asked to write a seventy word summary of my career at Bishop's. In my case, seventy words would not constitute a summary but rather a comprehensive autobiography. Suffice it then to say that I entered this university as a shy, frightened, timid, introverted short-haired freshman, while, today, a mere four years later, I am ready to go out into the world as a shy, frightened, timid, introverted long-haired senior.

University is a time for learning and a time for living. I would hope that I have done a little of both, not necessarily in equal proportions. It is also a time of experimentation not only in life styles but in general character formation. One can only hope that the end result will be beneficial in preparation for the future which awaits us all.

My career at Bishops has been quite diversified. For four years I have been pranked, hosed, and grossed out. I have become aware of the social evils that infiltrate and pervert the academic community. I have become an ardent admirer of Mickey Mouse. I have had to put up with the polemics of the Fez, the dramatics of Orrick, the preachings of the Rev. and the bad influence of Wright. If I'm lucky I'll be back next year for education.

By walking I found out where I was going.
By intensely hating, how to love.
By loving where and what to love.
By grieving, how to laugh from the belly.

From Hypocrisy, I weaved directions.

Almost I have the boldness to be that man.
Another step, and I shall be where I started from.

WHO SAID WE CANADIANS

WERE HEWERS OF WOOD?

Pulp and Paper is Canada's biggest industry. It hews a lot of wood, but it also works much finer. A long span of precise engineering and chemistry stretches between the forest and the pulp and paper products which are this country's most valuable exports. Engineering and chemistry are professions Canadians practice with high distinction. We design and make our own very refined tools as well. S. W. Hooper's Cowan centrifugal pulp screens are an excellent example. Not only are they now commonplace in Canadian mills - they contribute to a healthy trade balance for our country by going abroad in substantial numbers.

Where are the leaders?

Anyone will tell you that the Leaders are enjoying the advantages of military training and university subsidization through the Regular Officer Training Plan (ROTP).

If you are a full time male undergraduate student with a successful academic record you should know about the opportunities that the Canadian Armed Forces can offer you as an ROTP cadet. You will continue your civilian studies towards a degree at your University.

Enquiries are invited to:

It's hard to avoid us

Whatever the career you choose, in every part of Canada, you'll find the products of Canadian Ingersoll-Rand at work. Pumping liquids of all kinds, compressing air and other gases, drilling rock, aiding labor with power tools and materials handling hoists. And you'll find Ingersoll-Rand machinery throughout the pulp and paper industry. In fact, in every industry where big jobs are the usual thing. Research, design, manufacture and application are integrated at Canadian Ingersoll-Rand for one purpose: to build better products for industry. Quality and craftsmanship build reputation. That's why we're always on the lookout for above-average talent. But even if you don't work for Ingersoll-Rand, you'll probably find, wherever you are, that Ingersoll-Rand is working for you.
