EDITOR’S MESSAGE

A smile costs nothing, but gives much. It enriches those who receive it, without making poorer those who give. It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and it is nature’s best antidote for trouble . . .

So much for poetry, now some advice for those who really want to know what University is all about. It can be put in one word, and that is ‘growth’. If you come out of here the same way that you came in then you haven’t accomplished much.

To the QUAD staff start early and keep going. Remember that what you are doing is for the benefit of the whole student population. Good luck and work hard, it’s worth it.
Now that's entertainment

People are always getting carried away by the spirit of Orientation.

THE OUTSIDE INN

At the years outset, the Outside Inn, Bishop's coffee house, was in the throws of a violent struggle against Bishop's students apathy which threatened to overwhelm the humble organization. Manager Peter Kelly was presented with the impossible task of attracting a party oriented student population to a relaxing atmosphere of soft lights, live entertainment and cheap food. On a relatively low budget, Kelly met the situation.

During the first semester, a Bishop's talent night started the Outside Inn's schedule, and it was well received thus providing a false sense of security for those involved with the club. However, after dismal turnouts of as few as ten people for such entertainment as Bruce Jackson, Bruce Mann and Alex Bowie, manager Kelly elected to resign his position despite one successful show by Barry Beattie, a former Bishop's student. In addition, most of the Outside Inn volunteers were no longer available for work. Things could not have been darker, and the SEC was considering the possibility of closing the Outside Inn.

With only a few weeks left in the semester, Peter Melcher, a first year biology student, was ratified by the SEC and left with a somewhat war-torn organization. Quick action had to be taken to save the Outside Inn. Immediately, Peter acquired the services of Dominic Mammola as assistant manager and official artist. Plans were constructed to help reassemble the coffee house internally. During reorganization through the last few weeks of the first term, Bruce Jackson returned to play and another talent night was organized. Both nights a door prize of a case of beer was offered and attendance grew three fold instantly. There seemed to be a glimmer of hope.

Christmas vacation came and went, and the Students of Bishop's returned to a whole new look at the Outside Inn. Dominic has painted murals of his own abstract works of art, new lighting and sound equipment had been installed, and after a long hard struggle, a liquor license for beer had been obtained. The semester started with a performance by David Lapp and Bruce Jackson before the Inn's largest crowd of the year. Manager Melcher had gone out to the people, and they in turn had responded well. In gratitude, Peter imported Philo recording artists Lynn and Jay Ungar from the States on Feb. 17th. The attendance continued to grow and almost 80 people turned out for a night of knee slappin', toe tappin', down home bluegrass. The audience was so receptive that the first encore of the year was called for.

Bishop's had proved that it was ready for good entertainment, and the Outside Inn is now thriving. Still to come this year were Alan Fraser (Columbia records), Neil Rossi (Columbia records), the filde player for the David Bromberg Band on WANTED DEAD OR ALIVE, and Tom Akstens (Tamolko records), who recorded his own album TRADITIONAL AND ORIGINAL MUSIC. Next year the Outside Inn will have a bigger, new room in the new SUB wing, and with the talent Manager Melcher has provided for the rest of the year, it seems the Outside Inn has a most optimistic future. As a result, the Outside Inn has more volunteers to work than it can handle.

Special thanks to staff member: Dominic Mammola, Mark Ouimet, Donna Eddy, Louise Muhlfeld, Diane Mullins and Ted Moss.

The Bishop’s / Champlain Field Hockey Team known as the “Bobcats” ended the season in the Quebec Women’s Intermediate League in third place. In a total of 8 league games the girls won 2, tied 1, and lost 5. Marie Moliner and Sue Edwards were the team’s leading scorers while Debbie Haydock and Monique Lessard played well on the defensive line.

At the beginning of the season, goalie Sue Mitchell did a fantastic job in nets against a very strong Lyndon State squad. Unfortunately, a knee injury forced Sue out of competition for the remainder of the season.

Next season looks to be promising as former rookies Sue Taylor, Kathy Reese, Lou Irving, Monique Lessard, Sue Mitchell, Sue Edwards, and Françoise Pelletier will be returning as experienced team players.

OUR SOCCER SATANS

This year's soccer team provided much excitement for those enthusiastic fans who turned up to cheer us on. The Soccer Satans again were at the mercy of the big teams of Concordia and McGill this year, though solid wins were had at the expense of C.M.R. and various exhibition teams throughout the season.

The 76/77 Satans provided some well needed rookie talent in the form of forwards Gary Butler and Dave McLean, back - John Figg, and rookie goaltenders Greg Coulter and Tim Petty.

Injuries to Coulter and veteran forward and goalscorer Jim McMullan plagued the Satan’s chances for a divisional championship; though next year should prove to provide even greater excitement with an active recruiting program to acquire new talent initiated by the sports department.

Thanks must go to retiring players Alex Lee, Fernando Coronel, Willie Chan, past captain Malcolm Curtis and this year’s M.V.P. Aird Barwick for a job well done.

See you all next year
THINK SOCCER.
Tradition has it that Bishop's has always had an ambitious intramural sports program. This year was certainly no exception. While the varsity teams attract all the glamour it is here that your average jock gets a chance to wear some competitive sweat.

Complementing the championship teams featured below are the “Midnight Strokers”, Basketball; the “Dynamons F-C” for indoor soccer; Debbie Mullins and Warren McDougal for Monkey golf; and in broomball “Solo and the Hawdads” upset the favoured “Elmwood”. Louis Raymond again led the field in squash while in the co-ed intramurals the broomball championship went to the “Rowdies” for the second straight year, and lastly, the “ABC’s” won in inner tube water-polo.

Special thanks go to Carol Gregson, Ann Martin and Scott Stoughton for all their time and effort in making this yet again another great intramural year.

GAITER BASKETBALL 1976-77

One could say that the Basketball Gaiters had one of their most impressive seasons in recent years. Boasting a young squad with only one player leaving due to eligibility, the Gaiters posted an 18-17 overall record. The team was led by a flashy guard from New York city, Ron "magic" Thomas who with his exciting style of play brought out many fans which the team greatly appreciated. The basketball program is definitely on the upswing at Bishop's, the team and affiliated people are looking forward to a very intensive and successful 1977-78 season.

HOCKEY REPORT 76 - 77

This year's hockey Gaiters played a total of 30 games, finishing with a 10-19-1 record. In league play, the team placed third and went on to meet Three-Rivers in the semi-finals.

Once again it was a season of highlights and memories, the emergence of Ken Knowles as one of the league's top defensemen being among these, earning him a first team all-star berth. The arrival of some fine rookies such as Brian Korb, Ian Hunt, and John Pollabauer helped the team greatly and makes the future look promising.

Memories! The successful trip to Williamstown Mass? Ending up in a Drummondville marsh on our bus ride to Chicoutimi?

Once again Jimmy Moore handled the reins of the team ably assisted by Ron Perowne. Their dedication and knowledge helped mould the team into a respected squad throughout the league. Sincere thanks are in order for them and also to both our managers. The fans. Well once again they proved they were No. 1, showing up in great numbers and noises. Thank-you for your true support.

For some it's all over, for others just beginning. If the rest of your years are as fun as I think your first has been and if you learn as much as I did over the past years; then the memories and stories of Bishop's hockey teams will remain with you as they will with me . . . forever.

At the All-Canadian luncheon in Toronto this year Bruce Coulter received honorable mention for the "Coach of the Year Year" award. The speaker added, "You just ask Ottawa how tough the Gaiters are." This year's squad toughed its way to a 5-2 record and a second place finish, amassing a total offence of 3571 yards, the best in the league.

On defence Jamie Doyle intercepted 5 times, Marty Edwards grabbed three, Scott Hershey led the head hunting and David Allen earned a Star at Defensive end.

The kid from Chicago, Jimmy Pooler, led the offence with 8 majors. Gary Garbarino won his Star with 7, speedy Cliff and "Moose" got three apiece. Al McLean and Pete Sorenson spearheaded the line, Kevin Bennett led in receptions with 13.

Games to remember; we clobbered Carleton 61-14 at Homecoming, we tasted sweet revenge against Concordia in the final regular season game. 24-23. Who'll ever forget Wilkin's goal line fumble that kept it so exciting? Finally Dickie punished Bender and Emil demolished Leach but the Gee Gees squeezed the Championship from us 22-20.

Thanks for the band-aids Dale. Thanks Pete, Bob, Ron, Al, and especially Bruce for a year of pride, battle and comradeship.

GAITERS ON THE WARPATH
OUUU! AHHH!
Nobody will ever accuse the Bishop's sports fan of apathy. This year fan turnout was exceptional for all sports, especially the big three of basketball, hockey, and football. The fans were well served but so were the athletes, who were constantly cheered, applauded and encouraged by the faithful following, regardless of either score or performance.

Highlights: The bus trip to Ottawa for the playoff game, a game where, because of the fan support, our Gaiters were given the impression that they were playing a home game rather than an out of town contest. After our last second field goal attempt at victory fell short, our team was given a well-earned standing ovation.

Al Ansell performed Roger Doucet to perfection at the W.B. Scott arena, an arena other clubs would rather avoid. Peter Heavysege "sticks" set the tempo on drums while John Daughney, Steve Shaw and others were cheerleaders par excellence.

Finally, thanks should go to any and all of the Bishop's fans, student, staff and alumni.
Them Gaiters is just too tough.
The Bishop’s University Rugby Club posted a 3-3 won lost record in their initial season within the Quebec Rugby Union. The team opened the season with seven players who had never played rugby before. This inexperience was the contributing factor to our opening game loss to Macdonald College (12-0). However through hard work and valuable game experience the team was able to reach the stage where we could, and did, dispose of the long established McGill squad in a spirited season ending game.

The team was led by eight experienced players whose combined weight was similar to all the tonnage in the weight room. The forwards moved the ball well, controlled the play and devastated the opposition with their stunning tackles. The inexperienced backs soon shaped into an effective offensive and defensive unit blending to form a strong and balanced team.

The student transfer program was arranged to provide students with a different view of Canadian life. Two Bishop’s students going into their second year would be transferred to the University of Alberta in exchange for two of their students.

This year’s program was well received as Cindy McKinley and Susan Morrow provided some interesting insights into the life of the “westerner”.

This year's group has worked hard and long to mould this book, and appreciation is extended to all those who helped in any way.

We hope that this book will be a success yet know that doubtless it will be far from perfect. Errors and omissions will be ever present. Sorry for the advertising section. Luckily the Mitre has avoided such a burden, but such has not been our fate. Sorry if your picture does not appear, for were we to record every worthwhile event the book would run longer than the Nile. Yet we will feel satisfied if we know we have forever captured and contained a certain moment, memory or emotion. Life at Bish is a part of your roots and deserves to be recalled.

You will notice the obligatory headings, the various clubs, and graduation photos that hardly resemble yourselves or your friends (?). Pious scenes of a static life. It is up to you to make these both dynamic and relevant, the pages will not dance for you.
This year the Business Club has been very busy and was considered by all to be an excellent year.
Comments from the members who attended the field trips were most favourable. The committee, this year, went all out to ensure a good relationship with the companies involved.
The placement brochure for the Business graduating students was printed for the first time this year and sent to approximately 1500 companies. This was a pilot project which Mr. Terry Lane, placement officer, indicated had a promising future. Many of the difficulties experienced this year have been worked out so that next year's brochure should prove to be most valuable.
This year the graduation ball was held at the Le Baron Hotel, students were charged $25.00 per couple. Economic relief was provided for those willing to sell tickets.

Our goal was to up-grade the reputation of the Business Club and by doing this we hope that future students will think of the club as serving a dual purpose, that is information and recreation. Also by this up-grading we hope to establish a good rapport among the students and staff. We feel that our goal has been achieved.

In closing I would like to thank members of the committee who have worked closely with me throughout the year and also members of the graduating class whose help was invaluable. To show our gratitude to the staff the Club has donated a painting which is hanging in room 2 Nichols.
INTER VARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Bishop's and Champlain Christian Fellowship is a club composed of students of various denominations who actively profess the Christian faith, and who desire to share that faith with their fellow students. The members range from first year Champlain to those in the Graduate School of Education at Bishop's and include students from almost every faculty.

Our aim is summed up in the I.V.C.F. motto: “To know Christ and to make Him known.” This means that as believers in Jesus Christ we are trying to learn more about him, and to grow spiritually as followers. It also means that we are attempting to communicate to non-believers the truth of God's Word, and the reality of a personal relationship with Christ. We are convinced that Christianity is true and it makes sense of the world we live in: we are equally convinced of the inadequacy and shallowness of any world view or philosophy which rules out the living and true God.

The group held regular meetings every Tuesday in the St. Mark's Chapel where guest speakers would cover a variety of topics on the Christian faith. Other activities included retreats and the sponsoring of Dr. Stanford Reid.
The Bishop's/Champlain Foreign Students Association was founded in 1975-76. In its first year the Association's activities were mainly in the field of legal aid and "getting to know you" parties. This year the president, Alex Lee, brought an effective order to the role of the Association, with special guidance from Rev. Gilles Blouin as co-ordinator.

The 1976-77 year not only attracted more student participation, but also saw a greatly improved program come to life. Two of the larger events included a trip to Magog for a sugar party and the International Supper at the Dewhurst Dining Hall, where eight nations served their native food and wine. A pleasant time was had by all who attended.

In conclusion: I wish to thank the 1976-77 committee; the graduating president; Alex Lee; the vice-president; Matha Scanlon, and the treasurer; Lesiwne-Lyce Negussie, all of whom received the Foreign Students Association awards for their work. Last but not least, I wish to thank Rev. Gilles Blouin for his never ending support.

Patrick Tan
President 1977-78
Despite a plague of problems throughout this year, the Film Society has attempted to maintain the same high standards set last year. Unfortunately a high quality of 16mm film is very difficult to obtain due to the nature of other users of these films. The number of memberships bought this year and the level of attendance at most movies has been very encouraging and has enabled us to rent out the more recent and expensive films.

As president, I would like to thank all those that enabled the Society to function in a semblance of smoothness. In particular, I’d like to thank John and Renee, our two faithful projectionists, who laboured long hours in order to make films presentable; my beautiful accountant for her successful efforts in “straightening out the books,” and putting up with my bad moments; the house managers for being bigger than those who threatened me; and Karen Domaratzki for her assistance while I was getting acquainted with a position I had not anticipated taking this year.

Finally, I am grateful to all the faithful movie-goers who suppressed their groans and grumblings during the parts that got “cut out” and the movies that didn’t live up to expectations. If you thought this year was good, wait till next year.
SOCIAL CLUB

This club is not unique, there are many like it in universities all over the country. There is never any difficulty in finding members. This club features a variety of activities, some of which end up like what you see here (top center). Some other activities include intellectualizing (?) formal gatherings, outdoor activities of sorts and a general getting carried away with the spirit of the times!
The S.E.C. is the official student government body, as such it is comprised of the elected executive members (featured above), of the heads of the numerous clubs, and of students who undertake a variety of vital student responsibilities (newspaper, pub, senate representatives, etc.).

Its responsibilities can be summarized as the co-ordination of all student related activities.

Praise and thanks are owed to those members who more than successfully fulfilled their responsibilities, duties, and then some. Almost all of the bi-monthly meetings were well attended, interesting, and fruitful. The success of this year's various student undertakings can be attributed to this group.

Special thanks to Patricia Bray (President); Karen Domaratzki (Director of Finance); Anne MacTavish (V.P. of Internal Affairs); Malcolm Boyle (V.P. of External Affairs); Michael Gallagher (Academic Affairs).

BEGINNING
Twenty-five years ago when we sat as the class of '52 about to graduate from Bishop's, television had not appeared in the homes of most Canadians, man had not reached the moon and the "pill" had not been invented. Guitars, blue jeans and flower power were not significant cultural developments. The "Beatles" were still bugs, "Rolling Stones" were still pebbles and "The Bump" and "Hustle" occurred in crowds and not on dance floors.

Apart from these differences we graduated into an affluent society where jobs were easy to find, inflation was not in the popular vocabulary and relative peace was ruled throughout the world. Times were good but perhaps the challenge was not so great. You graduate when the very make up of this country is questioned, when the two founding cultures confront each other and when the economic problems challenge economists, academics and political leaders alike.

Two questions must be uppermost in your mind.

The first is why Canada and the second Why Quebec?

Canada is not simply a group of diverse people and lands joined together by a love of each other and a common goal of survival. Canada is not simply a legal structure to protect its people from encroachment by others and, particularly, from the United States. Canada is not simply an economic association of various religions held together out of necessity for reason of trade.

Canada is a country, which for 110 years has provided a home for those who wish to live in freedom. A country where richer provinces and people have helped those less fortunate; a country where above all two founding people have lived side by side benefitting and enjoying to a certain extent each other's language and culture.

... Canada without Quebec is a country with a large hole, geographically, psychologically, economically and spiritually. Canada without the French Canadian is a unilingual country without its distinctive characteristics of bilingualism and biculturalism. Canada without Quebec is not the Canada we have known or wish to know in the future.

There is great opportunity today for the English speaking people of Quebec. Canada can be saved or lost by what we say or do. ... We must fight to preserve our rights and the rights of all Quebeckers. ... But above all, this is the time not merely to oppose but to build the bridge that is swaying between the two great people of this province.

In closing may I wish you all good luck in whatever career you may choose to pursue. You have given your best to Bishop's. Bishop's has given its best to you. ... May you lead this troubled but great country to a unified and harmonious reincarnation.

- Excerpts from keynote address by Alex K. Paterson
May 28, 1977
A FRIEND

His heart is filled with compassion for all mankind
His grace on all does descend
His presence is a heartfelt security,
He is a friend.

He suffers the child’s hurt
With the aged he does not bend
His presence brings happiness
He is a friend.

He singles the lonely out of the crowd of life
He stays with us to the end
He fills a chasm in the heart
He is a friend.

-Ellsworth Adjokatse.
IL ME RESTE UN PAYS

Il me reste un pays à te dire
Il me reste un pays à nommer
Il est au tréfonds de toi
N'a ni président ni roi
Il ressemble au pays même
Que je cherche au cœur de moi
Voilà le pays que j'aime.

Il me reste un pays à prédire
Il me reste un pays à semer
Vaste et beau comme la mer
Avant d'être découvert
Puis ne tient pas plus de place
Qu'un brin d'herbe sous l'hiver
Voilà mon jeu et ma chasse

Il te reste un pays à connaître
Il te reste un pays à donner
C'est un pont que je construis
De ma nuit jusqu'à ta nuit
Pour traverser la rivière
Froide, obscure de l'ennui
Voilà le pays à faire

Il me reste un nuage à poursuivre
Il me reste vague à dompter
Homme, un jour tu sonneras
Cloches de ce pays-là
Sonnez femmes, joies it cuivres
C'est notre premier repas
Voilà le pays à vivre

Il nous reste un pays à surprendre
Il nous reste un pays à manger
Tous ces pays rassemblés
Feront l'homme champ de blé
Chacun sème sa seconde
Sous l'amour qu'il faut peler
Voilà le pays du monde
Il nous reste un pays à comprendre
Il nous reste un pays à changer

-Gilles Vigneault
Il nous reste un pays à connaître. Quand nous aurions bâti le plus beau pays du monde, il nous resterait encore d'apprendre à y vivre. Il nous resterait à découvrir le pays du fond de nous. Il nous resterait à apprendre les lois de la vie. Et sans doute ferions-nous l'amère constatation que ce qui se bâtit sans l'homme est inhumain. Car l'institution, de par la loi de sa propre gravité, tend à écraser l'homme. Par elle-même, elle est hiver qui fige et rivières qui divise. L'institution doit jaillir du meilleur de soi. Le pays à bâtir doit être à l'image du pays que l'on cherche au cœur de soi: sans frontières comme la mer et généreux comme un champ de blé. La loi de ce pays est liberté, car elle est vérité. Le pont lancé sur la rivières n'a de sens que s'il mène à l'autre, que s'il va de ma nuit à ta nuit pour hâter le jour. Quand les cloches se perdent dans le béton, il manque une musique essentielle: celle des pas qui convergent vers une même amitié. Quand le bitume devient envahissant, il est difficile de faire pousser le blé pour pétrir le pain de la rencontre. Tout est loi. Autrement le pont s'écroule et la maison s'effondre. Mais rien n'est humain, à moins de jaillir du tréfonds de soi.

Il me reste, il te reste, il nous reste... Quand l'individu aurait assuré son confort, il lui resterait à bâtir sa vie. Car la vie est je, tu et nous. La vie est pont sur l'ennui, repas que l'on partage, amour que l'on sème. La vie est communauté, et donc affrontement entre des lois qui cherchent un difficile équilibre. Loi du je qui tend à mettre le nous à son service, au risque de détruire son milieu vital. Loi du nous qui tend à étouffer le je, au risque de tarir sa source même. Il nous reste et il nous restera toujours à surprendre le pays de l'homme aux tournants de son histoire. A le comprendre, ce pays, pour mieux le changer, le prédire et le semer. Il nous reste surtout à le rassembler, pour qu'à force d'être lui-même, il soit le pays du monde. La loi des peuples est la même que celle des individus. Le nous doit jaillir du je, sous peine de l'écraser. Le je doit s'ouvrir sur le nous, sous peine de s'étioler. Ce pays n'est ni président ni roi. Il est le pays de ceux qui croient encore que l'on peut déchiffrer les nages du ciel et dompter les vagues de la mer. C'est le pays à prédire qui permet de semer le pays d'aujourd'hui.

THE WORLD IS A STAGE

What a field, oh what a world
The world is a stage.
The poor, the rich, the old, the young all trod,
Never but once to see it.

What many a role there are to play
Each in his own way striving,
Never ending, never despairing
Oh what a world! !

SWEAT THY BREAD

Toil, toil thou shall
From the sweat of thy toil thou shall eat.
For ordained it is
By the Lord thy creator.

When, oh when shall
It be that thou reap
Without thy tears?
But for thine ancestors
Thou shall manna forever have.

LOVE UNLIMITED

What is it, love?
It knows no bounds, it hears no voice
Unfolding its tenderness and strength
In many ways unknown,
To the parent, the child, the sick,
The poor, the rich, the oppressed.
To all love never faileth.

It is the one eternal, indestructible force for good
It is the refusal to see anything but good
in our fellow humans
It is the glory that comes with selflessness
It is the quiet in the midst of turmoil.

-Ellsworth Adjokatse.
