Women's Rugby

The women's rugby team ended their season on a high note as they played their hearts out in the national championships hosted by Bishop's in early November. The Gaiters lost all three games but never stopped fighting until the final whistle blew to end Saturday's fifth place game versus Saint Francis Xavier.

The program took a giant step forward on the weekend as the Purple and Whites, battling the best teams in the country, came out fired up and unafraid. Down by only five points at halftime in their opening match versus the Guelph Gryphons, the Gaiters gained confidence and played with pride in front of their hometown fans. They fought through the cuts, bruises and the aches and pains of playing three games in two days and, in the eyes of all that were present, demonstrated the toughness and character of true winners.
Men's Rugby

The Bishop's Gaiters were upset by the visiting Concordia Stingers 19-16 in the provincial men's rugby championship game under the lights at Optimist Park Pitch in Lennoxville. Early in the second half Bishop's lost their second player to the dreaded red card and played the remainder of the game two men down. The Purple and Whites didn't give up, however, scoring 10 "short-handed" points in the last thirty minutes of the match to get within three, but the Stingers held on to take the gold medal. Andy Wanka led the way for the Gaiters.
Women's

Lacrosse
The Bishop’s men’s and women’s ski teams enjoyed a very successful season. On the women’s side, Bishop’s finished in second place out of nine teams in the Quebec University Alpine Ski Circuit. Leading the way individually for B.U.S.T., finishing in fourth place overall, was Michou Beaulieu, followed closely by fifth-place finisher Sophie Cross. Other notable finishers for Bishop’s included Kara Mortveit in eighth, Rebekah Smiley in ninth, Katherine Marr in 18th, and Jackie Jenkins in 20th. Peter Todd led the men’s team to a second place finish in the nine-team league. Peter was the number one skier on the university circuit and was voted Pilsen Pub-Gaiter Athlete of the Week four times. Mark Courneya also put together an impressive season finishing in sixth overall. James Morrison earned 11th place honours, Justin Schaldone 32nd and Joey Gibbons 44th. Combined, the B.U.S.T. finished in third place just behind rivals Montreal and McGill and well ahead of fourth place Sherbrooke.

After losing to Laval by a mere 2 points in the QSSF final last year, the Gaiters were looking exact revenge on the Rouge et Or in the 2000-2001 season. Bishop’s started off the season going 4-3, but a second semester losing streak and a barrage of injuries took its toll and the team finished with a 8-12 record. Bruised and battered, the team often practiced with less than ten players. Newcomer Amy O'Keefe had to sit out after a season-ending knee injury. The Gaiters finished the regular season in third place behind Laval and Concordia.

In the semi-final game in the Hive at Concordia, the Gaiters put together an incredible performance and upset the Stingers on their home court, 51-42. The win moved the Gaiters into the league final versus the number two team in the country, the Laval Rouge et Or. Laval proved to be too much as they handed the Gaiters a 32-point loss.

The Gaiters’ co-MVPs Julie Rodrigue and Melissa Lemay were named to the conference all-star team. Lindsey Huff earned the team award while point guard Christine Murphy took home the most improved player honours. Shooting guard Amelie Rousseau was named rookie of the year.
The 2000-2001 season was not as successful as in the late nineties. The Gaiters finished with an overall record of 7-24, including a league record of 5-17, which was not good enough to make the playoffs in the much-improved QSSF. The young Gaiters began the season on the losing end of many close games. Highlights of the season include a 44-point victory over the Ottawa Gee Gees in front of a winter homecoming crowd at Mitchell Gymnasium. The Gaiters took two out of three games versus a strong University of Toronto squad. Bishop's traveled to the #4 ranked Carleton Ravens and gave the favourites all they could handle leading for most of the game and finally losing by 5. For the first time in 14 seasons the Gaiters did not make the playoffs.

Forward Phil Miguel was the lone Gaiter named to the QSSF all-star team and was voted team MVP. Fourth-year guard and team co-captain Shawn Craik earned the prestigious Garth Smith Award for leadership, dedication, and effort. The team's most improved player was point guard David Suzuki who returned to lead the team on the floor after recovering from a severe head injury incurred over the summer holiday. Shaun Brade, a lightning quick point guard, was named newcomer of the year.

The Gaiters lose one player to graduation, senior forward Darin Newton.
Women's Soccer

Bishop's finished the season in third place with 8 wins and 4 losses, but the loss of talented midfielder Jessica Romani in the eighth game of the year took its toll on the heavily injured Gaiter lineup. The Gaiters lost to Laval in the semi-final game, 2-1. Third-year forward Erin Patrick was named to the first all-star team as well as defender Maryka Meunier, and mid-fielder Jessica Romani. Gaiters named to the second all-star team included defender Meaghan Stevens and mid-fielder Karen Drinkwater. Bishop's defender Maryka Meunier won Rookie of the Year honours in the QSSF. The team's leading scorer, Erin Patrick, was voted second team All-Canadian for the second consecutive season.
Women's Hockey

This was a rebuilding season for the Polar Bears. The team had four players returning from last year, one of which was lost to a season ending injury before the season had even started. With ten rookies it took some time to gel. The team played both in Montreal and the Northern U.S. with a trip to the Olympic Center in Lake Placid a highlight. The Polar Bears’ season ended last week as the team finished third out of ten teams in a tournament in Stowe, Vermont.

The team is only losing one player to graduation and coach Hunting is looking forward to the upcoming season.

MALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR
Ben Ouimet, a 27-year-old native of Joliette, Quebec, is the winner of the Bishop's University male athlete of the year award.
Ben, a tailback on the Gaiter football team, graduated at Christmas with a humanities degree after ripping up the Ontario-Quebec Intercollegiate Football Conference. He capped an outstanding four-year university career this past season by being named to the All-Canadian team as well as first team all-star in the conference. A little over a month after finishing his studies at Bishop's, Ben was signed by the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League (CFL) to a one-year contract.
Ben had his finest year, running for 949 yards in the regular season and taking home the QQIFC rushing crown. Including the playoff game against Laval, he finished with 1021 rushing yards and caught 13 passes for 223 yards. He scored seven times during the year and averaged 138.2 all-purpose yards a game.
The speedy back was named Pilsen-Pub Gaiter athlete of the week three times this year.

FEMALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR
Erin Patrick, a 20-year-old humanities student from Calgary Alberta is the winner of the female athlete of the year award for the second straight year.
Erin, who was also the female freshman athlete of the year two seasons ago, excelled on the soccer pitch once again for the Gaiters this fall. She was second in the nation in scoring race, finishing with 15 goals and five assists. The three-time first team Quebec all-star and team MVP was named star of the game four times and was selected Pilsen-Pub Gaiter female athlete of the week twice.
The junior forward, who was second in the Quebec University Soccer League in goals, helped Bishop's finish 7-3-2 this past season, its second best record since the team's rebirth in 1992. The squad finished third overall in the league and qualified for the playoffs for only the second time in team history.
Erin has been the only female All-Canadian athlete at Bishop's since Cynthia Johnston was a back-to-back basketball All-Canadian in 1990 and 1991.

MALE FRESHMAN ATHLETE OF THE YEAR
Andrew Wanka, a 23-year old economics student from Montreal is the 2000-2001 winner of the Male Freshman Athlete of the Year award.
Andrew, a fly-half on the Bishop's men's rugby team, played a key role in the team's regular season title run. The Pilsen-Pub Gaiter male athlete of the week in late October, Wanka led the team to a pair of victories to jump into first place in the league. The rookie controlled the games for the Gaiters and was named Rookie of the Year by head coach Bill Robson. As captain of the squad, Andy led by example, worked hard throughout, and is quickly becoming one of the top players in the province.

FEMALE FRESHMAN ATHLETE OF THE YEAR
Maryka Meunier, a 21-year-old languages student from Fleurimont, Quebec is the 2000-2001 winner of the Female Freshman Athlete of the Year award.
Maryka, a defender on the women's soccer team, had a major impact on the Bishop's University soccer program in her rookie season. A first team all-star, Maryka played a pivotal role in the Gaiters' third-place finish in the Quebec University soccer league. She chipped in offensively scoring 3 goals and was named Pilsen-Pub Gaiter athlete of the week once. Maryka was also named rookie of the year in the conference earlier this fall.
Football

Bishop’s finished the season with two wins and six losses, good enough for a fourth place finish in the OQIFC. The Gaiters had arguably the toughest schedule in Canada playing six out of eight games versus top-ten teams. The Gaiters lost a nail-biter to Laval in the semi-final game. Leading the Gaiters on offense was fourth -year running back Ben Ouimet. Ben ran for a total of 949 yards, averaging a whopping 8.6 yards per carry. The All-Canadian candidate also caught seven passes for 126 yards, an 18.6 yard average. Sophomore wide receiver Dennis Halfpenny led the team with 22 receptions for 331 yards.

The Gaiter defense was led by fifth-year linebacker Matt Robichaud. Matt accumulated 58 tackles, including three brain-numbing sacks. Third-year linebacker Martin Laperrriere amassed 53 tackles. Leading the Gaiter backfield in tackles were DB’s Terry Veneau and David Stipe.

The Gaiters had five players named to the OQIFC all-star team including running back Ben Ouimet, offensive linemen Eric Pickering and Serge Bourque, defensive lineman Bill Wright and hard hitting linebacker, Matt Robichaud.

Golf

The Bishop’s Golf Team traveled to Ste-Marie de Beauce to participate in the Quebec Provincial Championships at Club de Golf de Beauce. After a one-hour and a half frost delay, the Gaiters took to the course on a sunny and cold Friday morning in rural Quebec. More than just the grass was cold, however, as the Gaiters couldn’t manage to post a score in the seventies. Low scorers for Bishop’s included Evan Mooney with 82 and Andre Borys 86.

The Gaiters were looking to catch up to the pack on Saturday, but this time hurricane-force winds (or maybe just a little less) crushed the team’s hopes for a comeback. Low scorers on Day 2 for the Gaiters included Evan Mooney with 82 and Erik Lagarde 84. The Gaiters finished a dismal seventh in the seven team tournament.
Nap Time
2001 Residence
It’s difficult to put the Mack 2000-01 year into the traditional category of ‘Good Year’ or ‘Crazy Year,’ but it was certainly a year.

It was a year of international students (including Vix, the crazy South African, who was willing to do the Polar Bear Dip), wars between the sexes (accompanied by the memorable prank war), water balloons and a certain BB gun, girls night out, dares (completed by dancing on the bar), assassins week brutality (way to go, Derek - AKA Rodney King), mysterious bathroom floodings, and Dawson’s Crowds.

While the RAs may have, at times, gained a whole appreciation for the counselling centre, they, like the rest of the Building, gained a bunch of new friends with whom they shared laughs and tears, good moments and . . . not so good.

It was an unforgettable year, the year of the Mack Fire Department - Up ‘N Smoke, Guys! (Just not in the bush out front!)
Norton

Once upon a time, there was a building called Norton, and it was very lonely until the devil came out to play, in more ways than one...

Remember that time the 2-4 challenge changed our lives, KD began to stand for 'killer dumps', jello was no longer in shooters and iced tea never felt so good coming??

"Going for a walk" would take you to 4th Floor, the highest place in rez, where chest hair was not as easy to remove and Tony Hawk was God. A simple drizzle down the stairs brought you to 3rd Floor's scandalous nights out, noisy sex and a little tappage of the ass.

If you followed your nose to 2nd Floor you would regret it, as it was the home of daily riots that left ketchup on walls, pizza on floors and broken glass unnoticed. It took a special breed of person to survive in this sea of cheap beer and beautifully hideous noises.

And, as usual, "always on the bottom" was 1st Floor, home of the #1 crapper in rez and yes people actually live there.

The R.A.s who guarded the palace never minded being insulted by a cop from Ottawa, getting peed on, treating BBQ's like fire or thinking about babies.

And so they all lived happily ever after and dear Norton missed them when they left, as no other rez could top the wild and crazy fun we had in Norton 2000-2001.
With an incredible number of international students as well as other people from all walks of life, Pollack can easily be considered the most "random" residence on campus. That's right... "random". Though by now the word has lost all meaning. Bishop's smallest rez has returned to all-girls status, to the initial chagrin and later relief of its residents who have to hold their breath walking through the cesspool next door to get home. From singing in the shower to decorating up a storm to late-night walks to wigs to old-school Barbie-music dance parties, Pollack residents show their creativity at every turn. Pollack will be forever remembered by those who have laughed, cried and hurled within its walls. And hey, at least the fireplace looks nice.
Kuehner

Kuehner was a little camera shy this year. Maybe next year there'll be a few more camera's clicking in this Rez!

Principal's Message

My heartfelt congratulations to all of you who were part of the Bishop's Class of 2001, the largest graduating class in the University's history. You have joined a community of over 9,000 Bishop's graduates, who are making a difference in a wide variety of contexts and in all parts of the world.

When you first came to Bishop's, we offered you full participation in "The Bishop's Experience", which includes not only a stimulating academic environment, but also the opportunity to participate in athletics, in student government and clubs, in social, cultural and community activities. All of these are the building materials of a well-rounded, interested and involved citizen, and you will take what you have gained at Bishop's with you wherever you go.

As you move on to the next stage of your life, I hope that you will use these skills and insights not only to earn a good living, but also to live life well.

I wish you good luck, good health and much happiness in whatever life you choose.

A message from the editor.

Well when I started this year I didn’t think I’d be doing this. The person who was hired to be the editor decided not to come back to Bishop’s this year so Pat Dyer, our intrepid VP external, came to me and asked if I was up for it. Good question. Was I up for hours of sorting photos, doing layouts and printing off pages? Or being asked every other hour when the book from last year would be arriving only to spend hours hauling boxes around and handing out books in the lobby of the SUB. Of course I was. It gave me the opportunity of taking all the memories that people have of this past year and booking them into one book. I couldn’t have done this alone of course. My eternal gratitude goes out to Crystal Michel, Vanessa Angell and Julie Mayrand for all their help and the long hours they spent pestering people to get photos and write-ups. And I want to pay tribute to Joy Chandler. She put up with as many, if not more, questions about last year’s book and where to submit photos and write-ups. She also kept me sane with her words of wisdom and encouragement and she was always made sure that I wasn’t working too hard. And finally I want to thank all my friends and family for putting up with me during the sleepless week before deadlines and for stopping from throwing my computer into the nearest body of water, whether it be the Massawippi or the Halifax Harbour! I hope that this book takes the pictures that you have given me and turned them into a good representation of the 2000-2001 year at Bishop’s and a lasting memorial to the class of 2001. Good Luck with your future and Raise a toast!
