We wish to sing high praises
Of a very special Dean,
A man for all the students
Who has never been mean.

We wish that we had owned him
But we only had a lease,
On the very varied services
Of our Dean "Cece".

He always helped a student
Who was looking for a friend,
And with the students at the pub
His elbow he would bend.

He never told a student
I can only see you later,
He is a strong supporter
Of every living Gaitor.

And if your marks were borderline
And the Senate turned you down,
The Dean would always go to bat
To get your cap and gown.

He's an expert on cow's urine
Horses and manure,
There's no academic problem
That our Dean cannot cure.

So we thank him for his interest
Spirit, help and fun,
Deans may come and Deans may go
But for us you're number one.

We would like to dedicate "Quad 78" to "Doc Haver". Dr. C.B. Haver is leaving Bishop's University after six years of active contribution to life at Bishop's. His home and office were always open to anyone who needed advice, assistance or just a friendly smile. We thank him for helping to maintain the close relationship between faculty and students, both socially and academically. Doc Haver will live in our hearts and memories for many years to come. We wish you, Dr. Haver, the best of luck in all future endeavors.

Principal’s Message

Jasper Nicolls, Bishop’s first principal, brought with him from his alma mater, the University of Oxford, an idea of education which gave people precedence over subject-matter. On this premise, “Who is your professor?” is a more important question than “What subjects are you studying?”; and “What have you learned from your friends?” is a better test of quality of the education you have had from Bishop’s than “How many hours have you spent in the library?”

We have striven to preserve this order of precedence at Bishop’s. If we have succeeded, then the staff of QUAD, in compiling for you a book of faces, has provided you with ready access to the most important things you have learned at Bishop’s. I thank them on your behalf; and I wish you all good luck and challenging careers.

C. J. W. Nicolls.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Sometime back in October we, that is Elaine and I, found out to our dismay that no one was doing the yearbook this year. Although we both had minimal experience in doing something of this nature, we realized that if someone didn't volunteer soon there would be no yearbook to remember our graduating year. Therefore, we took it upon ourselves to be the co-editors of Quad '78 - needless to say we had absolutely no idea of what we were getting ourselves into!

Thanks go out to all the Quad staffers, without whose constant enthusiasm and patience this book would not have been possible. We would also like to wish all our fellow graduates the best of luck in the future... and extend a final thanks to everyone at Bishop's for making our years here the kind that will be remembered always.

Coach of the Year - Bruce Coulter
MVP Omega Award - Bruce Wilkins
This year’s football squad was another successful group of athletes assembled by coach Bruce Coulter. This team came so very close to winning both the league championship as well as the final playoff. But fate was once again against Bishop’s.

The Gaiters had one member in this year’s prestigious All-Canadian team in the position of starting running back, Bruce “Moose” Wilkins. Bruce will be leaving this year in hopes of a professional career with the Ottawa Roughriders. Best of luck to him.

The Gaiters placed five members on the OQIFC Eastern division All-Stars. They were quarterback Jim “The Franchise” Etcheverry, center Dickie “The Wall” Doucette, fullback Bruce “Moose” Wilkins, tackle Harry “The Ham” Webster, and wide receiver Kevin “Benito” Bennett.

All in all the Gaiters had a very successful year. They led the country in scoring, they also led the nation in yards per game. This says quite a bit for Coach Coulter’s potent offense who, incidentally, was chosen as coach of the year.

We would like to thank all the undying fans who supported us this year through thick and thin. Through their spirit and following, the Gaiters enjoyed playing the game.

Special thanks go to Coach Coulter for his confidence in the boys, Ron Perowne for the endless hours of preparation for every game, Al Grazys for his enthusiasm, Wally Barrow for his spirit and encouragement, and Jamie Doyle for his time and efforts which developed some of the better specialty teams we’ve had.

We wish the best to those players who will be leaving this year. They are Kevin Scott, Scott Hersey, Dave Allen, Steve Davis, Bruce Wilkins, Dickie Doucette, Lenny Pinsky, Peter Marchuck, John Atkins, Emil Hatz, Stuart MacTavish, Doug Young, Steve Etcheverry, Joey DiGiantomasso, and Warren Miller.

This year began, way back in September, on a note of high optimism. For the first time in many years there was some genuine competition for a spot on the Gaitor's roster. The goaltending woes which had plagued Bishop's since the departure of Alain Hebert appeared answered with the arrival of eight respectable "goalers" at training camp.

It seemed to be a year of renewal not only in terms of players, but in terms of personnel. Ron Perowne took over the reins as "head coach" bringing with him a staff comprised of "Wally" Barrow, Jimmy Moore, Eric Iverson and Gordie Glass—all of them well versed in the finer points of the game. Surely this would be the year the Gaiters would prove themselves.

Unfortunately our optimism quickly turned to disillusionment as time and again we seemed unable to put together three solid periods of hockey. However, a Christmas tournament against St. Mary's and Brandon acted as a turning point for our entire season. The idea of spending the Christmas Vacation in Lennoxville was greeted by the players with little or no enthusiasm. Yet ironically it was during this period that the efforts of Ron, Jimmy, and Wally finally began to take shape. No we did not go on to win the league title, nor did we upset anyone in the playoffs. What we did do was establish a team in the true sense of the word and it is of this that Ron Perowne should be most proud. Never before have I played on a team where there was such a large transformation from the beginning of the season to the end; not in the "won-lost" column but in terms of the personalities which made up the team. From Huntley to Armstrong each character surfaced. Each personality was unique and this is what a team is all about. For Ron Perowne this had to be his greatest victory.

Secondly, I think Kenny Knowles and André Paradis deserve special mention as both made the first all-star team in the Q.U.A.A. With the return of these "all-stars", Ron will have a solid nucleus with which to work next year.

To the graduating players: Peter Marchuk, Tom Moser, Don Demers, Rocket Robin Andrew and Dave Perras, I hope you have all benefitted from your experience under Jimmy Moore and Ron Perowne and from those with whom you have played. Each of you deserves individual mention but space makes this impossible. However you all know the contribution you made while playing and I'm sure in the years to come the heroics you performed while playing here will be told again and again. Thank-you for a great season.

1977-1978 POLAR BEARS

The Polar Bears had a fairly successful season even though it was our first year playing in a highly competitive league. This year’s turnout for tryouts was more encouraging than that of previous years for there were about forty enthusiastic women wishing to secure a position of the team.

We started out slowly, but we improved and gained experience as time progressed. We only played one league and five exhibition games during the first semester and thus had almost all our league games the second part of the season.

The Polar Bears had what one may describe as an “up and down” year. At times the team jelled together to the extent that stunning victories took place, yet other times, games against the same team were lost by a large margin.

The highlights of our season were two games against Concordia. One was when we tied them while playing on their home ice after previously losing to them three days earlier and the other was when we beat them during the third period of sudden death overtime of a playoff game.

Even though we didn’t make it to the finals, we gave it our best and that’s truly a sign of a winning team.

The Polar Bears came a long way this season and although our record was not too impressive (5-10-2), we proved that our team could compete on an equal footing with the other Montreal teams.

The leading scorer of the team was Liz Symons with fourteen goals and six assists while Laurie Schoolcraft had the most assists with twelve and six goals. The best goalie average was that of Annabelle Manning which was 3.15. The MVP award went to Liz Symons while Rookie of the Year was given to Laurie Schoolcraft.

On behalf of the team, I would like to extend our deepest appreciation to our head coach, Al Ansell and his assistants, Jin Cleghorn and Grant Sherriffs for their time, patience and excellent coaching which they devoted to our team.

B.U. VARSITY SOCCER

The Bishop's University Soccer Team had a remarkable season considering rather adverse circumstances. The team played virtually the entire season without a coach and in predominantly wet weather which hampered their system of play. Early success came at the Lyndon Invitational Tournament where the soccer Gaiters placed second. Later in the season Bishop's became the first and only team to score three goals against national champion Concordia Stingers.

BISHOP’S-CHAMPLAIN WOMEN’S SOCCER

There is as yet no official league for women’s soccer but the team played nine games against a variety of opponents. The other teams consisted of the University of Vermont, Middlebury College, Alexander Galt Regional, Bishop’s College School, Castleton State College, and Brown University.

We practiced weekdays during the season, often finishing practice in the puddles provided by the seemingly constant rain. Precipitation or not, the practices enabled us to finish our season undefeated, tying only once against the University of Vermont.

To finish off our season, we were invited to participate in the Castleton State Tournament. Upon our arrival, we were warned that the only reason Brown University was attending was to beat “those Canadian girls”! We went to the field with the intention of playing our best. By defeating Middlebury College 3-1, we advanced to the finals against Brown University, and with a super display of teamwork won the game 3-1 and captured the championship for the second consecutive year.

We wish to express our thanks to Wendy, who managed the team along with playing, and to coach Karen Bryan, whose time, patience and humor were greatly appreciated.
BOTTOM ROW, Left to Right: Donavon McKenzie, Wayne Hussey, Mike Hines, Pete Jones, Dave Thornhill.

ABSENT: Trevor Bennett, Dale Butterwick, Therapist.
MEN'S BASKETBALL

This year's version of the Gaiter men's basketball team was probably the finest group ever to play for Bishop's University. During the exhibition schedule the Gaiters managed to post a 10-6 record which included a pair of wins in the Bishop's invitational to win their own tournament. Turning to the regular season, they were undefeated in league play, and proceed to be far and above the best team in the Quebec loop. While racking up an overall record of 27-7, the Gaiters were plagued with injuries, it seemed that at least one of the starters was injured for all their games.

In playoff action, the final, best of three series against Concordia was forced to go the maximum of three games as Concordia took the opener 84-73. The Gaiters played up to their potential the next two games and were crowned Q.U.A.A. champions, and won the right to represent Quebec at the national championships in Halifax.

It was to be Bishop's first visit to the nationals in 11 years! In their first game they faced tough opponents in No. 2 nationally ranked York University from Toronto. Although they lost 74-64, it was a game where the final score did not represent the closeness of the game. With only four minutes to go we were down only 4 points and the game could go either way, unfortunately for us it went the wrong way.

On behalf of the players and coaching staff, I would like to thank our fans again this year. Through our travels we have found you to be not only the best in Quebec but among the best in the nation...Thanks.
BISHOP'S GAITERETTES '77-'78

Determination, desire, dedication, and a darn good coach set the scene for the compact gaiters basketball team to clinch the consolation title over arch-rival U.N.B. at the 1978 National Championships. With more heart than might or height, and some skill to boot, the eight player Bishop’s contingent opened a number of eyes as they came off the regular season with an unblemished record and an impressive 30 and 4 overall record. But with a coach who knows his stuff and the occasional post-game feasts at the Smith’s, the Coulter’s, and the Butterwick’s, how could they lose?

Who would have thought that with only one six-footer, Cathy (Gurk) McGurk, guards Diane (Moon) Mullins, Debbie (Hube) Huband, and Linda (Mac) Macpherson, forwards Inger (Ping) Breida, Diane (Murf) Murphy, Lisa (Ding) Dingard, and Helen (McAlls) McAuley, this eight women squad would make it to the nationals to return with 2 win, 1 loss record. Falling to defeat in the first round at the hands of the first ranked Victoria Vikettes, they went on to beat home crowd favorite Calgary Dinnettes and U.N.B. Red Bloomers. Thanx goes to all who helped put B.U. women’s basketball in the books.
B.U. SKI TEAM

All things considered, the 1978 ski season can be described as a successful one for the Bishop’s ski team. In the end result, our girls dominated both the team and individual standings. Joan Wilson provided the school with some of the best racing ever seen, winning every event including a first place finish in overall points. Sandra Bonnell, one of team’s coaches, was not far behind finishing in the top three consistently. Newcomers, Judy Kurlander, Wendy Ross, and Joanne Villeneuve, all finished in good standing.

The men’s team, although lacking the consistency shown by the girls, enjoyed a relatively good season, finishing very respectably in third place. Individually, coach Peter Larlee’s consistent hard training was paid off in the end when he captured first place in the overall standings. Micheal Gagnon, competing for the first time, proved to be a pleasant surprise as he finished second in the overall standings. It should be mentioned also, that veteran skiers Paul Davidson, Daniel Mcskimming and Gavin Ivory all showed a marked improvement this year.
Although the Rugby Club had problems playing up to the caliber expected of it this year the spirit and participation of the members made the season a truly enjoyable one for all concerned. The impressed caliber of the league coupled with our inability to score and frequent mental errors were the major reasons for our winless season.

On the field the team was led by the performance of veterans Wendell Beauvais, Steve Jarvis, Scott Stoughton, and Mark Medland, along with the play of a promising group of rookies. Off the field, who can forget the past-game socials with the Concordia University boys, the antics of Messieurs Medland, Salvas, and MacTavish as chez Provencher, Scotty Stoughton’s drinking powers at the Lion and Mike Fisher’s cordial behavior towards referees.

Despite the loss of a number of veterans, this year’s talented crop of rookies and the increasing size of our membership bade well for the continued success of the club both athletically and socially.

FIELD HOCKEY

This year’s Bishop’s-Champlain Women’s Field Hockey team comprised itself of a number of new players who all showed vast potential. Enthusiastic veterans added to the team’s spirit.

In comparison to the past two seasons of play, this year’s team concluded their season with a much improved statistical record. A win-loss record of 6-9-2 surely indicates that no one player needs to be ashamed of her performance.

Let me not be the marriage of true minds Admit impediments. Love is not love,
Which alters when it alternation finds,
Or bend with the remover to remove.
O, no! It is an ever fixed mark,
That looks on tempests and is never shaken;
It is the star to every wand’ring bark,
Whose worth is unknown, although his height betaken.
Love’s not time’s fool, though rosy lips and cheeks
Within his bending sickle’s compass come;
Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks,
But bears it over even to the edge of doom.
If this be error, and upon me prov’d,
I never writ, nor no man ever lov’d.

Shakespeare
With age comes wisdom.
MY LITTLE TOWN

Slumped in the park, eyes ablaze, staring
Through the sun, mimicking crucifix
All were there, jellied inside the moon of grass
Cars humming past. Bikes purring by; Adam’s Rib clutching onto Satan’s back at ninety.
Protegés of Van-the-man evident, all conversation
Slurred and slow, Chit-chat of Don-Juan, California, Wildwood, and Europe.
Jimi’s left hand apparent as (Mahogany) Rush came out of town;
Marino, the next one who became on an Acid voyage, slurping cokes. Finding his Head in the tree above; taking it with Him on an excursion through A three-dimensional life
Into a cosmic semblence of reality
Who’s there? Brahman, Zen, God and Jonathan Livingston Seagull. Oh, Jimi, Mahogany, whatever Happened to the folk-mass? Where’s Father Joe? Wolfman Jack?
Walking to a stinger; snorting, chocking, Coughing, spitting before a piss. Time for class, Philosophy of life. Living?
Man, I’m living; learning to the groove of Sabbath and Purple. Elementary to study with some window-panes in me, blotters
Are a necessary part of a student’s book-bag
An ounce, a gram, don’t rip me off man...
It’s only physics!
In the caf, blowing, chewing, smirking, picking, screwing, choosing. I got to get out of here, find my head.
I want freedom, I want to create,
Innovate!
Don’t be redundant, hold on.
Secondary kids turn drugs to theology. Religion is a new Haven; shave your head, head to California. Jesus walking the shores, head Out on the waters, smoke on the water; Hands
Clutching downwards to heaven.
Religion is a new high, take it when you’re Down to get up, up to get down.
No more Georgia Strait, Rolling Stone.
Bhagavad-Gita, Koran, Angas, and the Bible open Up new paths. But then, what becomes when Two roads diverge in a yellow wood?

John Heffernan

ANOTHER DAY'S THOUGHTS

If you traveled the whole world over;
Met each and every person;
You would probably find,
That you hadn't moved
At all,
That the river drifted down,
The highways, paths, & fields
You trudged over,
The universe you struggled to cross, are within yourself and only led you further back into the darkness and depth of your own soul & mind.

REFLECTIONS ON A LONELY NIGHT

People blend into the moments of the changing seasons and with the uncertainty of day to night and night to day, our hour will befall us.

Nancy Lower

SILENCE IS GOLDEN

Just for a moment, I pause to watch the scenes of a lovely still day.
In the sun, out on a lawn,
People move; running footsteps with no sound
Speaking lives that brave no voice.
Highway traffic is a murmur and flash of colour, nothing else.
The river flows in blue serenity, Lithe and silent, like a snake with shimmering scales, and above, there is the sky,
Blue and cloudless,
waiting patiently,
for the world to bid me
a silent good-bye.

STREET LAMP BLUES

It's just passes Friday night,
Freezing rain clinging to the fence,
Broken, standing drunkenly; a pale white Puddle, streaming, paralyzing; a tense
Smile blowing bubbles into beer glass;
Cigarettes twirling and smoke whirling with a tune,
Playing, strumming, blades of grass;
Lying, dying, in the street, the street lamp
street lamp blues.

John Olsthoorn
SKIDROW

If I was a stranger lying naked in a manger would you cry at my poverty and settle down to comfort me or would you walk away in ignorance leave your blessing and two cents while I chew away at my straw bed in just another day I might be dead

Are you proud to know I’m your brother your wife she was my lover your life is my memory that time has left an eternity

and as you watch me shiver don’t forget that time will deliver to you with all the pomp and glitter of a star-gazing impassive fence-sitter

A bed of straw in a manger where you’ll be considered just a stranger weeping at your poverty praying someone will set you free.

Michael Goodhue

SOLITAIRE

Why does this little old lady sit in her room week after week with her television and her crocheted afghan, ocasionally sauntering over to the window only to close it and shut out the noise
the children make,
keeping the shutters closed so she can’t see the children playing,
Watching “A Touch of Grace”
on the telly, sitting in her rocking chair by the side table asking “Anyone for a game of solitaire?”
as time devours her through the locked doors?

Julie Bradshaw

WILL I EVER BE SURE

We’re just an illusion of things that we’re not,
We all play the game and try not to get caught.
It’s hard to play when you don’t know the rules.
The others, they class you with all the fools.

I stopped trying to be who I wanted to be,
I looked into myself, I feel more like me.
I’ve lived a long life, it was mostly alone,
I’m a stranger for this, though I still live unknown.

I’ll see for myself, I don’t care what you say
I don’t want to lose, there must be a way.
I’m weary and tired, too long have I fought,
For I, too, play the game and try not to get caught.

Ron Brooks
INDIAN

You are proud, aren't you, A Standing Cow?
Majestic, in your 19.95 Hudson Bay blanket.
Your horse a living replica of a barbershop kiddies' stool
Your Adidas running-shoes make you swift of foot
And your beads purchased at the local commune do you justice.
But you have been great, fought tenaciously;
Lived and died nine lives; seen your people Crushed and trampled on.
Now you are a conqueror, lord of the ring
You are a professional wrestler.

John Heffernan

CONSCIOUSNESS OF YOU

I lay there conscious of time-
Of the joyous moment-
And I selfishly called it mine.

Nancy Lower

Heaven knows we need never be ashamed of our tears, for they are rain upon the blinding dust of earth, overlaying our hard hearts.

I sat on a wooden chair
contemplating the empty seats that sat before me and pondering whether or not I should write beyond my own mark that I put down on paper.

I sat on a wooden chair
pondering the facts or artifacts of the antifacts and wondered if it is all worth it, or not? I looked away from my paper and saw the empty seats, maybe five or six hundred,
heard the harmonica played a Dylan tune, turned away from the empty seats, stood up and faced my own feelings and shouted
"why can't you see"
three times, heard the echo, shook for a bit and cried for a spell and walked into the wilderness, not to return until I was hungry.

John Olsthoorn
FRIENDS

You're the light of my soul,
a gentle summer breeze,
You are the morning sunshine that wipes away my pain.
You are the one that I thought I'd never find again
and I thank you.
For all we have shared.

A smile can say I love you or just that I care.
You brought sunshine into my life
Just knowing you were there, just knowing that you cared
and I thank you for just being there.

Next year, new tomorrows,
we know not what they'll bring.
It's hard to say good-bye to the friends I've known so well.
Remember me when I am gone
'cause I will remember you and I will thank you for you are beautiful to me.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS
Intervarsity

Christian Fellowship

Intervarsity Christian Fellowship is a group of individual Christians who have discovered each other on campus. At Bishop's, we meet each Tuesday to share our experiences in our walk with Christ, to sing praises to Jesus Christ and to collectively talk to our heavenly Father. We learn that we must accept and forgive others, both Christians and those who are not, as Christ has forgiven and accepted us. It is here that many students have found the qualities of genuine acceptance, active forgiveness and life changing love in Jesus Christ.

Times of fellowship allowed us to encourage one another and build each other up. This was especially true of the weekend retreat held in January with guest speaker, Don Lewis. Other group activities during the year included a Barbeque, poster party, and sugaring off.

Truly it is good when brothers and sisters in Christ stand together. Be joyful always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. (I Thessalonians 5:16-18)
This year the Business Club was well supported by both the students and the faculty. Its activities included the ever-popular wine and cheese parties (one per term) along with two field trips, one to Seagram’s/Secrestat in Montreal and one to Dominion Textiles in Magog. The activities ended this year with a student cry of “We’re No. 1!” after their overwhelming victory against the faculty broomball team. We wish the profs better luck next year...

Film Society

This year has been one of the Society’s most successful and I would like to thank all those people who helped make it that way. As more people attend the movies, the better movies we can show, and this year gave us the opportunity to show some very good films. The Film Society would like to thank all those people that managed to remain unruffled through the bad shows, and those who provided constructive criticism even through the good films.

To my successor, Greg Coulter, I wish the best of luck and to Rene and John I would like to pass on a very warm thanks for their assistance and patience.

Geographical Society

A good year for B.U.G.S.! A few new ideas were tried this year to add a bit of variety to club activities. The club kick-off was, of course, the Mt. Washington (N.H.) hike, which took place on Sunday, September 25. In mild weather, most of the participants made it up the various trails to the summit (6200 ft.). The new activities included a party at the Sherbrooke Hussars Armory and a cheese fondue party well attended by members and The Geography faculty. Oh yes, the Geography club beat the Biology club in hockey!

A. D. R.'s of '77/78

Back in August began this group
Time will prove it was a coup

Sweet and innocent, they're quite the lot
To all occasions gave it what they got

Always there for the call Solving problems big and small Tumbling blindly down the hall

This really was a lovely bunch
Of them, people only had a hunch

Their leadership was under the Cape
From which they are all glad to escape

Yes, the year it came and went
But the past is never spent

Each one deserves a star
Buy them drinks at the bar

Now at the end of the storm
Still standing is the dorm

Doio Kun Karate Club

The Doio Kun Karate Club was founded in September, 1974, and has had a strong affiliation with the Japan Karate Association. Over one hundred world-wide recognized ranks have been awarded to its hard-working members. The club now boasts a well-endowed treasury and the first university Karate team in Canada.

In November, the captain of the team placed fourth in the U.S. Nationals held in Minneapolis, and in December we defeated the well-established team of Plattsburg State University. Not forgetting our occasional parties...!

Bishop’s University Biology Club

The Bishop’s University Biology Club was formed to foster an interest in biological matters at the University. This year was quite hectic and mainly revolved around building a new foundation on which to stand. Some of the accomplishments this year were book sales, parties, having t-shirts made, and a nature hike.

Next year the Biology Club plans on holding more outings and field trips to stir members participation. I would like to thank all the members for making it a good year all around, and especially Fred Raess for his patience and moss collection.

President
Radio Bishop's objective is to provide members with the basics of radio broadcasting with a library of some 1200 LP's and 6000 45's. As well as broadcast quality equipment, the station allows everyone a chance to improve his technical and musical knowledge.

Radio Bishop's in the past has broadcast over CKTS 90. We have now discontinued our association because of poor air time and general lack of interest among the members. The station must now expand on campus with hopes of obtaining a license and transmitter in the near future.

Shows involve a person announcing and another to handle the technical side. When one obtains sufficient experience, he may run the whole show himself. Membership is open to all Bishop's and Champlain students; the club being jointly financed.
The Food Committee

The Food Committee consists of student residence representatives, Blair Capes, and the manager of our own dining hall, Gary Buchanan.

The services of this Committee are to provide a voice for the students living in residence who deem it necessary to complain, compliment, or offer helpful hints as to how the food service and quality can be improved.

The “Dewhurst” Smile of Satisfaction!
The Bishop's/Champlain Ski Club, which was under the guidance of President Paul V. Davison and V.P. Jud "Mud" Mattin, was very successful this year. There were day ski trips to Jay Peak; Burke Mountain, Owl's Head, etc., as well as weekend trips—one to Knowlton and the other to Smuggler's Notch. There were over one hundred members in the club this year, and the same is hoped for next year.

For the '78-'79 ski season, Gilles Haimel will be the new club president. Those wishing further information can contact him at box 904.

BISHOP'S UNIVERSITY

There is an old stereotype in the newspaper business that depicts newspaper people as rumpled souls in seedy trench-coats and wide brimmed hats that lurk beneath fog shrouded street lamp posts with a camera in one hand and a note book in the other as they await their next "scoop". While we don't have anyone answering to that description on the staff this year, our intrepid Campus reporters exhibited the same spirit and a nose for news (or sports or features or whatever) that could rival the best Woodward and Bernstein type combo.

After moving into more spacious quarters on the first floor of the Students' Centre and away from our former basement office - known affectionately as the "Pit" - and the family of mice that inhabited it, the newspaper began a progressive year which we feel added one more base of experience to build on for the paper that has turned out staffers that went on to greater glory's at such institutions as the Gazette, the Montreal Star, and the Sherbrooke Record.

Over 20 new keen staffers greeted co-editors Nelson Wyatt and Pat Tracy at the first meeting of the Campus for 1977-78. These people formed the nucleus of the team that would turn out such a diverse collection of articles ranging from personality profiles on visiting speakers, a look at life on the other side of the tracks at the Université de Sherbrooke, and perhaps our biggest scoop, Carolyn Rowell's revelations of the lack of investigation by local police into several attacks on a number of Bishop's female students.

The New office space was an obvious boon to the tabloid's operation. Established in the former S.E.C. office, the paper acquired the use of a large central newsroom and production area, an office for the co-editors-in-chief and another room used for the editing of stories, a place for the business manager to store her files and for a variety of other uses. It was however, dubbed "Bill Anderson of The Campus Office" in honour of our oldest Campus scribe especially after he and some of the other Campus people got hold of the Letraset and embazoned the outer door with his name.

The first attempt at a staff weekend was also held to follow up on newswriting and layout seminars that were given at the beginning of the year. These two days, spent out in the wilds of Island Brook, featured seminars on business management in the Campus, newswriting and layout, some aspects of Canadian University Press, the national student newsgathering cooperative that Campus is affiliated with, and attempts at preparing chili.

Though one could go on and on about the proverbial good times had by all despite the frequent late hour production nights, hairtaring at deadline time and the age old problem of "At last we finished last week's issue. Now what will we put in next week's? ", it would suffice to say that 1977-78 was a successful year for the Campus. This, of course, is thanks to the great staff we had this year, whose esprit de corps came shining through like a lamp in the darkness. It has been said that a newspaper is only as good as the people who work on it. Out of a sense of modesty, we must conclude with a discreet "'Nuff said."

Orientation-77

This year's Orientation proved to be very successful, and all concerned had an excellent time. Though some of the committee members were beginning to show signs of wear and tear at the beginning of the second week, Frosh showed tremendous form right up to the bitter end.

We all remember outstanding performances by such notable Frosh as Hilary Abbott, Angie Paterson, Wendy Ross, and Mary-ellen Townsend. Many others showed fine form and participated in such activities as Greaser Night, Field Day, Initiation, Academic Bazaar, Kangaroo Court, and the Olympiad, to name a few.

And who can forget such highlights as Dean Allatt and his four-footed catch, Diane Crook with a custard cream pie mask, and the constant drizzle and rain which put a damper on some scheduling, but not on the high spirits.

Orientation got the year off on a good note and with a bang!
CARNIVAL ’78

THE ADVENTURES OF JIM, TOM, AND VAL

Oh lads and lasses,
You listen well,
For it is a tale of Carnival,
I wish to tell.

It was long ago,
Many months I assume,
That these three sat down-
To consider impending doom.

On Friday was Casino,
In attendance,
Was Haver the Deano.
He did not waver,
To spend the money -
He does savour.

Oak was no joke,
And on Sunday
We felt our fate,
As many of us
Stayed out too late!

But the girls got tough,
And played powder puff,
The movie was groovy,
With Billy Joe in the dust
- It was home to lust.

Wednesday night was out of sight,
MacPherson and club,
Gave Johnson the snub,
Then Shier’s desire,
Set the Gaiter’s on fire,
And sent Johnson home to retire.

Then on to hockey,
McGill got cocky,
On the ice,
The Gaiter’s played nice -
They managed to jive for five,
And when the game was fini,
The Redmen only had three.

The rest of the week,
Well off it did sneak -
But when we gaze back,
Take even a short peek,
We wonder who made,
This wonderful week.

And I’ll take a crack,
It’s these three behind my back,
In a snap we’ll give them a clap,
But for now,
Let’s raise our beer,
And give them a cheer.

During the next few years, you'll open a lot of important books.

This should be one of them.

This book will help teach you money management. And that is a subject that will be important to you all your life.

At the Commerce, we can help you manage your money. We offer a broad range of accounts to meet your needs. Like our Chequing/Savings Account. It provides you with all the convenience of a chequing account, plus interest, so your savings grow faster.

Now is the time to start learning money management. Drop into a Commerce branch and open an account. And be sure to ask about all our services. Over the next few years you'll probably be using many of them.
