BISHOP'S UNIVERSITY

"RIGHTEOUS WAYS MAKE STRONG THE HEART"
"Learning for Life" - We have made that the theme of our Campaign for Bishop's this year, largely because it sums up what we hope that this institution will have meant to you.

You have been at Bishop's through an exciting and developing time. All of the Faculty join me in wishing you every success in all your endeavours that lie ahead. We are confident that you are well prepared to meet those challenges that will arise. And, we look forward to you returning to tell us about it in the future!

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

When I was asked to do the 1988 yearbook I had to make a choice as to which aspects of our school should be emphasized. In a small University such as this one representing our people is important, but equally as important is the task of representing the spirit of Bishop's. Throughout these next few pages is our attempt at capturing a frame in time and laying it out for you to remember in the years to come. Just as the spirit holds a warm place in the hearts of our students now, so will it be rekindled everytime we glance through the yearbook in the future.

Coulter resigns as head coach

Coulter's overall record at Bishop's was very successful, compiling 125 wins, 65 losses and 2 ties. More importantly, the respect he has gained from his players and other coaches and league officials has in itself been Coulter national recognition as a true friend of Canadian university football.

Her expression that, "it is likely that I will maintain a close relationship with future football teams." Among Coulter, will be

Nobel prize for theories on economic growth

STOCKHOLM (AP) — American economist Robert Solow has won the Nobel Prize in economics for explaining how certain factors affect economic growth. Solow, 63, won yesterday for a theory that "explains economic growth."
SPORTS
The 1987 Football GaTers had another magnificent season. Hopes were high after an O.Q.I.F.C. championship the previous year and a heartbreaking 2 point loss to the U.B.C. Thunderbirds in the Central Bowl at Lennoxville.

To begin the season, the GaTers travelled to Moncton, N.B. to take on perennially strong Acadia University. Bishop’s won going away 32 to 6 and people began putting a lot of pressure on the team by talking about an undefeated season. This is exactly what happened as the GaTers put away McGill twice (38-31) and (28-18), Concordia twice (38-12) and (33-16), Ottawa by one (phew!), Carleton easily (42-13) and Queen’s (39-10). This marked the first time in O.Q.I.F.C. history that Bishop’s were league champions and also undefeated.

The play-offs began and Bishop’s destroyed Carleton 39 to 0 and Raven’s coach, Ace Powell, told everyone that “No one can handle Bishop’s this year.” How wrong he was. McGill came to town on November 7th and on a cold, snowy day won the play-off game (32-16) and went on to become National Champions.

The GaTers players and coaches were stunned and, to this day, the pain from that one still remains.

Statistically, the team was outstanding finishing 9-1 overall. They also led the league in Offence (34 points per game) and Defence (17 points per game against!)

Simon Restall, Dennis Walker and Keith Kelly were in the top four in scoring. Dennis was second in rushing. Tony Harris led the conference in passing. Wally Zatlyn had an incredible 23.9 yard average per catch and Bert Joyal was second in total catches. Brian Morley was the best punter in the league and Simon Restall was the best goal kicker. Vic Gilmour, freshman Scott McKinney and Al Matheson intercepted ten times. The pass rush was devastating as Leroy Blugh, Derrick Joseph and George Martin were the top three in sacks with 10, 7 and 7 respectively.

Naturally, with such a great season, Bishop’s was well represented on the Conference All-Star team.

Quarterback                  Tony Harris
Runningback                   Dennis Walker
Wide receiver                 Wally Zatlyn
Inside receiver               Bertrand Joyal
Defensive lineman             Derrick Joseph
Defensive lineman             George Martin
Linebacker                     Leroy Blugh
Defensive back                 Vic Gilmour
Defensive back                 Al Matheson
Placekicker                   Simon Restall
Punter                         Brian Morley

Further to this, Bruce Coulter was picked as Coach-of-the-Year.

From this group, four of them were named All Canadians, Bertrand Joyal, Leroy Blugh, George Martin, Al Matheson.

Tony was also the league’s choice as the Hec Crighton nominee for the best football player in Canada and Leroy Blugh represented the O.Q.I.F.C. as the best defensive player in the country.

1987 was magnificent, yet disappointing. To a man, the GaTers still feel that they should have won the Vanier Cup and they have vowed to continue their goal of making Bishop’s the national champions.

In a sense, the end of an era occurred when Bruce Coulter stepped down as Head Coach after twenty-six distinguished years at Bishop’s and all of the countless players that came under his guidance were generous in their praise of Bruce and the influence that he has had on their lives.

Special thanks go to all the players who have given their all but won’t be back to challenge for next year. Tony Harris, Wally Zatlyn, Bruno Charest, Bob Urban, Luc Bilallick, John Coulter, Mike Bremmer, Mark Twerdun, John Duncan, Charlie McColgan, George Martin and José Boisvert.

Finally, a special tribute to the GaTers fans. Students and community alike were magnificent as the stadium was packed to overflowing for nearly every home game. Because of this support, the GaTers are the envy of all other teams and the players and coaches would like to acknowledge this support with heartfelt thanks.

After the season, Bruce announced that Ian Breck would take over as Head Coach and said that “Bishop’s future is in very capable hands”. Ian brings great enthusiasm, dedication and a will to win to the GaTers that will keep them in the forefront for years to come.
MEN'S BASKETBALL

ABSENT: Manager: Stephen Rand, Therapist: Stephen King.

The 1987-88 edition of the Men's Basketball Team experienced a most successful season. With an outstanding 21-6 record, the Gaiters took their act across Canada playing in tournaments from Calgary to Nova Scotia. The team earned its highest national ranking ever when in November, they were ranked No. 5 in Canada. For the rest of the year, the Gaiters were ranked between No. 7 and No. 9, quite an accomplishment for a team that had not even made their league play-offs for the past three seasons. Now the Gaiters have won the Q.U.A.A., which was 1st won by Bishop's ten years ago.

The Gaiters were paced by David King, Pierre Tiblin, and 6'9" Nick Van Herk who were chosen to the Q.U.A.A. 1ST All Star Team. As well, Coach Eddy Pomykala was voted Q.U.A.A. Coach of the year.

The team looks even more promising for '88-'89, and would like to thank and recognize the two departing team members, captain Kevin Robertson, and Nick Van Herk, two fifth year members who have given a lot to Gaiter Basketball over the years.

The Lady Gaiteers had an exciting finish to the 1987-88 season. They defeated the Laval Rouge et Or 67-60 in a sudden death semifinal at Laval to advance to the Q.U.A.A. finals. They narrowly missed advancing to the nationals when they were defeated by the McGill Martlets in the finals 64-6. Next season the Lady Gaiteers will again be contenders for the Q.U.A.A. crown, as they will have gained a year of valuable experience.
MEN'S VOLLEYBALL

MISSING: Sterling Mawhinney.

This was the first season ever for men's volleyball at Bishop's. The team was entered into the Quebec Senior A/AA League, as it will not be strong enough to compete on a varsity level. (The other Quebec varsity teams, Laval and Sherbrooke, are No. 3 and No. 8 in Canada respectively.) For a few years, in fact, some questioned whether the Gaiters should even play in the League; they were ranked dead last at the beginning of play.

The team has come together surprisingly well over the long season, however, and at the time of this writing were in fourth place in the League of six, gunning for third. The Gaiters will also represent Bishop's at the Senior A Provincials in Quebec City, and have a chance to advance to Nationals in May.

The university had two chances to see their new team in action this year: at an exhibition match vs. Sherbrooke in November, and when they made it to the finals of the first annual Bishop's Invitational Tournament in January.

The Gaiters were made up of outside hitters Rob Smith, Mike Maxwell, Jeff Sprecker, and Jacques Provancher, who will be graduating this year. Hitting in the middle were Randy Dowden, Steve Lovelace, and Peter Bogert. Setter Sterling Mawhinney will also be graduating this year, while Edgar Gallibois should be back, as he is from Champlain. Player-coach Stephen Lloyd also set, while Johnny Lim toiled countless hours as assistant coach and statistician.

James Williams, Chris Fewster, Christian Grégoire, and Kennie Marler all played for the Gaiters during the first semester, but left the team for school commitments.

It was a satisfying first year for the Gaiters, yet with the maturing of this year’s rookie squad and some aggressive recruiting, things should look even better for Bishop's volleyball in the future.

MANAGEMENT OF DEWHURST AND THE SNACK BAR

Marriott
Bishop's was originally a Divinity college. This is reflected in the names which were given to the three terms passed in the year. The first term was Michaelmas, the second Lent and the third Trinity. A further extension of this is the fact that chapel was mandatory five days a week. Of course, if you got on the good side of the porter that week you just might receive a few ticks on the roster in gratis. Gowns were worn to lectures and chapel, and even to meals. This practice was dropped from the regulations about 11 years ago. Although there are still a few professors who opt to wear their gowns to class.

In those days there was a real dining room with a head waiter, Jim Dewhurst, after whom our present dining hall is named. He was a small, thin man and was always an honorary guest at the athletic banquets as he entertained the troops with various antics. In one such performance, he balanced a beer on his head and sang A BICYCLE BUILT FOR TWO. There were even waitresses — for the men only. There was a head table at which the professors sat. Grace was said at every meal — in Latin. And if you wished to leave early, you had to be excused by the presiding professor.

In the 40's and 50's, Bishop's was a "residential university for men", but women were permitted to lectures. When it was proposed that a women's residence be built, Dr. Jeffirs, who was head of the Education program, suggested that it be located on the island in the middle of the St. Francis near Sherbrooke - where there had been a prisoner of war camp during World War II.
The original Bishop’s residences were the Old Arts Building, the New Arts Building, the Old Lodge and the Shed. We now know these buildings as Johnson, the Johnson Annex, McGreer and Divinity. St. Mark’s Chapel as we know it today was built in 1857. It was one of the early buildings. As is McGreer, named after the principal, a former padre.
There is life after Bishop's - participate in homecomings, class reunions, alumni travel programs and branch activities in almost every major city across Canada. Help your alma mater and reap the rewards of getting involved in student career counselling and student recruitment. An Alumni Newsletter keeps you in touch with the University and with each other. Put something back into the University by supporting the Alumni Annual Fund. Most importantly keep in touch with us so that we can keep in touch with you. The Bishop's University Alumni Association has lots to offer you!

It seems that Bishop's Boys did more than learn "true religion and sound literature". They were often up to their necks in pranks and tomfoolery. In the 40's, some Scottish nationalists stole the Stone of Scone, the stone upon which the Scottish kings were crowned, which now sits under the Coronation chair in Westminster Abbey. The "Stone of Scone" magically resurfaced here at Bishop's University under the bishop's chair in St. Mark's Chapel. Some student, in his infinite wisdom, went out into the fields and dug up a stone and slipped it into St. Mark's.
Bishop's Boys never let there be a dull moment. There was, for example, the Raid of '47. A curfew existed in those days and the doors were locked up at night but this did not seem to stop anyone. One night the residents of the New Arts Building (Johnson) formed an alliance with the Old Lodge (Johnson Annex). They all met in the Convocation Hall and decided to attack the students of the Old Arts Building (McGee). Everyone had a part to play. Someone was posted at the fire escape into the Old Lodge to let them all in. Each student was assigned a room. At the signal of flickering lights, each student charged into their assigned room and dumped the poor unsuspecting sleeper from his bed. To protect the identities of the attackers, someone was in the basement and threw the switch. Also to ensure a getaway, someone was given the job of wiring the dean of residence's door so he could not get out. For a diversionary tactic, a smoke bomb was let up in the Quad. This activity was not looked upon too favourably and the dean of residence later lined them all up in the Men's Common Room and gave them quite a tongue lashing. The residents of the Shed (Divinity), who had no part in the raid, decided for a lark to lock them up and let them stew awhile. Another fight ensued.
In the 40's, someone climbed up to the cupola atop McGeer where the school flag was then flown. The next morning what was to be seen was not the Bishop's flag but the Hammer and Sickle a-flapping in the breeze.
STUDENT GUIDE TO SURVIVAL

LESSON 1: You know something is wrong when:

- you pull an all-nighter to write a paper due for 8:00 the next morning only to have the class cancelled and the paper postponed until the following week.
- the class you have to take coincides with "General Hospital".
- the only way people can tell you're a jock is because you smell like one.
- your sociology professor asks you your opinion on euthanasia and you tell him you have never been to China.
- cafeteria food starts to taste good.
- you go home for spring break and your room has been converted into a den.
- you run into your mother at the drugstore just as the pharmacist announces over the intercom that your birth control prescription is ready.
- your new roommate's name is Muffy and her favourite colours are pink and green.
- the cost of your books is more than your tuition.
- a friend cheats off your test and gets a better grade than you do.
- the only answer you can think of to the "why do you want to become a doctor" question on the med school application is that "I'd like to make a lot of money".
- the surgeon general determines that dressing preppy can be hazardous to your health.
- your mother starts to wonder why a single girl needs a double bed in her apartment.
- your roommate writes a term paper the night before it's due and gets the research assistant grant you worked your ass off for.
- the only thing that takes longer than reading "War and Peace" is the line at registration.
- the food in your refrigerator is older than you are.
- "Animal House" begins to look autobiographical.
- the bell curve actually works in your favor.
- you actually want to study.
